2 Abrahamsons Named as Stars

Gary and Jimbo Abrahamson were both picked for the Capital Conference All-Star Football Team.

Gary was chosen on offense as a fullback and also made the defensive team as an end. This year he played offensive and defensive tackle, defensive end, linebacker, fullback and (in practice) quarterback.

He said that his favorite position was defensive end because, "I like sacking quarterbacks."

Jimbo made the all-star unit on defense as a tackle and made honorable mention on offense, also as a tackle. His favorite position was tackle, although he also played halfback and fullback. "Tackle is where the action is," he said.

Both Gary and Jimbo have been playing football for six seasons, here and at St. Xavier Grade School in Spokane. Football is Gary's favorite sport. Jimbo says it is a toss-up between football and wrestling. Both plan to go to college and continue playing.

Bill Sigo and Keith Kerwin also made honorable mention. Bill was chosen on defense as a linebacker, and Keith was named as an offensive halfback.
