

Chemawa Volleyball Team To Host Amity Thursday

Arkie Adolph

Student Registration Today

Student registration for fall quarter at Chemawa is set for today (September 13) in the Library.

Students will report to the Library for registration at the times listed below:

- Seniors-8:30 to 9:30 AM
- Juniors-10:00 to 11:00 AM
- Sophomores-1:00 to 2:00 PM
- Freshmen-2:30 to 3:00 PM
- New Students-2:30 to 3:00 PM

During registration students will see a counselor and make out a class schedule. Pick up a packet with 12 computer cards. Give each teacher on the schedule two cards. Give the gold card to the dorm person. Students should keep the blue schedule form to use when they enter classes on Tuesday, September 14.

Chemawa will start the volleyball season at home with Amity at 5 PM on Thursday, September 16. Amity has been one of the better teams in the Tri-Rivers League for the past several years.

Those returning with experience for Chemawa are Arkie Adolph, Wanda Bullchild, Debbie Jane, Denise Jane and Hazel Noyes. Others that have turned out are: Sandra Kahama, Sandra Morris, Hazel Noyes and Bonnie Pimms.

Coach Klein requests that any other girls that are interested in playing volleyball contact him. Klein says that he needs more girls for both the varsity and JV teams.

X Country Team Meet Regis, Scio

Chemawa will open the cross country season by hosting a three-way meet with Regis and Scio on Thursday, September 16, at 4:30 PM.

Coach John expects the team to be paced by Marvin Devereaux. Devereaux did not attend Chemawa last year but finished seventh at the Capital Conference District Meet in 1975. Devereaux was also on the conference all-star team.

Others returning from last year are Tom Morris and Randy Lewis. Out for the first time are Albert Circle and Melvin Avilles. Any other students interested in cross country are invited to talk to coach John.
