EXPLORER SCOUTS OVERNIGHT CAMP

Explorer Scout Troop 123 spent a weekend camping in the Willamette National Forest. Fishing, swimming and hiking made up the recreational program.

Cooking our meals was a lot of fun. We cooked lots of pancakes, ham, hunter's stew, cocoa, and other goodies. The brisk air and exercise made us very hungry. Even a burnt pancake tasted good.

Though we had a truck for transportation, each scout had to carry his own bedding, some food and utensils, extra clothing and a sleeping bag. We had made some pack frames to carry these things. They became a little heavy after we hiked a few miles. Mr. Smith, Mr. Holmes, and Mr. Burright helped some of us who were becoming tired.

The students and faculty were very proud of the fine art exhibits which were displayed by the students of Chemawa at the recent State Fair held in Salem.

Winners were: Art, mixed media — Eugene Bahe, 1st place, Navajo scene; Henry Barber, 2nd place, still life; Emma Beaver, 3rd place, still life. Arts and Hobbies — Davis Towksjhea, 1st place, tile table; Ronald Smoke, 1st and 2nd places, small and large tile table; Raymond Yazzie, 1st place, 2 inlaid tile table pieces.

CHEMAWA STUDENTS ARE GOOD AMBASSADORS

Sharon Velarde and James Jackson accompanied by Mr. Hipple visited the Brush College Elementary School, Salem, Oregon, on September 23.

Both students spoke briefly to the 60 fourth grade students of the school.

After telling about their home life they were bombarded with questions by the enthusiastic little fourth graders.

Both Sharon and James were amazed at some of the strange concepts and ideas that these students had about Indian people.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS SPONSOR CLUB

Bethel 50 of Job's Daughters will start its third year as sponsor of a club consisting of girls from McBride Hall. Rosemary Mead of Salem is the adviser. Mrs. Mead will be at Chemawa with 10 Job's Daughters members the 4th Saturday of each month. The program this year will be extended to include the training of a marching group which will march between the halves of the basketball games. Part of the group will have different projects such as gift making, social conduct, candy making, etc.
