

Ready to Return to School

Home in the spring—back in the fall. These Navajo students with Mr. Ashcut, Mrs. Widby, and Mrs. Johnston are some of the 175 who returned to their reservation homes for the summer. This year finds 245 back at Chemawa. Of this number many are returnees, some are in school for the first time, and others are transfers from another school.

THE CALLING CARD

Chemawa has been host to many welcome guests since the beginning of the school year.

Among them were:

Dillon S. Myer, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C. Commissioner Myer addressed the staff at a meeting during his brief stay here.

Dr. R. M. Tisinger, Area Director of Schools, Portland. Dr. Tisinger entertained members of the staff with pictures of Burma, taken during his tour there as a member of UNESCO.

Miss Aleta Brownlee, Director of Child Welfare, Washington, D. C.

Miss Cleora C. Helbing, Supervisor of Indian Education.

Col. E. Morgan Pryse, Area Director of Indian Affairs, Portland.

Miss Consuella Gosnell, Area Social Worker, Portland.

Mrs. Dickert, Area Social Worker, Billings, Montana.

W. A. Hogard, Assistant Area Director of Schools, Portland.

E. J. Diehl, Superintendent of Klamath Agency.

Paul T. Jackson, former Superintendent of Chemawa Indian School.

Presidential candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower didn't visit the campus, but as his special passed through the campus, he waved to the students from the rear platform.

MAGIC ASSEMBLY

"Mysteries from the four corners of the earth" found their way to the stage of the Chemawa auditorium on Friday, Oct. 17. Houdeen and Company, the wonder workers, brought ventriloquism, T.V. Puppets, animated suspension, juggling, magic, and hypnotism to the Chemawa students.

FUTURE AUTO DRIVERS

Agricultural students from Mr. Starling's ninth and tenth grade classes were in Salem on Wednesday, Oct. 8 to take the written examination on the Oregon State Driver's Manual. Those making passing grades were:

John Thorpe—100
William Wyman—95
Casimer Andrew—95
Franklin Lewis—95
Gilbert Yellow Owl—90
Rodger McKenzie—85

These students received their driving permits. After a period of instruction in driving practice, they hope to pass their driving tests and receive drivers' licenses.

CARNIVAL PLANS MADE

The annual Hallowe'en Carnival will be held Friday, Oct. 31 in the gymnasium. Mr. Duncan has been named chairman of the affair. He, with the committees assigned by him, are at work preparing for the night of fun.

DR. STONE RECUPERATING

Dr. Stone has been confined to his home for several weeks due to illness. We are looking forward to seeing him around the campus soon. He has been greatly missed by both students and employees.

The smallest good deed is better than the grandest good intention.—Duquet.
