INDIAN DANCES ENJOYED

Various student groups presented Indian dances in the Winina hall court on Thanksgiving day. They enjoyed watching the dances of the different tribes and were pleased to take part in their own. Some of the ones presented were: Eagle, Warrior, Welcome, Owl, Rabbit, Snake, and Skip dances.

JUNIOR RED CROSS CLUB IS A FAVORITE

A popular club with the Chemawa girls is the Junior Red Cross. They meet in a room at the hospital which they have decorated with pictures. The club officers are:

President	Maxine Washington
Vice-President	Imogene Washington
Secretary	Nancy Bultler
Treasurer	Betty Pays

BOY SCOUT TRIP

On November 1st eighteen Chemawa Boy Scouts left for a two day trip to Camp Pioneer. This camp, which is a popular camp for Boy Scouts, is south of Mt. Jefferson.

The Scouts reported a good time, the best fun was snow balling.

Brownie

Many campus people will be pleased to know that Brownie, formerly community pet of the little girls of McBride hall, found a home when Chemawa was threatened with permanent closing last summer and all the little girls were sent home. The following tells the story:

"There was a little brown dog here in Chemawa and her name was Brownie. She had been here for two or three years. She was here longer than I was. When the weather was cold the girls would fix a bed for her under McBride hall. She wasn't very strong because she didn't get very much to eat. The girls would bring things from the dining room.

"At the end of the year my parents let me and my sister take Brownie home. When we got out of the car she jumped out and ran all over the place and the next morning we couldn't find her. She didn't come back until about noon.

"When we came back to Chemawa she was nice and healthy. My mother wrote to me the other day and told me that Brownie had three little pups. One is brown and two are spotted. I haven't named them."—Mary Eyle, Grade 6.

AG PARTY

The gym was a scene of much gaiety on November 7, when the Ag. Club sponsored an all school party.

The unique decorations were all farm products. The stage was festooned with corn stalks across the back and ears of yellow corn hanging from the crossbeams. Bales of hay, saddles, pitchforks and harness gave one the real feeling of being down on the farm. The red apples in the basketball nets lent color to the decorations.

Larry and his Range Riders furnished the music for the dancing.

READING FOR POINTS

This year the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes are using the point system for library reading.

A total, of 32 points, is recommended for each student during the school year, for all points over 32 extra credit will be given. Sixteen points must be in by the end of the first semester.

Biography and other books on the same reading level are rated as high point books. Among the highest rating fiction books are, "Who Walks Alone," "The Robe" and "Ben Hur." These books rate 6 points each while lighter reading such as Jack London's books are given 4 points.

This method is being used to encourage students to develop a habit of diversified reading.

I love the Christmastide, and yet,
I notice this, each year I live;
I always like the gifts I get,
But how I love the gifts I give.
—Carolyn Wells.
