Mr. Roscoe J. Weininger, head of our vocational department, has had the misfortune to break an ankle. Both students and employees hope for his early recovery.

Messages from Pauline Rector Kidd, former fourth grade teacher, inform us that she and Captain Kidd now live in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Flint Parkhurst have moved recently from Salt Lake City to Billings, Montana. Mrs. Parkhurst, as Ruth Evelyn Morse, was registrar and librarian of Chemawa.

Not long ago Mrs. Sadie Mitchell had the pleasure of having her two sisters with her for two weeks. Mrs. E. W. Oster of Williston, North Dakota, and Mrs. A. N. Sebelins of York, North Dakota, enjoyed being at Chemawa very much.

Miss Elda Dodrill, our former seventh grade teacher, has been taken to California. Several of her relatives came to the Deaconess hospital in Salem to visit her. Her sister, Mrs. Tilda Dunlap, decided to take her to her home near Los Angeles. In a recent letter Miss Dodrill writes to thank employees of Chemawa for sending her a poinsettia plant. She further writes that she is able to sit up in a chair again and that her very good friend, Peggy Wehunt Byers, a former teacher at Chemawa, visited her during the Christmas vacation. Students and employees hope for Miss Dodrill's continued recovery.

Benefit Dance

The seniors sponsored a dance on January 4 to raise money for athletic equipment. Joe Lane and his Oregon play boys furnished the music and every one who attended enjoyed the dance. Colored lights and decorations of colored snow made the gym very attractive.

A Visit from Saint Vincent's

On Sunday night, December 22, a group of students came out from Saint Vincent's in Salem to entertain us in with a program.

The program was given in the auditorium and told us the story of the birth of Christ in song and verse. After these student's had finished their program Father Rodakowski showed the film, "Guadalupe Day."

One could tell that the program was really appreciated by the good attention which was given the cast.

Fresh Paint

The classrooms are being painted so you had better watch out!

"While the tenth grade room was being painted we moved into room across the hall. It was fun moving and even more fun when we moved back to our nicely painted room. The walls of all classrooms in the high school building are repainted and the floors of all rooms are being refinished."

Just a word of advice. "Be careful where you lean, or what you stand against. Look out for 'Wet Paint' signs."

Christmas at McNary

The Christmas program we had at McNary hall was held Christmas Eve. The announcer was Joe Pinkham. It began with everybody singing a Christmas carol. After that we had the solo, "White Christmas," by Carl Felsman. Reverend Wilcox made a helpful talk. A number by Jimmie Chocktoot and Don Geary was played on their guitars. Everybody sang a song which was led by Miss Dorweiler. A reading was given by Gilbert Towner. After Jimmy and Geary appeared again the announcer called Santa Claus and he with the help of the boys distributed the gifts that were under the tree.

Mr. Aaron brought apples for the boys and as we left the room each boy received a bag of sweets and fruit. Our superintendent, principal and other employees attended the program.

Friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Mabel Record Cornick will be grieved to learn of her death on November 16, 1946. Mrs. Cornick was a matron at McNary hall for sixteen years and was much beloved and highly respected by the students.
