

Employees Are Transferred

Supt. Myrthus W. Evans, who has been superintendent at Chemawa since July 1, 1943, has been transferred to Sherman Institute at Riverside, Calif.

Mr. Evans' successor is Mr. Russell M. Kelly, a supervisor from Oklahoma.

Dr. P.A. Tirador, our doctor for two years, has been transferred to the Western Oklahoma Consolidated Agency, with his headquarters at the Indian hospital, Clinton, Oklahoma.

At present Chemawa has no resident doctor. Dr. N. J. Stone of Salem is the contract doctor.

Enrollment Reaches 400

Chemawa enrollment stands at 400 according to record from the office of the registrar. These figures may be broken down as follows: Girls, 205, Boys 195. Grade school, 1-6, 189; High school, 7-12, 211. From Alaska, 12. Those from Alaska are:

From Saxman, Moses Leibrandt, gr. 5; from Craig, Arthur Young, gr. 10, James Young, gr. 7, Georgianna Young, gr. 10; from Metlakatla, Bernita Hayward, gr. 12, Elizabeth Usher, gr. 9, Hazel Frisch, gr. 11; from Kodiak, Freda Bent, gr. 11; from Kasaaan, Leif Olsen, gr. 6, Johnny Olsen, gr. 5, Frederick Olsen, gr. 4, Robert Olsen, gr. 2.

Hobby Clubs Stir Interest

On Wednesday, October 1, hobby clubs were organized. This gives the students good entertainment as well as teaching them things that they do not get in their academic or vocational classes.

Following are the organized clubs:

Art club with Mr. C. C. Burnette; Music club with Miss Sylvia Dorweiler; Dancing club with Miss Beatrice Morse, Mrs. Edith Howard, and Mrs. Virginia Weigel; Drama and Speech club with Mrs. Lula Detrick; Junior Red Cross with Mrs. Ruth Seawright, Miss Pita Cajete, Mrs. Leona Albin Nopp; Charm club with Mrs. Lena Cronk; Pep club with Miss Jeanette Goings and Miss Marjory Olson; Handcraft club with Mrs. Lillian Hudson; Ag club with Mr. Wright Noel.

About 100 percent of the junior and senior high school students belong to the clubs and are enjoying the various activities represented.

Student Council Installed In Impressive Ceremony

Glen Brown and Ernestine Lane Head Council

The mayor, vice-mayor, commissioners and assistant commissioners took the pledge to their offices in a candle-light installation assembly, the evening of October 22.

The program, of which Clarence Hunter was chairman, began with a processional of the officials headed by a color guard of boy scouts, Lloyd Saunders, Joseph Tattooed and Edward Spott.

After the flag salute and patriotic singing, Supt. Evans presented the gavel to Mayor Glen Brown.

The commissioners received their badges during the candle lighting ceremony. Assisting the chairman were students who represented the qualities that public officials should possess:

Melvin Eagleman spoke as "Achievement," Hazel Frisch as "Scholarship," Melvin Keeler as "Service," Loyette Moppin as "Character," Marion Placid as "Leadership," and Haskell Hood as "Loyalty."

Mrs. Nell V. Brannon administered the pledge of office to the Commissioners and their Assistants.

The student body had previously elected their student council at elections held in the high school building.

The commissioners are: Finance, George Cagey, Jeannie Halfmoon; School, Janice Rambeau, Delford Crain; Civic, Aloysius Slickpoo, Delores Racehorse; Home, Robert Kutch, Velma McLeod, Social, Richard Hillaire, Florence Ingawanup; Athletic, Marcelene Gensaw, Victor Jackson.

The assistants are: Mark Farwell, Marthella Stahi, Arthur Johnson, Romona La Fromboise; Fred Kalama, Carol McLeod, Edward Henery, Georgianna Young; Billy Sealy, Levy George, Leora Plummer, Nathan Baker, Bernita Hayward, Edwin Ingawanup, Elizabeth Usher, Ralph Charles; Norma Celestine, David Stewart, Eugenia Wolfe, Danny Foster; Freda Bent, Vernon Lane, Phyllis Miller, Don Rambeau.

This edition was published by the Junior class.