HANSEL AND GRETEL

On April 27th the girls who had sung for graduation and the girls who had sung at the banquet went to Hillcrest Girls' School to see the play Hansel and Gretel.

Some children from the Blind School were at Hillcrest to hear the program. There were some children from Fairview School there, too.

DINNER

The members of the Student Council chose China as the place to have our dinner. In China City you may be served either Chinese food or American food. The dinner was perfect, we had everything from place cards to fine food.

The Executive Committee acted as hosts and hostesses. Our guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walters, Mr. Marshall, Mr. McDonald, Miss Seaver, Mr. Hipple and our sponsor Mrs. Nell Brannon.

Student Council President, Arthur Ahkinga, introduced Mr. Walters, who talked to us.

We had a very nice time and a big surprise when over the public address system we heard, "Happy Birthday," being sung to Lorraine Castiano, whose birthday it was. A birthday cake was served to Lorraine.

We wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Brannon for helping us to arrange for the marvelous dinner and the enjoyable evening that we all had.

GIRLS RECREATION

Grace One, Reporter

A Jack tournament has been completed at McBride Hall. Several teams played. Phyllis Yazzie was declared winner and champion. Second place went to Elsie Begay and third to Maggie Armboy. Betty Yazzie was the consolation winner.

Bethel Chapter 50 of the Salem Job's Daughters has conducted a club for McBride girls the fourth Saturday of each month. Mrs. Edward Johnson is sponsor. The April meeting was the highlight of the year when the girls were driven to Bush Park to attend a cook-out Games and the cook-out were enjoyed by forty girls.

Winona Hall girls honored their graduates at a coffee on Sunday night following graduation. The living room of Winona was decorated with spring flowers. Coffee and tea were served in the dining room by members of the House Council. Later there was dancing in the court. Mr. and Mrs. Frederickson were guests.

BOYS WIN TROPHY

The ninth grade boys were awarded a trophy at the guidance awards program Sunday night. They received the award because they had compiled the most points from participating in the intramural tournaments this year. We had been the "underdogs" but started gaining in recent weeks from volley ball and pool competition. Andrew Frankson accepted the trophy for the class.
