

SUNSET CHOIR TO PERFORM

On February 21st, the Music Department will host the Sunset High School Accappella Choir from the Beaverton, Oregon area, who will give an hour's program of the finest in Choral music. The Sunset Choir is under the direction of Gary Gadwood, a college classmate of Chemawa's Choral Director, Eldon Wolfe.

McNARYSADIE HAWKINS DANCE

Little Abner may be the bashful wholesome American Lad in the comic strips, but there are several of his counterparts around campus. McNary Hall has solicited the cooperation of the girls' dorms in an attempt to remedy this situation.

A Sadie Hawkins Dance is being held in the school gym on February 20.

Girls are going to invite the boys to the dance. In fact, they are even going to pay the quarter necessary to gain admittance.

Some of you shy good looking fellows may find out that you actually enjoy a bit of feminine companionship. Good hunting, girls!

STUDENTS TO VISITLOS ANGELES

Three students are going to get a chance to visit the Employment Assistance Field Office in Los Angeles.

The trip is being planned in order that students will have a chance to acquaint themselves with living in the Los Angeles area.

While there, the students will get acquainted with the Field Office Staff, visit technical schools and colleges in the area, and learn about the industries of the area which might offer employment for them after completion of their training.

Dr. Mahony, Field Office, has promised an exciting three days for the lucky students.

Chemawa has helped me to plan my future and given me a good understanding of what school is all about.

Yum, yum, good

Brenda Sam, a half-day vocational cooking student, demonstrates one of the many phases in the preparation of our meals. Mr. Douglas and his staff train students for vocational cooking. This is a part of Chemawa's complete educational program.
