

Chemawa Shines at Jamboree

On the night of December 6 the Chemawa rooters and basketball team did themselves proud at the Marion county jamboree held in the Willamette gym. Our pep club took the first place trophy for singing and yelling and our basketball warriors won in their abbreviated set-to with Gates. Buddy Kalama made a special hit with his tom-tom rhythm yell leading. The nine cheer leaders who carried our group to victory were Georgianna Young, Phyllis Miller, Ernestine Lane, Florence Ingawanup, Marceline Gensaw, Velma, McLeod, Thelma Dick, Edna Livermore and Sylvia Williams.

THANKS TO THE JOURNAL

Last week the Oregon Journal of Portland ran editorials calling attention to the students at Chemawa who would be without gifts at Christmas unless kindhearted people came to the rescue. As a result of these editorials Girl Scouts of Portland and the Lions Clubs of Portland and Salem, as well as various individuals, have responded generously and now all the children will receive gifts at the Chemawa Christmas trees. We are indeed grateful to the Journal for the kind deed and kind words.

A KIND DEED

We send greetings and thanks to Mr. John S. Kunkle for the five dollars which he gave to the small children's Christmas fund. Mr. Kunkle retired as plumbing instructor here a few years ago and now lives near Salem. He always had a soft place in his heart for the little ones and still thinks of them, especially at this time of the year.

'Twas the night before Christmas
And all through the house
Not a creature was stirring
Not even a mouse.
When out in the night
We heard a clear call,
'Hi Ho Silver!
The chimney's too small!"

Our wish for you,
Wherever you are:
The joy of the Shepherds,
The peace of Star.

GIRLS INTRAMURAL

With Mr. Hudson as their coach the girls of Winona hall played intramural basketball games in the gym every Tuesday and Thursday evening. The Blue Birds defeated all the other four teams in the league during the tournament.

Captains of the other four teams are: Loyette Moppin, Tigers; Delores Racehorse, Panthers; Helen George, Cougars.
