WINONA HALL

Joyce James and Eulalie Minthorn are the Winona hall reporters.

Miss Challis, with the help of the house councillors, are doing their best in trying to help the new girls get adjusted to the life and new ways of Chemawa.

The councillors of Winona hall have elected five of the house council members to represent Winona hall at the student council meetings that have met twice so far. They are Georgianna Young, Janice Rambeau, Eulalie Minthorn, Mabelle Edwards, and Helen George.

Under the supervision of Miss Challis and with the direction of the house councillors we have organized a court at Winona hall in which at recent meetings we have had to take considerable action.

Winona hall's "Rec" room is now having a paint job done by two of our girls—Joyce James and Jeanette Blake. They are doing a fine job and we are all anxious for it to be completed with the grey and green walls, red woodwork and the new "gay" curtains we will purchase from the candy fund.

Jeanette Blake and her team, "The Buckaroos," have won the Intramural basketball tournament for this quarter—undefeated. The prize that Mr. and Mrs. Patterson have given is an invitation to their home in Salem for a "Hot Dog" feed and then afterwards they will all attend a Willamette football game. Girls on this famous team are Jeanette Blake, captain, Eleanor Charley, Tullulah Tulee, Joan Foster, Sarah Lewis, and Betty Pays.

We congratulate Eulalie Minthorn and her Unit IV for winning the second unit award trip this year. They went to Salem to a movie which everyone enjoyed very much and which was their reward for their efforts. Georgianna Young's Unit II won the award trip in September.

The guest room at Winona hall has been filled practically every weekend. Among the visitors the past week were former students Juanita McDevitt, Violet Lane, Mary Jo Hall White and her mother Mrs. Moors, besides the mothers of Sylvia Williams, Pauline Brown and Thelma Northover.

BREWER HALL

Brewer hall has 132 Navajo boys enrolled this year. The boys seem to be working hard to make Brewer hall a good home. They have elected officers for the school year.

The office and general manager is Joe Harney Lee.

Leaders for the Units are as follows: Unit I, Timothy Benally and John James; Unit II, Louis Silner and Jimmie Dickson; Unit III, Chester Franklin and Tony Nelson; Unit IV, Julius Bennett and Charley Casuse.

McNARY NEWS

McNary Hall is really on the beam and the boys are a happy group. Everything is organized and on schedule. Unit and House meetings are held once a week, as well as Lettermen's meetings.

The Senior Hall managers are Joe Felsman and Don Cooke; Junior Hall managers Robert Davis and Alex Samuels; Canteen Manager and clerk, George Plummer. The managers for the units are as follows: Unit I, Reginald Wells; Unit II, Ervin Goodwin; Unit III, Edward Lopez; Unit IV, Lawrence Head; detail manager, Clifford Matt; gym manager, Horace Ironpipe. The Court judges are Reginald Wells, Auggie Dick and Ray Pete.

All the boys are contributing their part to make McNary hall a happy place to live.

McBRIDE HALL

A news reporter and McBride hall house officers have been elected at our weekly house officers meeting. Roberta McDevitt is the news reporter. Eloise Butler is McBride hall president, Alice Cornelius is vice-president and Maxine Elwell is the secretary. The house officers are Peggy Washington and Alice Cornelius for Groups 1, 2, 3; Roberta McDevitt for Group 4; Maxine Elwell for Group 5; Charlotte Moses for Group 6 and Eloise Butler for Group 7. Miss Challis, the girls' adviser, and Mrs. Reifel have been helping us. We discuss the problems of our groups and how to make McBride a better building.

McBride hall house officers meeting is on every Wednesday night. Last Wednesday we talked about our new curtains for the windows and showers in the wash room and how nice the room will look when it is finished. It is painted yellow, our curtains are green plastic with goldfish on them. Everyone is going to try to keep our curtains and room looking nice because they cost $40.80. We are paying for them every week out of our candy fund. They cost a lot but we think we can manage to pay for them if everyone co-operates. Our candy money is used to get nice things for the girls in McBride hall that we couldn't have otherwise.

Monday night is always a big

Assembly Programs

On October 20 the members of the senior class gave an assembly. It was a one-act play dealing with the trials and tribulations of getting out a newspaper, this one being (no less) "The Chemawa American."

The tenth grade gave their assembly on October 28, 1949. The program opened with the boys singing "That Lucky Old Sun," followed by a clarinet solo by Laura Mae Conway. A variety of well-prepared and well-received numbers rounded out the program.

CAMPUS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacDonald were campus visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James MacDonald. Mr. Archie was a Chemawa Student in 1913 and 1914.

Mr. Robert Brush, assistant professor of education at the University of Oregon, and wife visited Mr. Brush's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brush recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chappell and sons, Joedy and Terry, of Salinas, California, were the house guests of the William B. Showalter family during Thanksgiving week. Mrs. Chappell is the sister of Mrs. Showalter.

The following ex-students have visited Chemawa in recent months: Nick Hatch from Florence, Oregon; Henry Darnell, Prince Rupert, B. C.; Mrs. Violet (Johnson) Ford, Portland, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilder (Eleanor Sanderson), Orleans, Calif.

night in McBride hall now because that is when we have our weekly amateur hour or play night. Everyone gathers in the rumpus room and we have ten numbers on the program with one of the officer girls in charge. The girls dance, sing, say poems or give a little play. The three winning girls win prizes. Miss Challis, Mrs. Reifel, Mrs. Ashcutt, and Mrs. Shoemate are the judges—they judge by the amount of clapping the girls get. I think McBride girls have great talent which we have never known before.

The 14 girls who had the most points for the month of October went with the Winona hall girls on the Unit Award trip last Saturday.

The house officers voted to have a party for the group in McBride which keeps their rooms the best and are the best citizens for one month. We plan to have a group party once a month on Wednesday night in place of our officers meeting. We know everyone will have a good time but it will be more work for the officer girls but fun for them, too.
