Search and Rescue Attends Conference

The Cascade Area Council held a Search and Rescue officers conference to plan activities for 1972 at Lincoln City on November 20-21.

Chemawa Post 123 Search and Rescue officers participated in the conference. President Herbert McIntyre, Vice-president Kenneth Madros, Secretary Herman Evan, Treasurer Robert Johnson, Quartermasters John Nicholai and Nicholai Clark, Public Relations Officer Harold Yatlin and acting advisor Mr. Morrow attended.

The scouts discussed things that could better their posts and also talked over some of their problems. The problem most discussed was participation by both recruits and senior members.

The post also talked over possible activities. Suggestions included a conference-wide dance, a road rally, a snow jamboree, a boat rally, sailing and a hike. Post 123 was given responsibility for organizing the snow jamboree. Herbert McIntyre is in charge of planning the details.

Air Explorer Scouts Rechartered for 1971-72

The Air Explorer Scouts, Squadron 112 of Chemawa, are chartered by the Cascade Council, Mt. Jefferson District, in Salem. The post is sponsored by the Continental Air Command-USAF.

Rechartering ceremonies were held on Oct. 31 of this year. Rechartering takes place each year.

There are eighteen students who are currently registered members of this unit. The job of the unit is to patrol various campus activities, such as football games, assemblies and patrol various campus activities, such as football games, assemblies and basketball games. Members give assistance to spectators at games if needed.

The Scouts also take educational trips during the academic year. In the past they have gone to the Coast Guard Air Station at Astoria the OMSI Planetarium and Round Butte Dam. They also go on recreational trips.

The purpose of the Air Explorer Scout program is to instruct students in modern aerospace media. The officers of Post 112 are Harvey Joe, President; Bart Heckman, Vice-President; Steve Kaleak, Sec.-Treasurer. Mr. Weeden is the advisor.
