

POPULAR ETHEL DAVIS AT TH LYRIC THEATRE.

SCENE FROM "THE CONCEALED BED" AT THE ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK.

The world's only saxophone band, composed of a family of eight—four women and four men—will shine as the headliner of the Orpheum bill for the week of June 17. The musicians are the Elliott Savanas, marvels of England, who play on 50 instruments. The act is elaborately staged, and the costumes of the musicians are gorgeous.

Next on the new bill are Graham Moffat's Scottish Players in "The Concealed Bed," a comedy of the Highlands. Graham Moffat is the author of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," and "The Concealed Bed" bears the stamp of his genius with a laugh for every line and every move in the farce.

Others on the bill are: Ray L. Royce, star, who will offer his imitable monologue and imitations of eccentric characters; the Five Pirosoffs, Europe's greatest juggling act; Romair and Ward, in "Ocean Breezes"; Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, harpists and singers, and Jeter and Rogers, who provide great comedy on skates.

HENRIETTA CROSMAN IN THE COMEDY, "THE REAL THING," AT HEILIG THEATRE.

The charming and favorite actress, Henrietta Crosman, and her splendid supporting company, will be seen at the Heilig Theatre, 7th and Taylor streets Thursday and Friday nights, June 20 and 21, in her latest comedy success, "The Real Thing."

"THE BLUE MOUSE."

Widely Discussed Farce to Be Baker Stock Co.'s Next Offering.

Nearly every one has at least heard about "The Blue Mouse," that lively farce, which swept through the country a few years ago, and which will now be seen for the first time in stock, the popular Baker Stock Company offering it next week, starting with the usual Sunday matinee.

It is a story of a young man's brilliant scheme to further his business interests by hiring a very much alive young woman and near actress to get into the good graces of his crusty, old employer, and finally coax or browbeat, if necessary, a substantial advance for said young man. As both these men are married, and as Paulette, known as "The Blue Mouse," is a very busy worker, a lot of the most unexpected and laughable situations are brought about. The play is one scream after another, and is well deserving of all the popularity it has received during the past few years. It will be seen at the Baker all week, with a matinee Saturday. Monday night, remember, is always Bargain Night at the Baker.

AT THE LYRIC.

For the week commencing with Monday matinee, June 17, Keating & Flood will present at the Lyric Theater the popular Armstrong Follies Company in the rip-roaring musical mixture, entitled, "A Texas Tommy Wedding." This production is presented for laughing purposes only, and if you wish to have an enjoyable afternoon or evening, drop into the Lyric during the coming week, and see this popular company. All the favorites will be in the cast, and the famous baby doll chorus will be there to please. There will be two performances every evening, and a matinee daily, and as a special feature on Friday night, after each performance, the chorus girls will hold one of their contests for three cash prizes donated by the management. These prizes are awarded according to the applause each contestant receives, so don't fail to be there and boost for your favorite baby doll.

AT THE EMPRESS.

One of the big vaudeville coups of the season of 1912 was pulled by Sullivan & Considine when they engaged the Eight Dollar Troupe for a tour of the circuit. Very recently this troupe of acrobats created a sensation at the New York Hippodrome. One eminent New York critic said of them, "The position of honor should be given the Dollar Troupe and their amazing act."
