

Church Bus Attends Games

Chemawa students are getting more opportunities to attend the away from home games this year.

Rev. Gerald T. McCrav is driving the church bus, (affectionately called The Green Monster), to all away games. He takes 32 students on a first to sign up basis.

Since our boys now play in the Capital Conference A2 league it is nice to have a bigger representation in the rooting section.

If you don't have any pressing business to take care of this Friday night, why not go to the game and give our players a moral boost.

CROSS-COUNTRY UP AND RUNNING

If a strong start is any indication of what our cross-country team is going to do, this should be the year that makes history. You might say that the cross-country boys are really off and running this year.

They have managed to come out best in the first four meets, and Coach Kugie Louis isn't taking any of the pressure off. In order to keep the varsity hustling, he allows a JV to challenge and if he is able to run the meet in better time than the varsity runner he gets to run on the varsity squad at the next meet.

HOMESICKNESS-A MATTER OF MIND

Everyone is entitled to get homesick at least once in his lifetime. Sometimes it's like the wind coming and going with the passing of time. Students at Chemawa are not the only ones that experience this. Our brave servicemen in Vietnam are victims of this malady. Yet they remain at their posts.

Activity is the best medicine. Keep yourself busy, get into the swing of things, join a club and help to make Chemawa your home away from home.

STUDENTS USE BANK

Students may not have much money, but they like to have someone else take care of it for them. The school bank has 351 individual depositors, who have entrusted their money to the student operated system.

According to Mrs. Hendren, Banking Instructor, approximately 150 students check out money each day.

Student bankers for September are: June Balluta, Daisy Clani, Lillie Crank, Stephen Horn, Fred Huntington, Ephim Moonin, and Emily Tsosie.

A Mini-Editorial

Everyone seems to be getting into the swing of things as the year gets off to a fast start. For the seniors it is just 36 more weeks of the comfort and security of good old Chemawa, their home away from home. For the rest of us, it is just another start on one more year. However, I think all students look forward to the day when they will be the mighty and powerful Seniors. If the present Senior Class stays with their school work and makes it to graduation they will be the largest class ever to graduate from Chemawa. As underclassmen we have just one thing to say to the mighty ones, "Don't get Senioritis." We like you and your pleasant company, but we don't want the pleasure of having you around for another whole year.

WHAT I DID THIS WEEKEND

This weekend I did nothing but sleep mostly. Saturday morning I went to the dining hall to eat my breakfast, and after breakfast I went back to the dorm and slept until 11:00 AM.

Sunday was the same as Saturday. Monday morning at 5:30 AM we had a kinen change so I got up at 5:30 AM and changed my linen and went back to sleep. I got up at 7:48 "I missed my breakfast. Monday morning was my lazist morning, I hated to get started for school, but I just had to.

NEW BOOKS ON SHELVES

If you haven't visited the library yet, you are in for a real surprise. During the summer, several hundred new books were placed on the shelves. There is something in store to delight the fancy of every reader.

Circulation has been very good and in spite of the nice weather, most students have found time to do some reading.

The week of September 23, through 27, our librarian, Mrs. Simonton, will be going to Washington, D. C. to attend a library workshop, which is sponsored by The Department of Interior.

While Mrs. Simonton is away the library will be operated by the students who are taking library science as a subject.
