

CLASS NIGHT

Wednesday evening, May 22, at the school auditorium, the seniors bequeathed all their worldly goods, revealed the secrets of their past and looked into the future.

The setting was a radio station where the jovial master of ceremonies, Ernest Spencer, announced the program, weather reports and correct time over station KCIS.

TENTH GRADE PICNIC

On May 3, the rollicking tenth graders had their annual picnic supper at Chemawa park. Our 10A girls could not be released from their work in the dining hall until 5:30. While the rest of us waited for them, we kept ourselves busy lining up the platters of baked beans, potato salad, sandwiches and apples; roasting the wieners; sniffing the aroma of good strong coffee; and smacking our lips over the ice cream.

As soon as the 10A girls arrived we fell in line for the chow. Are our girls good cooks!

COMMENCEMENT (Continued)

to Chemawa occurred on Friday afternoon with the less formal farewell dance in the evening. Mary Agnes Simmons was the salutatorian and Fred Miller presented the valedictory talk. The principal speaker was Dr. Lawrence A. Riggs of the Willamette university education department. His words of concurrent admonition and courage to the youth graduating into a world of chaotic conflict were commanding and sincere. Supt. Evans made the diploma awards and Rev. Allen Wilcox blessed those present in prayer to end the ceremony. The following seniors were graduated Virginia M. Alexander, Robert E. Eickmeyer, Berniece Foster, Terry S. Francis, Don L. Geary, Elsie Rae Grunlose, Alice Ione Hawk, Marie A. Jim, Virginia LaFromboise, Fred Miller, George Miller, Calvin E. Picard, Mary Agnes Simmons, Ernest C. Spencer, Donald B. Williams, Justin Wilson, Phillip M. Bull, John Plouffe, Paul W. Svinth.

John Plouffe and Paul Svinth are currently in the armed forces. Ernest Spencer, Donald Williams, Justin Wilson and Phillip Bull are returned veterans whose graduation was effected through successful completion of army examinations.
