Portland's New Suburban Industrial Town on the Oregon Electric Line.

Men Wanted

MR. B. N. GARRETT, Mgr., Armstrong Townsite Co.,

Portland, Ore.

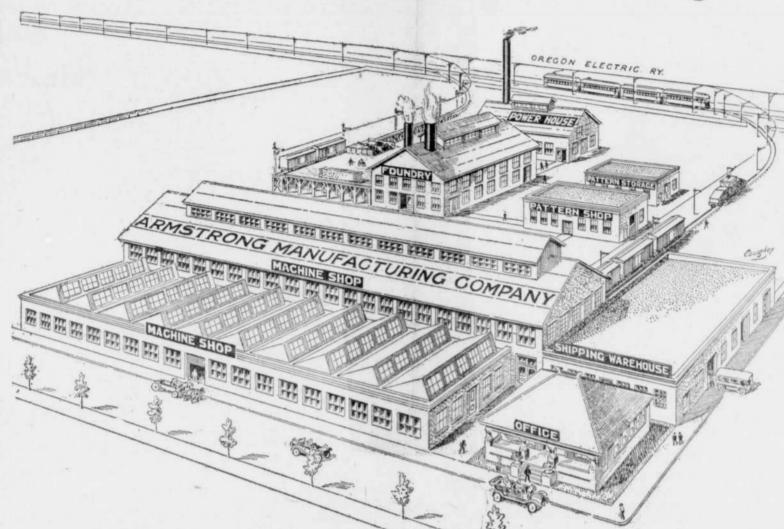

DEAR SIR: Beg to advise that this company is rapidly arranging its amairs and getting in shape to move to our new location at Armstrong. We especially urge that you rush the pro-motion of the town to the utmost. It is important that we have a large volume of available labor there in the very near future. Only one thing can possibly delay us in moving and that is labor. I do not believe that this will be the case. Ie believe that when the laboring man is shown the Armstrong that they will locate there and it is up to you have been completed and same can be seen at any time at our office. Our buildings as planned cover some 50,000 square feet of floor space, and for 250 men. We wish to have advised as to what progress you are making, etc., we are, Very truly yours, many attractive features of show them these attractions, Plans for our new factory we will furnish employment this much labor available in the shortest possible time. Requesting that you keep us

ARMSTRONG MANUFAC-TURING CO., By E. P. Armstrong.

BANK Building

Work on the new Armstrong State Bank building has begun and it will be rushed to completion.

UNITED SECURITIES CO., 223 Lumber Exchange Bldg.,

Portland, Ore. GENTLEMEN:-

Regarding the Ely-Norris Managanese Bank Safe also the Vault Door purchased by you for the Armstrong State

Beg to advise that same is now in stock and ready for im mediate delivery and will be shipped as soon as you notify

Yours truly, NORRIS SAFE & LOCK CO., H. W. Heller, Local Mgr.

Several cars of brick are now on the ground for the big Armstrong factory and the buildings will be rushed without delay.

THERE IS A REASON FOR THE ARMSTRONG MANUFACTURING COMPANY BUILDING THEIR EXTENSIVE PLANT AT ARMSTRONG OTHER MANUFACTURERS SHOULD KNOW THIS REASON

ARMSTRONG OFFERS REAL ADVANTAGes-Shipping facilities; high-grade labor; men who can own a big piece of fertile ground around their comfortable homes; men whose spent energy can be recuperated in the pure atmosphere of the luxuriant Willamette Valley; men who can begin their daily shop duties with vim and courage of good health. City-life with its nerve-wrecking effect and demoralizing influence on body and soul, fast consumes the spent forces of men in such environments. In ARMSTRONG such conditions are absolutely obliterated. Workmen and skilled mechanics can reach their shop in two minutes' walk. The half-hour or hour spent in stuffy streetcars can be more profitably spent in their vegetable gardens, reaching their city tenements.
