Mr. Hudson Reports to McNary Boys

A McNary Hall house meeting was held January 31. Mr. E. B. Hudson, boys' adviser, who had just returned from his trip, told the boys some of the things he had observed at other Indian schools he had visited.

Mr. Hudson said that the intramural programs at all the schools is similar to ours at Chemawa. Phoenix has two basketball courts for intramural play, at each building.

Of interest to the boys was a different system of roll call which Mr. Hudson learned about. It was explained, and may be voted upon for use in our dormitory at a later meeting.

Mr. Hudson told about the cotage system of living at Stewart. Phoenix and Sherman have dormitory systems much like Chemawa, except that at Chemawa boys have more or less individual rooms.

Welcome Home

Winona Hall girls are all glad to have everyone back who has been away. All returned on Sunday, January 31,—Eleanor Rabbie and Gladys Hellon, who spent the week end at their homes, Delores Cloud, who was away for a week, and Miss Alberta Challis, girls' adviser, who was on a trip visiting other Indian schools.

When Miss Challis came in, all the girls started talking to her at once. The only comment we got was, "I lost my voice in Arizona. Sorry, I can't talk much tonight, but it's surely good to see all of you again!"

Boy's Intramural

There was little interest in intramural basketball on the part of non-varsity players until B squad boys were permitted to play. Now enough boys for six teams turn out on Monday nights. After some trading of places, the teams are quite evenly matched.

Sundays at Winona Hall

There is usually something special going on at Winona Hall on Sunday evenings. On January 17, Sarah Lewis and her unit of girls of the fourth and fifth year Nava-jo program, gave a clever TV performance. Unit six, with Nettie Racine as councilor, gave a program on January 24. The girls thought it was very nice. On January 31, Miss Mamie Tedlock showed three guidance films: Respect for Property, Going Steady, and How Do You Know It's Love? The girls like seeing such films.

Unit Has Costume Party

Unit two had a costume party on January 31 from three to four. Twelve of the girls invited twelve boys from McNary Hall. Games were played, and everyone had fun. At refreshment time, extra special sandwiches were given as prizes to Farrell Gallineau, who came as a bearded miner, and Dorothy Harris, who was dressed as a Chinese woman. There were several other clever costumes. Outstanding were James Switzler in pajamas, as Sleepy, and Delores Bennett in a cowgirl outfit.

McBride House Meetings

McBride Hall has very good programs at their house meetings. Groups give programs of entertainment numbers, and also skits about such things as dressing neatly and keeping clean. Sometimes films are shown from which the girls learn many things.

On January 18, Betty Kennerly was in charge of a program given by a seventh grade group. Norma McKenzie, Priscilla Sakota, and Erma Whiz gave a skit that showed the best way to get ready in the morning. Songs were sung by Geraldine Jones, Madeline Edmo, and Elsie McJoe.

Winona Hall councilors have been invited to McBride Hall several times. Some of them have been guests at award and other parties. The older girls have helped the McBride girls with electing their house officers, and have also discussed with the McBride Hall councilors ways to help the younger girls with their problems.

Band Concert

A band concert was given January 14 at 3:15 p.m. in the auditorium. It was the fifth annual concert of the band since Mr. V. J. Matt became director.

The program consisted of marches, waltzes, overtures, etc., and a favorite of everybody, Tiger Rag. The audience enjoyed the playing of the band, and also the twirling of the majorettes in the last number, March of the Trojans. It got its first glimpse of the majorettes' cute new outfits.

Good Grooming Club Organized at Winona

A new club is starting at Winona Hall. Mrs. Mary Bartolome is sponsoring a good grooming club. She will teach the girls to care for their hair and nails, and help them with fixing their hair.

Anyone not belonging to some other club may join the good grooming club.

Girls Athletic Association Elects Leaders

The newly organized Girls' Athletic Association elected officers at its first meeting held January 27. President of the organization is Willene Dumore; vice-president, Thamer Perry; secretary, Christine Thompson; and treasurer, Lavinia Johnson. Sergeants at arms are Leah James and Florine Hall.

The purpose of the G. A. A. is to promote interest and participation in intramural sports. Time was taken in making up the membership so as to include only girls who understand the goals and are serious about trying to reach them. A system of points for sports participation will be used to earn the privilege of wearing the small C and stripes on school sweaters. The club has thirty-two enthusiastic members and membership pins will soon be seen.
