

VOCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

TIME FOR GARDENING IS HERE

Benson Gibson and Jay Harwood, two agriculture boys, have been tilling garden spots for employees. They use a rotary tiller which chops up the soil so it will be easy to plant gardens. The boys are getting a dollar an hour wages.

PRINT SHOP IS BUSY PLACE

This is a busy time at the print shop. Besides getting out the special issues of Chemawa American, the printers are getting ready the certificate awards, diplomas, programs for the baccalaureate and commencement exercises, etc.

GIRLS DO HAND WEAVING

Some of the eleventh grade girls in Miss Alice Seaver's arts and crafts class are making handwoven pouch bags.

SEW AND SAVE

The girls in Miss Phoebe McQuilkin's classes are remodeling their clothes. Those who do not have any of their own to fix over may remodel navy shirts which make very attractive blouses.

CARPENTERS ARE BUSY

The carpentry class with Mr. Charles Holmes, went to Black Rock to plant trees. The forester, Ralph Yeater, showed the boys how to plant. They planted 1500 trees in all. It was easy, and the class learned something about conservation. After they finished, the boys went to see an old sawmill.
