AN OPEN RIVER.

From all parts of the country tributary to the Columbia river from Walla Walla to Astoria come the cry for an open river. The action of the Oregon legislature in appropriating $60,000 for the portage railway at the Cascades has only helped to swell the volume and intensity of this cry.

USURY LAWS AND DEAR MONEY.

Governor Loughton states incidentally in one of his veto messages, that the prevalent rate of interest on safe investments in the state of Washington is seven per cent per annum.

THE TYGH HILL ROAD.

An effort is about to be made by the people living contiguous to Tygh hill to raise the funds necessary to build the county road already surveyed and laid out and granted by the county court, over that mountain.

SHOULD BE REPRESENTED.

The state board of agriculture has taken up the matter of raising $50,000 for the representation of the state at the world's fair in 1893.

Walt Whitman is popularly represented as being a man of humor. This is a mistake. The other day a sentimental young man dropped in upon him at his humble home in Camden, N. J., and, introducing himself as a poet, begged permission to read some of his verses.

FOR GOD AND HOME AND NATIVE LAND.

There are many yet in the school-room that consider the three R's quite enough; they believe those to be "cranks" who call for anything more. History repeats itself at every stage of progress.
