

VOCATIONAL ACTIVITIES (continued)

TYPING CLASS GROWS

Six senior girls have joined the typing class which goes to Salem for instruction at the Capital Business College. The girls are Nettie Racine, Lorraine Farmer, Geraldine Hamlin, Arlene Vaile, Ramona Tulee, and Charlotte Runningcrane.

JUNIOR GIRLS STUDY CHILD CARE

Junior girls are taking a course called Child Care. It is taught by Miss Alice Seaver. The discussions are very good. In one of the first lessons it was brought out that the home is a place where children are loved. It was thought that Chemawa is in some ways like a home; employees show a degree of love and affection for students.
