With class night activities, we seniors had the feeling that our graduation from Chemawa had begun. When the hatchet, which symbolizes the hopes and aspirations of the seniors, had been handed over to the juniors, we already felt a little separated from Chemawa.

All of us who are graduating realize that Chemawa has done much for us. All of us still need to make improvement in many ways, but if we stay proud of the things Chemawa has taught us, we should succeed.

—Nettie Racine

On a weekend in March, Louise Benally went to see the national ski tournament at Mt. Hood, with the family for whom she has worked on Saturdays for two years. It was an interesting experience for Louise.

LETTERMEN SEE SALEM-SACRAMENTO BASEBALL GAME

Ten members of the Letterman's club went to see a game played between the Salem Senators and the Sacramento Solons at Waters Field on April 26. After the game the boys went to the O.K. truck stop at Kickback for a snack before returning to the campus. Funds for the outing were allowed by the club.

Mr. E. B. Hudson and Mr. N. V. Brusven accompanied the boys.

AG BOYS VISIT MISSION BOTTOM

On Thursday, May 6, the agriculture students took a field trip to Mission Bottom, a settlement known to have some of the most fertile soil in the valley. On the trip the classes saw livestock and poultry, and all types of machinery.

Lunch was eaten at Champoege State Park, north of Woodburn.
