

School Leaders Challenge Seniors to Grow

On behalf of the faculty, staff and the entire Chemawa community I would like to first congratulate the parents and families of our graduating seniors. We are honored that you have entrusted your sons and daughters to us during these four years of formal high school education and hope that you will find we have prepared them for a future full of potential and hope.

To each of our young people who will now move on to wider horizons we pray that you will find happiness and success all along life's journey. We hope that you will always choose to do what is right not only for your own fulfillment, but that you will remember the values of the circle and how all our actions affect the whole. Your families have raised you to live life fully, to love and respect the gifts that we have mutually tried to make you aware that you possess. While here at Chemawa we have tried to make you responsible for your actions and the consequences of both your successes and short comings. We have tried to act as your parents in helping you travel the good road with honor.

now to begin to set goals. We have encouraged you to always aim high. We have helped you learn to believe in yourself when times seemed hard. Now you must walk into the future with courage and eagerness.

We bless you on your journey forward. We hope that you will always be proud of your accomplishments here, and that you will remember that Chemawa is always your home.

--Gerald J. Gray
Superintendent

As principal of Chemawa Indian High School, I would like to say a very special Congratulations to the seniors! It has been an exciting year. The seniors are truly survivors. Even though we added two new competencies this year, they passed them without too much trouble.

It is our hope that Chemawa has prepared you to meet the challenges of tomorrow. Our best wishes go with you throughout life.

This year we have seniors who have spent most of their high schools years here at CIS, more than in recent years.

Many of our graduates have post-high schools plans for the summer programs and higher education in the fall.

--Ed John
Principal

Eschief And Minthorn Crowned Prom Royalty

Prom Court King and Queen, for 1985-1986. Christy Eschief and Dion Minthorn.

Gerald J. Gray

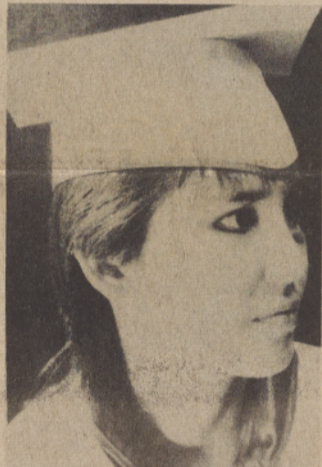

Ed John

Remember too, young people, that Great Spirit wants you to do what is right and that you have been given the power to make those choices. We as Indian people have a strong past to look to when we are in doubt, and with each of us working to fulfill the talents that we have been blessed with we will continue to have a strong future. You are that future. We have the talents and skills

Saluting the Senior Class of 1986:

Gordon Allen

Carol Anderson

Alphonso Baker

Frank Baker

Ivan Barney

Wayne Birdtail

Tracey Craig

Thelma Dickson

Cheryl Eagleman

Christy Eschief

Wendy Farmer

Paul Freeman

Sandra Jim

Seniors Rule 1986 Jr/Sr Prom Court

SENIOR PROM COURT MEMBERS for 1986 were. (L to R): Timmy Fryberg, Roberta Kipp, Gordon Allen, Dion Minthorn, Wade Hidalgo, Cheryl Eagleman, Rodney Marquez, Pam Martin and Loren Yellowbird. Front: Christy Eschief, Fred Lane and Tracy Craig.

Juniors and Seniors danced the night away at "Streets" on May 8th to the theme "This Could be the Night".

CHEMAWA AMERICAN is published monthly by the journalism/publications class of CHEMAWA INDIAN HIGH SCHOOL, 3700 Chemawa Rd. N.E., Salem, OR 97305-1199. Phone: (503) 393-4511, ext. 335.

Advisor: Ms. Debbie LaCroi
Editor: Joen White
Copy Ed: Vicki Mintken
Layout: Joella Oatman
Photographers: Loren Bird Rattler, Gina Big Beaver, and Ms. LaCroi.
Reporters: Carla Croix, rell, Loren Bird Rattler, Gina Big Beaver, Vicki Mintken,, Jackkie Big Hair. Typists: Andrea George and Joen White.