

Remembering Mrs. Vitato

Many students were saddened by the death of Pauline Vitato in December. Ms. Vitato had been ill for some time.

Ms. Vitato was a long-time staff member at the Clinic. A registered nurse, she usually worked the four to midnight shift.

Former students as well as those now on campus will remember her for her interest in Indian cultures. To many, she was someone "you could go to with your problems."

Northwest Affiliated Tribes Meet

A meeting of the Northwest Affiliated Tribes is meeting here in Salem on February 4, 5, and 6. Those at the meeting will be learning about Chemawa, and some may get a chance to visit the campus.

This group can influence Chemawa's future, so let's put our best foot forward and show them how important Chemawa is.

Chemawa's Birthday Plans Being Made

The date for Chemawa's Birthday was suggested for March 5th and 6th.

There will be an assembly on Friday with a guest speaker from 2:30 to 3:30. Then from 4:30 to 5:30 Friday, there will be a candle light supper. Later on in the evening there will be a student dance in the gym. The dance time has been tabled until the next meeting of the Birthday Committee.

Saturday all dorms will have open house. Also there will be an arts and crafts show in the old math lab. Any staff who wishes to display or sell items may do so. The Renegades will hold a tournament. There will be Indian dancing in the gym. It was suggested to have on Birthday cake in the Dining hall during the Buffet dinner Saturday and one in the gym during the dance.

By Karen Cooper

To Mrs. Vitato:

Though, my friend, we are apart
We'll always hold you next to our heart.
We'll always remember the nice things

you said
When with love and tenderness you tucked us in bed
When we were sick you made us well
When we faked it we asked you not to tell
Now you are gone and we are shedding a tear
Tell God hi and to watch us here.
