Girls Hear About Ratings

Mrs. Lena Cronk, head of the home economics department, called the senior girls and several junior girls to hear Mrs. Rosetta Johnston tell about week-end jobs in Salem and the vicinity. Mrs. Johnston is in charge of placement for girls. She told how girls on jobs are rated and payed. She read some reports on girls who had worked. They told what work had been done, how long the job took, and how well it was done.

Improvement Awards

Six Chemawa students received awards at an assembly on December 24. Papermate ball point pens were given to Geraldine Hamlin, Daisy Yazzie, Esther Watah, Sanford Azure, James Lameman, and Ronald Governor. These students were selected for having made outstanding progress during the first semester of school.

Mrs. Warner Bramlet

Chemawa students and employees extend sincere sympathy to Mr. Bramlet in the loss of his mother. She died at her home in Eldorado, Illinois, on January 16. Because of her critical illness, Mr. Bramlet visited his mother in November.

Chemawa Indian Club Presents Program for Portland Optimists

The Indian Club put on a program at a luncheon meeting of the Portland Optimist Club on December 23. The program consisted of Indian dances and singing, and talks about Chemawa. After the program we had a very nice luncheon. Mr. Martin N. B. Holm, former Chemawa superintendent, gave a short talk, and then we got presents.

The Red Cross home nursing course which will be taken by all junior and senior girls, is considered one of the best offered to potential home makers. The Eleven B2 group now makes up the class being taught by Mrs. Leona Nopp, R.N. One of the large wards on the second floor of the hospital at Chemawa has been converted into a classroom.

Brownie Scouts Have First Party

Miss Mamie Tedlock and Mrs. Lorene Ouelette, sponsors of the group, and Arlene Vaile, activity councillor, put on a party for the Brownies. They invited Mrs. McDermitt, Pearl Barr, and Joan Harwood. The little girls and their guests say it was a very nice party.

YMCA VISITED

On a recent Saturday afternoon, Farrell Gallineau, Allen LaPlant, and Jay Harwood visited the YMCA in Salem. They got guest passes and watched some men playing basketball and handball. The boys spent half an hour swimming in the pool.

The band is being complimented on a nice stunt they put on between halves at the Gervais-Chemawa basketball game. The band marched out on to the gym floor and formed a trombone.

Mr. Paul Bramlet, our superintendent, went with us to Portland. He took us to several interesting places. We stopped at Swan Island, which is a man-made island. The main office of Indian Affairs for this part of the country is located there. At Swan Island we saw many kinds of boats,—freight ships, submarines, and ships similar to a battleship. Our sightseeing also included the zoo, where we saw many interesting birds and animals.

Those who went to Portland were Delores Cloud, Ramona Tutlee, Jane Wauneka, Dorothy Harris, Gladys Hellon, Jane Badoni, Delores Bennett, Philip Anderson, Benson Gibson, George Umtuch, Moses Showaway, Tom Woody, Leo Jackson, Roy Dempsey, and Jefferson Lee.

Letter Conveys Thanks

Girls who wrapped and tagged Christmas packages for both girls' dormitories, have received letters of commendation from Mr. Paul Bramlet, Chemawa superintendent. In the letter, Mr. Bramlet thanked the girls for their help in making a happy Christmas for all of the girls at Chemawa.

Girls who performed this much-appreciated service are Geraldine Hamlin, Lorraine Farmer, Charlotte Runningcrane, Sarah Lewis, Beverly Carlson, Nettie Racine, Mary Nez, Mary Ella Teller, Patsy Ochiho, Gladys Hellon, Arlene Vaile, and Eleanor Rabbie.
