

Ward Picked As Dorm Manager

Miss Sharon Ward has transferred to Winona Hall as dorm manager. Previously she was working in Social Services. She will continue as dorm manager until May 26.

Miss Ward, having had experience as dorm manager back in 1968-71, was appointed. Miss Colon, former dorm manager of Winona Hall, is now working at the Guidance Department, dealing with Northwest students' travel arrangements. This gives Miss Colon a chance to get acquainted with the Guidance Department.

"I was impressed by the staff of Winona Hall," Miss Ward said. Also she stated that she was sorry that she doesn't know as many Winona Hall girls as she would like to have known. She ended her statement by adding that they were a great bunch of girls.

Rotarians Honored

Eight Chemawa Junior Rotarians were honored at a special recognition dinner by the Keizer Rotary on May 18 at the McNary Golf Course.

The eight, who were chosen during the year as Rotarians of the Month, were Mike Williams (October), Alex Nicori (November), Lynn Jackson (December), Roland Andrew (January), Terry Marchand (February), Eugene Purser (March), Matthew Fred (April), and Bart Heckman (May).

Mr. Charles Holmes serves as sponsor for the Rotary group.

Executive Officers Installed

The installation of next year's Executive Student Council was held at McNary Golf Course May 11. Next year's Executive Student Council are Georgianne Charles (President), Richard Johnson (Vice-President), Grace Nichols (Secretary), and Jacob Merculief (Treasurer). They were sworn in by Superintendent Al Ouchi.

After the installation the Louis Gervais awards were presented to five students. They were: Lawrence Leschenkof (Brewer Hall), James Kameroff (Mitchell Hall), Ingram Clark (McNary Hall), Ethel Big Spring (McBride Hall) and Polly Sheldon (Winona Hall). The Louis Gervais Award is for the person who worked the hardest in the dormitories.

Awards were also given to the Student Council members who attended the meetings regularly. They were: Fred Sweowat, Daryl Sullivan, Gale Louie, Grace Nichols, Sherri Boyd,

Rose Chosen Princess

Rose Tom, a Chemawa Senior, will represent the Warm Springs Confederate Tribe as princess in the Tygh Valley all-Indian Rodeo, held May 20-21 in Tygh Valley, Oregon.

Miss Tom was the Tygh Valley Rodeo Queen in 1969. She also won the 1969 Indian Beauty contest in Redmond and in 1970 was hostess at the Klamath Falls all-Indian Rodeo.

Echo Big Spring, and Martha Moses.

Phil Taylor was given an award for being the hardest worker for the Executive Student Council. They were all awarded pins.

Two Reporters Win Eric Allen Award

Veronica Wesley, a senior from Klickitat, Washington, and Echo Big Spring, a senior from Kellogg, Idaho, are the first Chemawa students to receive the Eric W. Allen Newspaper Awards from Oregon Scholastic Press.

Both girls wrote for the Chemawa American during the 1971-72 school year, and have also written articles for the Salem Capital Journal on activities at Chemawa.

The award is named for the founder of the University of Oregon School of Journalism and is presented to outstanding staff members of papers belonging to Oregon Scholastic Press.

After graduation from Chemawa, Echo plans to attend Eastern Washington State College, and Ronni is uncertain where she will go, but is leaning to Oregon College of Education or OSU.

Lynn Louis and Freida Constantine received George Turnbull Yearbook Certificates from OSP for their outstanding work in helping to produce the Chemawa Chief.

Band and Choir Perform Together

Chemawa's concert band, along with the choir, performed at Ka-Nee-Tah, Oregon, May 13th. For the first time the choir sang while the band played.

The band played a variety of pop songs, such as "25-6 to 4", "Everything Is Beautiful", and "We've Only Just Begun."

Mr. Surmon, the band director, commented, "The band has improved a great deal since last year. One of the reasons for the improvement was that there are 16 seniors out of 20 band members. The seniors have had more experience playing than the underclassmen."

Mr. Surmon would like to see more students take advantage of our music program - especially since we will be losing sixteen senior band members.

It was a beautiful day for a spring picnic, and everyone had a good time. For a closer look at what went on, see the center section.
