WINONA HALL NEWS ITEMS

Since it is about time for school to close again, Winona hall has been doing its spring house cleaning. Each unit has a certain section of the building to clean this week and then next week the girls must clean their rooms thoroughly.

Phyllis Miller has been elected to take over Unit I, since the departure of Georgianna Young.

All of the Winona girls are very happy to have Mrs. Griffith back on duty again after her illness.

Team I, of the intramural basketball teams, gave a party because they won the most games of the basketball series. The party was paid for out of the Winona candy fund as an award.

House Councillors of Winona and McNary enjoyed an Easter party at Winona hall on April 17. This was financed out of the Winona candy fund.

Loretta Hawk and her Unit VI once again won the Unit Award trip to Salem.

The girls are now having Volley ball intramural in the Gym. So far Team V is ahead with the most games won.

The new "T" shirts are eye-catching which the girls are ordering. We hope to see more letter girl sweaters next year.

THIS LITTLE PIG WENT TO MARKET

On April 28, the pigs from the class and the individual projects were sold. Those selling were the 5, 7, 8, and 9th grades, class projects. Alex Samuels, William Shillal, Ralph Charles and Danny Foster sold their individual projects. The average weight of the pigs was 200 pounds.

SHOP TALK

The carpenters have been busy putting up a building which is to be used as a commissary when it is completed.

The auto shop crew is doing some repair work on one of the pickup trucks which the school recently brought in from Richland, Wash.

LETTERMEN BALL

Everyone on the campus eagerly awaited the eve of April 22, the big event being the Lettermen's Ball. This dance is sponsored each year to raise funds to help in the athletic program. This year Vernon Lane was master of ceremonies. Guests included Coach Kettleton, Mr. Aaron, former boys adviser, Mr. E. Hudson, sponsor. These guests each contributed to the program by giving short talks. Music was furnished by the Top Hatters from Salem. Doughnuts, coffee, and pop were sold during the evening. Three door prizes were given away; these were three cakes.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Mrs. William Outhouse of the Pine Ridge Indian School visited friends on the campus.

Among student visitors recently on the campus were S. M. Ernest Ironpipe off the U.S.S. Salisbury Sound; Pvt. Terry Francis on leave from Oceanside, California; Melvin Eagleman from Siletz, Oregon; and Sue Rope from Salem, Oregon.

The Senior girls are attending shop one hour each morning that they are in their special vocational classes. They are learning mechanics which will be very useful in their daily living. Mr. Vincent Matt is their instructor.

The Chemawa Junior Red Cross held a joint Council meeting with the Clackamas Junior Red Cross at the Chemawa School, April 14. The Seniors acted as hosts and hostesses for the school. The members of the Council presented a very enjoyable program, which was given after the business meeting. The visitors attended the assembly which was presented by the Primary children.

The F. E. U. held its regular monthly meeting April 15, at Kola Tepee. At that time the new officers were elected: Mr. William Showalter, president; Dr. L. L. Stone, vice-president; Mr. James MacDonald, secretary-treasurer. Delegates to attend the State federation meeting were also elected. Those chosen as delegates were Mr. William Showalter, Dr. L. L. Stone, Mr. James MacDonald, Mrs. James MacDonald, Miss Alberta Challis, and Miss Beatrice Morse.

SCHOOL DAZE, Senior Class Poem

Many moons ago, so we are told,
Seventy Freshies started out quite bold.
Mrs. Weigel saw them, the cherubs dear.
She said, "Come, some motherly advice to hear."

Happily they skipped along their way—
Thirty Sophomores light and gay.
Mrs. Detrick spied them one autumn day,
And told them of the Philippines so far away.

Up the stairs twenty-eight Juniors wearily climbed
Because they didn't want to get left behind.
Miss Morse welcomed them in to shoot the breeze,
There they learned of the camp of the Japanese.

When the Navajos came to join their band,
From the far-away, fair, and sunny land,
With a royal welcome they gave them a home
And now, as Seniors, they set out to roam.

The old book room called number nine
To the Senior tribe looked mighty fine,
With primrose ceiling and walls of blue,
Their room, dear Juniors, they leave to you.

Now seventeen Seniors have finished four long years
And they leave you all with regrets and tears,
We hope that not too far they'll stray
To come back for a "Howdy" some fine summer day.
