

Top—First in line . . . Mrs. Lillian Uentillie (teacher-interpreter) with an armful of lamb . . . Christmas party. Fourth row—Filbert harvest means spending money . . . Just posin' . . . What's cockin'?. Third row—Navajo puppets were a lot of fun for the audience and the puppeteers . . . Woodcarving club . . . Square dancing club. Second row—Hammerin' and sawin' . . . Home run! . . . Rope twirling (practicing for our assembly program). Bottom—Paring apples . . . Leather work in shop . . . Where's Korea? . . . Is it right?