

THE WEEK'S NEWS SUMMARY

December 16.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Trolley car containing 20 passengers gets beyond control and runs four miles down grade. Nervy conductor controls passengers; all escape unhurt and car comes to a standstill.

CHICAGO.—Judge Landis exonerates loan sharks who victimized two young bank clerks with their usurious clutch. To get money to meet brokers' demands, the clerks falsify bank records to cover $500 shortage. Court administers light penalty, committing one to House of Correction for 60 days and fines the other one cent.

SEATTLE.—The 1911 salmon pack for Puget Sound breaks all records, with total of 1,625,000 cases.

SEATTLE.—Steamship Northwestern arrives from Seward, Alaska, with $600,000 in gold from the Iditarod district, hauled to Seward by dog teams.

CHICAGO.—Mrs. Edna Robinson, of Portland, Ore., attempts suicide, because disappointed in love for Frank B. Cockrell, a Jerseyville, Ill., lumberman.

TACOMA.—Mrs. E. F. Drexel, wife of a rancher, routs hold-up man armed with revolver, by means of horsehip and a hatpin, and makes good her escape.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In past 12 months 15,974 acres of public lands in Oregon were withdrawn to protect power sites. Restored to entry, 18,970 acres, and also 104,123 acres restored, originally withdrawn on grounds that they might be coal lands.

SALEM.—Two convicts, Bert Boyd, of Th. Dalles, and Fred Fox, of Multnomah county, at liberty "on honor" to Governor West, escape after stealing a quantity of clothing.

SAN FRANCISCO.—A $10,000, 000 marine supply depot is to be built at once in this city. Building will cost $200,000 and will house $1,000,000 in supplies for the marine corps.

SALT LAKE CITY.—Walter Watson, charged with attempting to pass a $2 bill raised to $10, swallows the bill, but receives a three and one-half year sentence to Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

DELHI, India.—The durbar, instituted December 7 in honor of King-Emperor George V. and consort, closes.

NEW YORK.—John Norton Griffiths, Member of Parliament for Wednesbury, predicts war in six years between Great Britain and Germany. He said all Europe would be shaken, and the United States, also would feel the effects.

MEXICO CITY.—El Parcial, a Mexican paper, predicts the United States may intervene in Mexican affairs.

LOS ANGELES.—Rev. John Mills Kendrick, Episcopal bishop of Arizona and New Mexico, dies suddenly at the age of 75 years.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal.—Annex to Hotel Potter burned. Loss, $50,000. Five persons slightly injured.

NEW YORK.—Cornelius Vanderbilt is successfully operated on for appendicitis.

BOZEMAN, Mont.—Rev. John R. Hedberg, a Swedish pastor, is sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary for collecting $600 from Miss Christine Mattson, alleging it to be for charity, and then spending it for his own pleasure.

LOS ANGELES.—A merger between the Los Angeles Home Telephone Company and the Postal Telegraph Company is rumored. Such combination would meet competition brought about by combination between the American Bell Telephone Company and the Western Union.

MEXICO CITY.—All Mexico is rocked by an earthquake, most severely felt at Chilpanzango.

December 17.

SEATTLE.—Rev. G. M. Andreadi, a Greek Catholic priest, succeeds in foiling a blackmailing extortionist.

LONDON, Eng.—The house-keeping problem is to be solved by the erection of an immense flat building, which will at the same time offer a solution to the servant question.

OLYMPIA, Wash.—Olympia ministers combine in co-operation with the Y. M. C. A. to have all tramps applying for food at private residences saw wood for their "ents."

ROSEBURG.—C. H. Leadbetter, of Portland, purchases the 2700-acre ranch of J. M. Hansmaier, valued at $81,000.

NEW YORK.—Frank J. Gould will present his wife, as a Christmas gift, a $500,000 pearl necklace.

NEW YORK.—Mme. Tretrazzini is ill at Boston.

SEATTLE.—Victor Roman commits suicide with a mixture of carbolic acid and whiskey.

LOS ANGELES.—Vandals, in search of Christmas greens, destroy thousands of holly trees.

LOS ANGELES.—Olaf A. Tveitmo, secretary-treasurer of the California Building Trades Council, and Andrew Johannsen, organizer, appear before Federal Grand Jury in connection with the investigation of the explosion of the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1910.

CHICAGO.—Christmas week is signalized by the hanging of four murderers.

DURHAM, Me.—Rev. Frank W. Sandford, leader of the Holy Ghost and Us Society, to be sentenced for murder, predicts war and pestilence for the United States.

LOS ANGELES.—Colyer Van & Storage Company's building burned. Loss, $150,000, including goods of 2000 persons stored in warehouse.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Mayor-General Leonard Wood, Chief of Staff of the Army, favors restoration of canteen at army posts.

NEW YORK.—In four days four vessels carried out to Europe $4,000,000 in gold Christmas offerings. Others will carry out $6,000,000 additional in money and gifts during Christmas week.

OGDEN, Utah.—Armed robbers tear jewels valued at $1000 from the ears of Mrs. G. W. Culver and take other jewels from her purse and house valued at $1650 more.

RENO, Nev.—John B. Fleming, ex-President American Institute of Mechanical Engineers, dies as result of a fall from a roof.

MEXICO CITY.—An attempt to assassinate President Madero is frustrated, and many suspects arrested.

SPOKANE, Wash.—Wave of crime, with three recent mysterious murders unsolved, and many burglaries undetected, leads to reorganization of police department.

SEATTLE.—Chief Engineer Andrew Reed, of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, nearly scalded to death by the bursting of a cylinder head, after which he attempted to shut off the steam.

SALEM.—To date, 28 convicts, paroled by Governor West under "honor" policy, have made their escape.

NEWBERG, Ore.—Farmers, to protect their products, effect a combination.

December 18.

LOS ANGELES.—Suit is filed in the United States Circuit Court to dissolve the Pacific Coast Plumbing Supply Association, known as the "plumbing trust," and covering the states of Oregon, Washington and California.

DAYTON, Ore.—D. C. Eshmun, editor of the Dayton Tribune, is beaten in his office with an umbrella, on account of an article appearing in his paper reflecting upon the husband of Mrs. J. J. Jones, a sewing-machine agent. The woman plied the rainstick, while the editor promised to retract.

SEATTLE.—E. F. Breezer, ex-bookkeeper, who tried to blackmail $2000 from E. W. Andrews, president of the Seattle National Bank, pleads guilty and is sentenced to five years in the Federal penitentiary and to a fine of $1000.

LONDON.—The River Avon bursts its banks in Southern Wales, washing away many houses. No lives lost.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Taft abrogates the treaty of 1832 with Russia. Matter awaits ratification by Congress.

CHICAGO.—Fire in the Open Board of Trade building routs people out of hotels at night. Loss, $100,000.

LONDON.—Reports are received of the serious illness of Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, who is suffering with rheumatism and a severe cold.

ODESSA, Minn.—Colliding trains on C. M. & St. P. kill 12 and injure 20 others.

RENO, Nev.—New courthouse at Yerington, Nev., not yet completed, blown up by dynamite, Sunday, December 17.

December 19.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senate formally ratifies President Taft's notification to Russia of termination of treaty of 1832.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Mrs. H. A. James, wife of wealthy Mendocino county business man, offers to receive free for adoption, or to buy, if necessary, baby boy to present to husband for Christmas.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Arthur Bibbs, clerk in Northern Crown

Bank, resists robbers. He fires shots, is wounded in the hand, but saves the bank from being looted.

CENTRALIA, Wash.—Several lumber mills which have been closed are to reopen after the first of the year.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Thirty-two applications for pensions received from old Southern Pacific employes were received and will be favorably acted upon.

VALE, Ore.—Construction crews assemble to build extension of Oregon Short Line westward to Dog Mountain, a distance of 140 miles.

LOS ANGELES.—Mrs. C. E. Durbordieu presents a warrant at city treasurer's office for $24,872 due her for property which the city had condemned. She demanded and was given gold. She was accompanied by fifteen women, when the money was divided, who aided her in carrying it home.

STOCKTON, Cal.—Martha Walters, 16-year-old miss, elopes with 18-year-old Sydney Kepford, a Reform School boy, who was in keeping of probation officer.

SHANGHAI.—Representatives of six powers call upon Tang Shao Yi and Dr. Wu Ting Fang and present note of good will and the hope that peace conference would succeed.

NEW YORK.—Miss Fannie P. Jackson, a stenographer, inherits a fortune of $2,000,000, left her by her employer, a broker, Charles H. White.

NEW YORK.—John Bigelow, aged 95, noted American diplomat and author, dies.

SALEM.—Bert Boyd, an honor man who escaped from the State penitentiary last week, is killed at Eugene by the Shasta limited.

SPOKANE.—Six men are injured in a railroad smashup at Odessa on the Great Northern, and two locomotives are smashed and combination baggage and mail car is throw off the centers.

December 20.

LOS ANGELES.—Elsie Navikoff, a young miss of the Russian colony of Los Angeles, makes grave charges in open court against the residents of that quarter. She says that parents often barter their daughters to husbands for $500 a head, the same as cattle. Her charges are denied, but the authorities believe them to be true, and are conducting an investigation.

NEW YORK.—President Taft visits the city and confers with his political friends. It is reported that Senator Root and Wm. Loeb, Jr., have been selected to aid in lining up New York State for his nomination.

PARIS.—Mme. Langevin is divorced from Professor Langevin, leading educator. Mme. Curie, discoverer of a new light, originally named as a correspondent, was not mentioned.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Secretary of the Treasury submits favorable report upon bill appropriating $1,000,000 for Portland's proposed Federal building.

NEW YORK.—Rose Eytinge, once famous actress, dies at age of 72 years.

WASHINGTON.—Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, offers to cooperate with the officers of the law in probing the records of organized labor for evidence against alleged dynamiters.

M'MANIGAL MAY GO EAST SOON

LOS ANGELES.—Ortie E. McManigal, accomplice of the imprisoned McNamara brothers and confessed perpetrator of several dynamite outrages, will not go East for at least a week to testify in the Government dynamite conspiracy investigation.

Attaches of the Federal District Attorney's office here said that he would be needed here to check up on the testimony of Pacific Coast labor leaders.

The dynamite investigation at this end will be resumed tomorrow and Olaf Tveitmo and A. E. Clancey, San Francisco labor leaders, probably will be called as the principal witnesses. Clancey is said to be in a precarious condition with heart trouble.

"I will tell all I know and that will not take five minutes," was Tveitmo's statement.

Anton Johannsen, organizer for the State Building Trades Council, of which Tveitmo is secretary-treasurer, is expected to testify tomorrow. He is the only other important witness so far as known.

With Clancey in the witness room were A. D. Yancey, a mem-

PLACES OF AMUSEMENT

ARCADE.—Moving pictures.
BAKER.—"Busy Izzy."
EMPRESS.—Vaudeville.
HEILIG.—"The Old Town."
LYRIC.—"The School Girl."
MAJESTIC.—Moving pictures.
ORPHEUM.—Vaudeville.
PANTAGES.—Vaudeville.
PEOPLE'S.—Moving pictures.
STAR.—Moving pictures.

ORPHEUM THEATER.—Main 6, A 1020. Matinee Every Day—Week Dec. 24—Headliner, Dick Crolius in "Shorty's Elevation." Vaudeville.

HEILIG.—Seventh and Taylor. Phones: Main 1 and A 1122. Seats now selling—Montgomery & Stone in "The Old Town." Monday to Wednesday.

BAKER.—Main 2, A 5360. Geo. L. Baker, Mgr.—Next week, George Sidney in "Busy Izzy."

EMPRESS.—(Formerly Grand).—Sullivan & Considine. Refined vaudeville. Park and Washington. Main 992, A 4992. Matinee ever day—Week Dec. 24, with headliner, "Sarrthaler Troupe."

PANTAGES.—7th and Alder.—Unequaled vaudeville. Week Dec. 24: George Campers. Colored scenes on the old plantation. Pantagescope, Pantages Orchestra. Matinee daily. Curtain 2:30, 7:15 p. m. Boxes and first row balcony reserved. A 2236.

LYRIC.—Fourth & Stark. The Keating & Flood Musical Comedy Co.

C. W. Williams is under arrest for assault with a dangerous weapon and Edwin Auburn for disorderly conduct, as the result of resistance to and assault upon C. C. Klingel, of the police force, who attempted to arrest the pair at the Anaortes rooming-house, at Fifth and Stark streets. Klingel was stabbed in the side, but it is thought not fatally.

ber of the strike committee of the Harriman system shopment, who walked out last September, and "Jack" Lofthouse, an associate of Mrs. Belle Lavin, the woman whose acquaintance with Briece, Kaplan and Schmidt led to her arrest on a charge of murder, prior to the arrest of the McNamaras.

The grand jury devoted itself to an investigation of the alleged Chinese smuggling ring, which officials declared was exposed in the arrest of Mrs. Ethel Hall in this city several weeks ago. But Lawler summoned the dynamite witnesses into his private office and long conferences with each of them.

Lawler sent a Deputy United States Marshal out with subpoenas summoning one of the attorneys associated with the McNamara defense.

The woods are full of aspirants for Senator Bourne's toga. It seems there is never any lack of senatorial timber. The issue now seems to be between Bourne and Lowell. Little boomlets for Fulton, Selling, Morton and Johns are afloat, and there may be some "dark horses" in the grooming.

Governor Hawley of Idaho, racing westward to Boise to the bedside of a sick wife, shows the uncertainty of mundane affairs.

BAGGAGE STORED THREE DAYS FREE

THE Baggage & Omnibus
Transfer Co.

General Transferring and Storage

Main Office and Warehouse
PARK AND DAVIS STS., PORTLAND
Telephones: Main 6980, A 3322

Phone or Write

Government Standard
Powders Company

OF PORTLAND

And Have an Expert Explain Our Money Maker

Main 6383 90 First Street

The
New Models 10 and 11

Remington

do more than supply every demand; they anticipate every demand of every user of the writing machine.

SOME OF THE NEW FEATURES

- New Single Dog Escapement
- New Column Selector (Model 10)
- New Built-in Decimal Tabulator (Model 11)
- New Two-Color Dial
- New Back Space Key
- New Variable Line Spacing Lock
- New Shift Lock
- New Paper Feed

Remington Typewriter Company
(Incorporated)
New York and Everywhere

