Mystery Chosen For School Play

"Home Sweet Homicide" has been chosen as the first school play of the year. Miss Graham, who will direct the play, said that a definite production time has not yet been set, but that hopefully it will be presented on December 16-17.

The girls in the cast are Rena Martin, Beverly Hill, Elena Andrews, Alma Shoeship, Anna Grover, Vivian Tomaskin and Daisy Lamont. Matthew Nicholi, Mike Williams, Don Morrison, Ernie Bernhardt, Morris Douglas, Willie Lake, Bobby Tomaskin and Eugene Purser handle the men's parts.

The play is a mystery-comedy about a family of detective-story writers and a murder that occurs next door.

Miss Graham added that she was very pleased by the large number of people who tried out, because it has been difficult to get enough students together to form a cast in past years. She said that she hopes to have another play in the spring to give the others who tried out a chance to be in a play.

Art Show & Sale Set For December

The art department will hold an art show and sale on Sunday, December 12 in the gym. The sale and show will be open to the general public and will be held from one to five in the afternoon.

The show will be school wide and will feature work by the art classes, industrial arts, recreation club, dorm projects and staff work. Exhibits will consist of woodcarvings, pottery, paintings, drawings of all sorts and Indian beadwork.

The art department would like to invite everyone to come and be a part of the show.

All - School Carnival Held

Chemawa held its 5th annual all-school carnival on October 31 in Chemawa's own gymnasium. Everywhere you turned you ran across colorful booths, put on by many clubs and organizations at Chemawa.

Every year the recreation club sponsors the carnival. This gives the clubs and organizations a chance to make money. The money they make goes for things they want or need.

This year the carnival was held on Halloween. It made that much more fun for all the students, staff and other people who came around to try their luck at the booths.

The McBride Hall cake walk was very popular with students and staff. But quite a few students and staff had stomach aches afterwards. Aside from that everyone had fun and enjoyed themselves.

Need Publicity ? Let Us Know

Is your group or organization doing something newsworthy? Would you like to see it appear in the Chemawa American? We will be glad to run stories about any group, club or class on campus, but we can't be everywhere at once. You can help us out by letting a reporter know he can pick up a story by going to your meeting or holding an interview. We appreciate help like this, and we show appreciation in our stories.
