scare on his wife with ill success. The couple had quarreled, and the husband taking a bottle of red ink, strewed part on the floor and daubed the remainder on his throat. Then he laid down on the bed, feigning death. The wife came into the room, saw her husband and at once comprehended the trick. "My God!" she exclaimed, "he's committed suicide. I must get the neighbors to help lay him out." She then left the room, and returning a few minutes afterward saw that her husband had moved. "He has turned over; I guess he'll live," she remarked. and he did live .-- Cor. Boston Journal.

Transplanted Britons. Transplanted to new countries, such as Australia, the British race becomes very much more vigorous and of better physique. Yet in Australia, strange to say, the children of British emigrants are more likely to have decayed teeth or to lose them earlier than their parents Probably the soft foods requiring little mastication with which we are pain pered in modern times is one of the reasons for dental decay .- London Tit-Bits
