JUNIORS AND SENIORS HEAR TALKS

The members of the Junior and Senior classes had the pleasure of having Mr. George LaVatta, tribal relations officer, Mr. Harvey Wright, state supervisor of Indian Education, and Mr. Bob Smith, representative of Oregon Technical school, speak to them on Career Day, April 25. This is part of the counselling program offered at Chemawa.

The sophomore class in home economics planned a picnic as their last class meeting. The picnic was held in the "Fir Grove" with the girls exhibiting real talent in the arts of fire building and open fire cookery. At the end of the picnic the girls again demonstrated their knowledge of forest fire control by carefully putting the camp fire out. The trip was a nice experience and the girls enjoyed working out the cooking problems a picnic involves.

The Student Council, in behalf of the student body, wish to express their sincere appreciation to the Chemawa Youth Fellowship for the gift of $11.90. We are certain the money will be used to purchase something which the students will enjoy. Thank you very much.

ATTEND F. E. U. CONVENTION

Dr. Leslie Stone, Mrs. Annette MacDonald, Mr. James MacDonald, Mrs. Edith Howard and Miss Beatrice Morse were the elected delegates that attended the F. E. U. State Convention held in Portland, Oregon, April 30, in the Blue Room in the Multnomah hotel. James P. Cooley, Regional Director, Eleventh United Service Region, was the main speaker. Medford, Oregon, was chosen as the city to have the 1950 state meeting. At 7:00 p.m. the delegates and guests met with the Washington delegates at a banquet held in the Evergreen Hotel, Vancouver, Wash., in the Gold Room. The speaker for the banquet was Jason Lee, Portland Attorney. After the banquet a dance was held in the Gold room.

The afternoon of April 1 found the Chemawa campus a very busy place. Everyone was on the move. The occasion of all the activity was open house at all the shops. The visits led one to the print shop, auto shop, shoe shop, carpenter shop, paint shop and bakery. The shops were all decked out for the occasion. As the painters had just completed their job of decorating, all were bright and shining. The bakers had a goodly supply of cookies with which to treat the visitors.

DESTINATION PACIFIC COLLEGE

The members of the senior class accompanied by Miss Morse and Mr. Hudson made a trip to Pacific College, Newberg, Oregon, April 8. A guide took us through the administration, science, art and music buildings, also the dining hall, which was very attractive and the gymnasium. The students were very friendly and gave us a warm welcome.

MASS SERVERS

The beginning of 1949 saw a new activity at Chemawa, the "mass servers" directed by Father Vandehy. There were eight boys in the group.

In the coming year Father Vandehy and the boys intend to organize the "Knights of the Altar Society" and every boy will have to know or learn the prayers before he can serve mass.

SENIOR CLASS DINNER

The members of the graduating class and their sponsor enjoyed a class dinner at the students' dining room, May 13. A special table was set and decorated with flowers and tall tapers. A delicious dinner was prepared and served by the kitchen and dining room staffs.
