"SATURDAY NITERS"

December will bring many top-rated pictures to the students of Chemawa.

December 6—"RED SKIES OF MONTANA" with Richard Widmark—an exciting portrayal of the experiences of smoke-jumpers—who risk their lives parachuting from planes to the remote fire areas.

December 13—"HERE COME THE NELSONS"—a comedy with Ozzie and Harriet Nelson and their two children, Ricky and David.

December 20—"QUO VADIS" had been ordered but is not available. At this writing, the booking is indefinite.

December 21—"SINGIN IN THE RAIN"—a musical with Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds and Donald O'Connor. It is a whole show of first rate dancing and singing presenting other well known Broadway dancers.

Football Finale

The final whistle has blown for these Chemawa "Redskins." With a win over the Salem JV's, who had twice beaten them, Coach Bartlett and his "Eleven" closed a season of football that saw them progress rapidly to play a kind of ball at the end of the season that promises bright prospects for next season. Pictured here are the first stringers who saw much action throughout the season.

Godowa and Williamson and LaClair are the only Seniors, so we should have an experienced team to start with next year.

MECHANICS' ASSEMBLY

On November 13, the boys of the auto shop presented a comedy skit at the regular assembly. The setting was the office of a garage owner. He was deep in debt and was having trouble with his employees and customers. Mr. Speed is the auto shop instructor.

Members of the cast were: Louis Benally, Jim Coburn, Merlin Racine, Leland Thomas, Bob Patterson, Charles Mellot, Forrest Addison, and Dayton Blackwater.

The program also included a film presentation of the Ford Company.
