"SATURDAY NITERS"

January 31—"Tembo"—an RKO Technicolor—an exciting account of an African safari with bow and arrow in the hands of the champion, Howard Hill.

February 7—"Cattle Drive"—Bobby Driscoll left behind when a train pulls out while he is investigating the landscape, finds himself mixed up with a crew directing a cattle drive.

February 14—"Tall Target"—MGM—Pseudo-history but a suspenseful movie—based on a planned assassination of Lincoln on a train from New York to Washington.

February 21—"Captain Horatio Hornblower"—A story of the stirring naval engagements aboard the British Men 'O War in 1807 with Gregory Peck as the captain.

February 28—"Smoky Canyon"—A Western with a humorous angle in Smiley Burnette's freindship for a baby lamb.

The only way to have a friend is to be one.—Emerson.

EXCHANGE

The staff of the Chemawa American acklowdge with pleasure receiving copies of "The Beacon" from the Detroit high school, "The Boarding School Messenger" from the Cutbank Boarding school at Browning, Montana, and "Smoke Signals" from the Intermountain Indian school at Brigham City, Utah. We are happy to count them among our many friends in whom we are interested and who are interested in us.

R. G. HENDERSON

R. G. Henderson, for many years trader, post-master and resident of Chemawa, died January 16, at his home on Market Street in Salem. Mr. Henderson had retired from the service in 1949 and since that time had been living in Salem.

It is with regret that we note his passing.

Character is a victory not a gift.
