Barley Draught 'Farewell Tour' postponed

Barely Draught has decided that gathering people in a tight space with friends and fans coming from Portland and Seattle for three shows (March 13, 14 and 21) would be irresponsible due to the expected trajectory of the Corona Virus and are postponing their St. Patrick's Day gigs until further notice.

Maryhill Museum of Art opens March 15

Maryhill Museum of Art will open for the season on Sunday, March 15, with the exhibition "A Particular Beauty: Romanian Folk Clothing." Drawn almost exclusively from the museum's collection of Romanian textiles, the exhibit has grown to include more than 450 objects, including 20 fully dressed mannequins and numerous individual garments including coats, chemises, blouses, and vests. The exhibition will showcase a remarkable variety of embroidery techniques, mediums and styles that have evolved through the influences of adjacent ethnic populations. Maryhill Museum of Art, 35 Maryhill Museum Drive, Goldendale, Wash.; 509-773-3733.
