

CAMPUS ELECTIONS HELD

Executive Officers of the Associated Students of Chemawa are pictured, from left to right: Wilbur Begay, Treasurer; Patty Crane, Secretary; Leslie Kaleak, President; and Phillip Titus, Vice-President.

CLASS ELECTIONS

Campus politicians have been booked for the 1969-1970 school year. The main student political group, The Associated Students of Chemawa, elected Council officers last spring. Recently, the class and dorm elections were held to provide further leadership and student representation.

The Class of 1970 elected as their officers: President - Clifford Jim; Vice-President - Charles Brower; Secretary - Frances Melovidov; Treasurer - Sam Agiak; Student Council Representative - Roy Nageak.

The Class of 1971 elected their leaders: President - Frances Wilson; Vice-President - Miles Cleveland; Secretary - Shirley Vanderpool; Treasurer - Rose Fitka; Student Council Representative - Amelia Karmun.

The Sophomore Class elected as their President Roger Smith. The other officers are: Vice-President - George Wilson; Secretary - June Pablo; Treasurer - Glenn Douglas;

Student Council Representative - Mathew Fred.

The Class of 1973 elected as their officers: President - Anna Willis; Vice-President - Mary Wilson; Secretary - Nelson Martin; Treasurer - Carl Hoffman; Student Council Representative - Andy Kasheriarof.

DORM ELECTIONS

Officers were elected in both the boys and girls dorms when most of the students had arrived on campus.

Percy Frisby of Hyaburg, Alaska will be President of McNary Hall. Working with him will be Nikander Shane, Vice-President; Herman Anderson, Secretary; Charles Brower, Treasurer; Darryl Edenshaw, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Terenty Buterin, Student Council Representative.

Elected President from Mitchell Hall was Rowland Mason, from Clearwater, Washington. Other officers are Vice-President, Andrew Seybert; Secretary, Roger Smith; Treasurer, Evan Chunak; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Tommy Smith.

Brewer Hall has elected the following students to guide them throughout the year: President, William Hall from Juneau, Alaska; Vice-President, William Albert; Secretary, Vincent Jameson; Treasurer, Alva Peratrovich; and Student Council Representative, George Wilson.

The girls of both dormitories elected their house councils for the 1969-1970 school year. From Winona Hall are Alice Paniego, President; Susie Akootchook, Vice-President; Susie Nungasak, Treasurer; Clara Sam, Secretary; and Irene Billie, Student Council Representative.

McBride residents elected the following girls to be their council: Frances Snell, President, June Pallo, Vice-President; Olga Fitka, Secretary; and Connie Merculief, Treasurer.

Best of luck to these new officers in the coming school year.