

Pages in Oregon Legislature

Jane Lee, Lee LaPahie, Bert Foxglove, and myself were given the opportunity to act as honorary pages at the state legislature. I was in the House of Representatives. Mr. Clarence Barton was the Speaker and he introduced me as a person from above the Arctic Circle. I felt like a real foreigner but I was also very proud. I sat beside a regular page so I watched her and followed whatever she did. I learned that there are certain rules one must follow to be a page. Running errands for the Representatives was a very worthwhile experience and I enjoyed it.

AG. ATTENDS SHEEP SHEARING SCHOOL

Eleven Chemawa students have completed a short course in sheep shearing. This course was sponsored by the Oregon State University in cooperation with the Sunbeam Corporation. It was held on an experimental farm near the Oregon University campus.

This annual training session has been established to teach farm boys the fundamental skills needed for shearing of sheep. We boys were taught the correct position of the feet and the proper method of handling the animal so as to put the least strain on the person doing the shearing.

George Kudrin, Theophilus Mumchuck, Lawrence Chuitt, Robert Constantine, Matthew Andrews, Lewis Secody, Roy Tom, Larry Tsingininie, Johnson G. Begay, Wilfred Lynch and I took the course.

SOUTH PACIFIC

On April 24th a group of thirty girls and thirty boys were invited to attend a dress rehearsal of the play, "South Pacific." Groups from State schools were invited also. It was held in the Armory Auditorium in Salem, Oregon. The people were acting on the stage and the orchestra was in front of the stage. The stage and lighting were beautiful.

As part of the Department of Interior Incentive Awards Program, Superintendent Hallie O. Walters presented the following awards: A posthumous award for Mr. Rudolph N. Kitto, to Mrs. Kitto. The Award consisted of an Honor Award for Commendable Service in recognition of his loyalty and devotion to duty and the contribution he made to the Education Program of the Bureau of Indian affairs, a medal, and lapel pin. Mrs. Kitto also received a Department of Interior Lifetime Pass to the National Park areas.

A Special Act or Service Award to Cecil Bremner, which consisted of a check for $150.00 and a Certificate of Superior Performance for moderate benefits and limited application.

To Mr. Dewitt T. Tiger, upon retirement, an Honor Award and to Mrs. Florence O. Wylie, a Meritorious Service award. Both received lapel pins, and lifetime passes to the National Park areas.

OSWEGO RETURNS THE VISIT

This morning Oswego students came to visit at Chemawa. When we came back from Home Economics we went to the bus to get our guests. It was very interesting to see them again.

We visited Home Economics, then we went to the dining hall and ate lunch with our guests. We came back to our classroom at 1:00 p.m. and then went on a tour of the campus. It is very pleasant to have visitors from other places.

BOYS EARN GATHERING BRUSH

Last month three other boys and I went to work for Mr. Hashbachler. We gathered brush and piled it one pile after another. It was fun gathering brush, but at about one in the afternoon we got tired. But we kept on working. At around 4:30 we went home all tired and kind of dirty.

Mr. Hashbachler asked us to work for him the next Saturday. That Saturday we worked two hours and a half because of bad weather.

In these two weeks we boys each earned seven dollars and eighty cents.

Treasurer of Student Council

SPECIAL ELECTION

The Student Council held a special election on April 26 to determine whether or not to change the constitution to permit election of officers to be held in September instead of February of each year. The vote was in favor of keeping the vote in February.

Recent visitors at the Student Council meetings have been our Superintendent Mr. Hallie O. Walters, Mr. Leo Frederickson, Head of Guidance, Mr. Emanuel Hudson, Guidance, Miss Velma Ackels, Secretary to Mrs. Brannon, Mrs. Shirled Hendron, Clerk in Academic, Miss Winifred Koske, Academic Supervisor, Mr. L. D. Tadlock, Social Worker, all from Chemawa Indian School and special guest Mr. Donald De Kay, Social Worker, of Juneau Area Office, Juneau, Alaska.

The Student Council has announced that the 1963 Yearbook will sell for $1.50. The Council recommends that next year the students and employees pay a membership fee to belong to the Associated Students of Chemawa. This would admit all members to attend the regularly scheduled activities without further charge. They will work out a plan and submit it to the students before the school closes this year.

FORMER STUDENT

Mrs. Gertrude Bates reports that she met Dick Moonin, former graduate of Chemawa, from Soldovia Alaska, at the Indian Fellowship Church in Tacoma.

He had just finished his training at Fort Ord and was spending part of his two weeks leave in Tacoma. He expects to get an overseas assignment when he returns to Fort Ord. His address is: Co. A 5th B.G 1st Bde. 3rd Platoon, Fort Ord, California.

MISS INDIAN AMERICA VISITS CHEMAWA

Ramona Soto, Klamath Falls, Oregon who was recently voted Miss Indian America visited the Chemawa campus. She gave the Lord's Prayer in sign language at a special assembly. She had lunch with the Chemawa students.
