Book Reviews

Fame-Seekers, by Alice Woods. $1.20. Illustrated. George H. Doran Co., New York City.
With illustrations by May Wilson Preston, this attractive novel depicts with cleverness an American artist-story of Bohemian Paris, known and Tribly Land.
The Under Trail, by Anna Alice Chapin. $1.25. Illustrated. Little, Brown & Co., Boston.
Hate, love and a secret crosscut trail in the Virginia Mountains make up this attractive novel of the Southland. The characters are exceedingly well drawn.
Beggars and Scorners, by Allan McAulay. $1.25. John Yane Co., New York City.
An historical novel well worth reading—harking back to the triumphs won in a similar department by Charles Major—depicting the struggles, intrigues, loves and hates of Scotch Jacobite exiles in Holland, after the memorable battle of Culloden in Scotland in 1745, when the English army, under the Duke of Cumberland, smashed the hopes of Bonnie Prince Charlie and his adherents.
The Mission of Victoria Wilhelmina, by Jeanne Bartholow Magoun. $1. B. W. Huebsch. New York City.
Told with singular pathos, this story of a young girl's experiences in New York City, and in the form of a diary depicts how she met the inevitable man, was deceived by him and went wrong. He was her employer. A baby came, who died shortly after she was born, and was named after the present Queen of Spain and the Queen of Holland. As the title of the little book indicates, this publication strives to fulfill a mission, and ought to serve as a terrible warning. It may, and may not.
Marcus Alonzo Hanna: His Life and Work. By Herbert Croly. With portrait. The Macmillan Co. $2.50 net.
The attitude of too many reformers toward politicians of the old school is a Pharisaic attitude of condemnation, as if those gentlemen had been guilty of personal unrighteousness in being what they were. Mr. Croly, in writing the life of "Mark" Hanna, sees the falsity of this attitude.
Marcus Hanna certainly did stand for what we now call privilege, but Mr. Croly shows us that he did not deliberately choose it after seeing a vision of privilege on the one hand and purity and democracy on the other hand. To him no such vision was granted. He was a product of contemporary conditions. "Only one explanation will account for his peculiar success. He must have embodied in his own life and purposes some vital American social and economic tradition which gave his personality, individual as it was, more than an individual meaning and impulse." This tradition, thinks Mr. Croly, was that of the pioneer.

In a little pamphlet entitled, "The Church and the Workingman" (Golden Rule Publishing Co., Nashua, N. H., price 10 cents), the Rev. Edgar F. Blanchard finds that the underlying purpose of the Mosiac Poor Laws and of the early Christian church was "to prevent destitution and distress, rather than to help people as objects of charity after they had come to distress"; and prophesies that the new church soon to appear will be "a Religious Brotherhood—a religious system organized on positive ethical and fraternal principles." From this combination of lodge, labor union and church, the workingman will not stay away.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT FORMS NEW PARTY

Progressives Meet and Nominate Ex-President; Denounce Taft Convention.

Chicago.—Theodore Roosevelt was nominated for president on an independent ticket. The nomination was made during the dying hours of the republican national convention in which Mr. Roosevelt met defeat.
The followers of Colonel Roosevelt met in Orchestra Hall, less than a mile from the Coliseum, and pledged their support to the ex-president.
Colonel Roosevelt said he accepted the nomination with the understanding that he would be willing to step aside if it should be the desire of the new party when organized to select another standard bearer.
Governor Johnson, California's fighting chief executive, presided at the Roosevelt meeting. The colonel himself was there and addressed the conferees.
At the close of his speech Governor Johnson recognized Senator Clapp, offered a series of resolutions, which were adopted, declaring that the Roosevelt delegates and alternates were elected by a majority of the republican voters of their respective districts and states to nominate Theodore Roosevelt for president and thereby carry out the will of the voters as expressed at the primaries; that for five days they were denied justice in the national convention; that this result was accomplished by the action of the national committee in placing on the preliminary roll a sufficient number of fraudulently elected delegates to control the proceedings of the convention; that they had exhausted every known means to prevent this fraud upon the popular will but without success; that they were sent to the convention bearing specific instructions to place Roosevelt in nomination and, therefore, deemed it their duty to carry out the instructions.

Completely New Party is Idea.
A new party from the ground up is the Roosevelt programme. After a series of discussions with his lieutenants, in which there were several clashes, Colonel Roosevelt decided, before leaving Chicago, to cut entirely away from the Republican party.
As an indication of his determination, he said that when he returned to Oyster Bay he would communicate with a number of Democrats he thought might wish to join the new party.
Governor Johnson said a national convention would be held late in July or early in August. The place has not been selected.

Colonel Roosevelt.

Committee Composed of 18 Members.

Instead of seven members, as was the announced intention, Governor Johnson named 18, all of whom have accepted. The committee is headed by Governor Johnson, who will be acting chairman. The others are: Senator Moses E. Clapp, Minnesota; Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Montana; Senator Miles Poindexter, Washington; Governor C. A. Aldrich, Nebraska; Governor R. S. Vessey, South Dakota; F. A. Van Valkenburg, editor of the Philadelphia North American; Colonel W. R. Nelson, owner and editor of the Kansas City Star; former Congressman Richmond Pearson, North Carolina; William R. Prendergast, New York; James R. Garfield, Ohio; William Allen White, Kansas; Gifford Pinchot, California; Judge Ben B. Lindsey, Colorado; Mathew Hale, Massachusetts; George L. Record, New Jersey; Charles H. Thompson, Vermont; Colonel F. C. Carrington, Maryland.

Joint Maneuvers to be Extensive.
Washington.—President Taft has sent a special message to congress recommending the immediate appropriation of $1,250,000 for use of the war department in the joint maneuvers of the regular army and the national guard next month.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Work on the Klamath Falls-Portland cut-off of the Southern Pacific railroad is to be rushed to completion.
At the municipal election in The Dalles, Judd S. Fish was elected mayor by 83 votes over Harry Clough.
Cheerful in spite of age and physical infirmities, a great throng of Oregon pioneers—about 1000 of them—assembled in annual reunion at Portland.
The people of Klamath Falls are in the grip of the gold fever, rich strikes of high grade ore being reported from New Pine creek and Mount Hebron.
Twenty-eight students were graduated at the Oregon Normal School at Monmouth. Twenty were from the standard courses and eight from the elementary department.
The $28,000 school of mines building at the Oregon Agricultural college is to be ready for the installation of the mining machinery and laboratory equipment September 1.
The state board has appointed William S. Hale, of Portland, superintendent of the state reform school, filling the vacancy made by the resignation of Superintendent Looney.
The marriage spirit has been at a low ebb in Hood River county for the past six months. The records of the county clerk indicate that only 25 couples have taken out licenses.
Because jackrabbits are so thick in Harney county that they are a menace to crops, the people of that county desire to initiate a law authorizing the county court to pay a bounty on rabbit scalps.
Pamphlets containing initiative and referendum measures to be voted on at the general election in November will be put in circulation among the voters by the secretary of state, probably by August 15.
After a lively but friendly tilt between Newberg and Tillamook, Newberg won out at the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Salem and was slated for the next encampment in June, 1913.
Application of the Southern Pacific for relief from operation of the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce act between Portland and San Francisco bay points has been denied by the interstate commerce commission.
The house has authorized the sale of 200 acres of Umatilla reservation land to the city of Pendleton for water supply purposes, and also the sale of the useless government site at Forest Grove for the benefit of the Chemawa Indian school.
Although Klamath Falls has adopted two charters in three months the voters of the city are soon to vote on a third. The council has decided that the best way out of the present charter muddle is to appoint a commission to draft a new instrument.
Resolutions were passed by the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic approving the management of the old soldiers' home at Roseburg and calling upon the legislature to appropriate funds for the enlargement of the institution.
The Portland, Eugene & Eastern has filed with the secretary of state supplementary resolutions to their articles of incorporation which provide for an extension of the line from Salem to Silverton, from Silverton to Molalla, and from Molalla to Canby.
As a result of trouble between cattlemen and sheeps in Baker county, Governor West has announced a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of any person destroying flocks, intimidating employes and menacing the lives of sheep owners.
Engineers began work last week on the survey for the new railroad from Metolius to Prineville. Actual construction work will begin August 5. To secure the road the people of Prineville and Metolius have agreed to subscribe for $100,000 in six per cent bonds.
That a winery may be established in Douglas county, even though that is a dry county, was held by Assistant Attorney General Crawford in reply to an inquiry sent by R. C. Fish, of Portland, to Secretary Olcott. This is with the proviso, however, that the wine which is manufactured be sold in wet territory and not in Douglas county.
One of the largest fees ever awarded to an Oregon attorney was the $30,000 allowed Colonel James H. Raley of Pendleton by an order of Federal Judge Wolverton, for his services as attorney for the receiver of the defunct Oregon Land & Water company, which operated at Irrigon and was originally backed by J. Thorburn Ross.
The first agricultural survey of the state of Oregon has been begun. The survey has for its object the securing of reliable data which will show to which of the agricultural pursuits the counties have been peculiarly adapted, and also to what extent the possibilities have been developed and may be expected to develop in the future under proper management.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM ADOPTED AT CHICAGO

Declares Against Recall; Says Party Is One of Progress, Not Reaction.

The platform adopted by the convention which renominated President Taft, a synopsis of the vital planks of which follows, declares its unchanging faith in government of the people, by the people, for the people. Allegiance is renewed to the principles of the republican party and to the cause of republican institutions. It proclaims that the party has always been genuinely a party of progress, has never been either stationary or reactionary, but has gone from the fulfillment of one great pledge to the fulfillment of another in response to the public need and the popular will, and that the party believes in a self-controlled representative democracy, which is a government of laws, not of men, and in which order is the prerequisite of progress. While the recall of judges is declared unnecessary and unwise, such action as may be necessary to simplify the process by which any judge who is found to be derelict in his duty may be removed from office is favored.
Authority and integrity of courts upheld; legislation against tedious and costly appeals and long delays urged.
Monopoly and special privileges opposed.
Federal trade commission commended.
Belief in protective tariff reaffirmed, with duties high enough to protect American industries.
Declares some import duties now too high and must go down.
Democratic party condemned for not providing funds for continuance of tariff board work.
Democratic tariff bills passed by 62d congress condemned.
Declares high cost of living not attributable to protective tariff.
Scientific inquiry into high cost of living recommended.
Revision of banking laws and currency system advised; also better facilities for farmers' credit urged.
Civil service law approved; extension of competitive service favored.
Laws prohibiting corporation contributions to campaigns, directly or indirectly, of president, vice-president, senators or representatives in congress.
Campaign publicity approved.
Established policy of republican party on conservation of natural resources to be continued.
More laws to aid bona fide home-seekers and settlers.
Adequate parcels post favored.
Protection of American citizens abroad regardless of religion, race or previous political allegiance.
Condemns action of democratic house in refusing to provide for additions to navy.
Merchant marine cited as one of country's most urgent needs.
Reclamation policy continuance recommended.
Liberal system of improving rivers and harbors.
Favors opening of coal lands in Alaska on proper leasing basis, which will aid development and supply fuel for navy and commerce of the Pacific ocean, while retaining title in the United States to prevent monopoly.
Undesirable immigration should be bridled by appropriate laws; party pledged to enact such.
Republican accomplishments set forth and approved include: Panama Canal, Bureau of Mines, postal savings bank; provision for aged and infirm sailors and for their widows; administration of pure food laws.
Greater economy and increased efficiency of government affairs commended.
Hogan improving.
The most improved player on the Browns is Hogan. His fielding in Philadelphia and Cleveland drew much praise from the home-scribes, and Bill also is hitting with the best of them. He is faster than many believe him.
