

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

Navajo class with teacher-interpreter. Left to right, Herbert Irving, Nelson Jackson, Johnson Reeder, Mrs. Bernice Brown and Abbie Begay . . . Student storekeeper (John Teadlene) and customers in Navajo division. The customers are, from left, Donald Chee, Lillie Boonie and Jonas Begiss.

Chemawa birthday queen, Janice Rambeau, and attendants at school's 69th Birthday celebration. Left to right, Anita Sampson, Delores Tashwick, Phyllis Miller, Janice, Isabelle Patchpe, Ernestine Lane, Leora Plummer, Agnes Takkeal and Loretta Sohappy.

Mr. Johannaber and Ellen Henry in tenth grade science class . . . Phillip Reed and Albert Willie, Navajo students, seem pleased at what the scales record for them . . . Mrs. Brannon, principal, making voice test of Vernon Henry with Soundcriber.

Students and Mrs. Kewaygeshik, gathering signatures for the "Watawah," a student periodical . . . Earl Ironpipe cuts illustrations for the "Watawah" with stylus.

Invasion? No. The Navajo students are enjoying first view of the ocean during a memorable trip to the coast.