

Editorial Section

Alateen to Help Students

Several Chemawa students have joined a new club called Alateen. Alateen is composed of groups of young people who help themselves and each other to learn about alcoholism.

Students who are frustrated and confused by conditions in their homes because a member of their family is a compulsive drinker, need help. They can get it from an Alateen group.

All the members are teenagers. They meet to learn how to cope with the troubles brought about by alcoholism. When students belong to an Alateen group, they discuss their problems at meetings. They get booklets which will clear up much of their confusion. They learn to make a new life for themselves, set their own goals, and help others in their group do the same.

What teenagers (and adults) learn from Alateen is that the alcoholic is sick. He is in the grip of a terrible disease he cannot control by himself—any more than he could cure himself of tuberculosis or diabetes.

Students who are interested, please contact Mr. Williams, Mrs. Belgard, Mr. LaBuff or Bill Sigo at the CAEC.

Bad Ol' Seniors Blues Strike Again

SENIOR BLUES is a final exam you study hard for, and then you're gone the day it's given.

SENIOR BLUES is forgetting to send out your graduation announcements.

SENIOR BLUES is not being able to return to give your teachers a bad time.

SENIOR BLUES is leaving some of your best friends—the underclassmen.

SENIOR BLUES is knowing you have only a few weeks left before graduation.

SENIOR BLUES is (to you young, ambitious men) looking at the draft lottery.

SENIOR BLUES is already losing your class ring.

Choir Plans Exchange With Cascade High

The Choral Ensemble members plan to give an exchange concert with Cascade High School, probably during April. The Chemawa Choir will go to Cascade and their choir will come here for the exchange performance.

Mr. Garlinghouse said that the choirs will also participate in a workshop for elementary school teachers on American Indian music on April 8.

The choirs are also starting to prepare for the Spring Concert. No date has been set yet, but it will probably be held in April.

Mari's Gallery

Gale Louie Wins First

Gale Louie, a Senior from Omak, Washington, took a first prize of $25 in the McNary Hall Art Contest on February 25. Gale's winning entry was a pencil drawing of Chief Joseph.

Second place in the contest went to Cyril George. Richard Johnson took third place and tied with Phil Taylor for fourth. Richard also picked up the fifth place prize.

The art show consisted of drawings, paintings and carvings, mostly of native Indian art, created by the students of McNary Hall. The art works were judged by visitors and staff.

THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN
Member of Oregon Scholastic Press

Published by the joint efforts of the Business Education Department and the Journalism class.

Editor: Ronni Wesley
Feature Editors: Georgianne Charles
Mildred Ward

Sports Editor: Harold Yatlin
Artwork: Mari Sioux McDonald
Reporters: Nancy Barnes

Echo Big Spring, Daisy Bodfish,
Bobby Dock, Jeff Frank, Paul Koton-tongan, Mildred Quaempts, Ron Smartlowit, Daryl Sullivan.

Typesetting: Loretta Sameuls
Printing: Graphic Arts classes
Staff Advisors: Mr. John Dashney
Mrs. Judy Sturgeon

Acting Principal: Victor LaCourse
Superintendent: Albert Y. Ouchi

SENIOR BLUES is wishing you were still a Junior to have the contagious Senior Blues again.

SENIOR BLUES isn't that bad, but watch out, you future Seniors—you'll get the Senior Blues too—so hang tough

Rotarians Chosen

The main purpose of Chemawa's Junior Rotarians is to improve relations with the surrounding community by informing them of the general activities in Chemawa.

The Junior Rotarians to date are as follows; October - Mike Williams; November - Alex Nicori; December - Lynn Jackson; January - Roland Andrew; February - Terry Marchand; March - Eugene Purser.

The Junior Rotarians are students who are recommended by the sponsor, Mr. Charles Holmes, and then are selected by a committee of three faculty members and approved by the principal.

Selection is based on many qualifications. The candidate must be a Senior boy carrying a regular school load, or more, successfully. The general citizenship, scholarship, contribution to school, self-image, personality and abilities or achievements are considered in the selection.

Each Junior Rotarian serves for a month, attending the Keizer Rotarians' luncheon meetings every Thursday.