

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The Tygh Ridge country had another nice shower Sunday night last. An exchange says that wheat is being burned up around Walla Walla owing to the lack of rain.

A. C. McDonald of Sherman county brought into town two wagon loads of fat hogs for Wood Brothers.

The tenth annual commencement exercises of the Wasco Academy will be held at the Congregational church this evening.

A correspondent writing to the Okecho Review says that the town of Moro, in Sherman county, is soon to have a newspaper.

Mr. W. E. Jones, of the firm of Hollowell & Donald, wool commission merchants of Boston is in town looking after the interests of his firm.

Forty head of horses were fed at the stockyards Tuesday which were started this morning on their way to the Willamette Valley by way of the Barlow road.

The Oregon State Pharmaceutical Society of which our fellow-townsman, Mr. Geo. C. Blakey is first vice president is now in session at Portland.

Mr. E. S. Brooks of Silverton came up this morning on a visit to Samuel L. Brooks and wife. He will be present at Miss Ivy's graduation tonight and will return to Silverton tomorrow.

"Children's Day" will be observed by appropriate exercises by the Congregational Sabbath School on Sunday evening next. The programme will be given tomorrow.

From Mr. Blackburn of Grant we are pleased to learn that they had a fine rain in Sherman county yesterday. It commenced at 7.30 a. m. and lasted till noon.

There will be a meeting of fruit growers at the old court house, June 13th, at two o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a shipping association. All interested parties are requested to attend.

Jas. Knight who has resided at Kingsley for the past six or eight years passing through this city Tuesday on his way to Hood River where he intends to make his future home.

The decisions of Judge Bradshaw are meeting with the hearty approval of the general public. A gentleman said to the writer today, "I have never seen a judge who tries harder both to oblige and do what is right or who came as near succeeding in doing both."

Hon. H. H. Dufur brought with him from the Colville country some very rich specimens of mineral quartz. He says the new lands just purchased from the Colville Indians is very rich in all the elements that go to make a great country—timber, grazing, agricultural, and mining lands, with vast coal fields of superior quality.

The Petaluma packing company expects this year to put up 1,000,000 cans of fruit. To show what such an institution does for a community we draw upon the columns of the Imprent. That paper says the cannery mentioned will this year pay out $35,000 for help and $60,000 for fruit. It will use 1000 barrels of sugar and $20,000 worth of cans.

Last evening the Alumni of the W. I. A. gave a very pleasant reception to the graduates, at the residence of Mr. W. G. Woodworth. At 9 o'clock, the members of the class who had graduated in the years past, gathered, with the teachers around daintily laid luncheon tables, and the new class of three young ladies was introduced by Mr. H. Riddell in a few well chosen words, and was received by the vice-president, Miss Jessie Welch, in a manner befitting the occasion. The company lingered around the tables till 12 o'clock when they separated for their several homes, having had a most enjoyable time.

A little sensation happened in the quiet town of Dufur evening before last. A lady lecturer had obtained the use of the Dufur M. E. Church, evidently through a misunderstanding on the part of the pastor, Rev. T. W. Atkinson, and proceeded to deliver a rousing rationalistic lecture. At the close and before the house had retired the pastor announced that the audience would transform itself into a prayer meeting and then called on the lady to make the opening prayer. It is needless to say she politely declined but the prayer-meeting went on, notwithstanding.

he is dispersing officer have just finished their work, having made their final report from Colfax, Wash., on the 8th inst. The part of their work in which we are most interested is their report on the northern boundary of the Warm Spring reservation. An interview with Mr. Dufur reveals the fact that the commission found that the McQuinn line is not the northern boundary line of the reservation according to the treaty made in 1855 through Joel Palmer with the confederated tribes now known as the Warm Spring Indians. The commission approves the line laid up to the 23rd mile from the place of beginning in the middle of the channel of the Dischutes river, thence in a westerly direction to the north-west corner of the reservation. The commission were entirely unanimous in their report, and we hope their finding will be approved as we have no doubt of its justice and we are persuaded that it will meet the approval of the whites, who have only asked that the line be made to conform to the original treaty.

Mr. Dufur speaks in the highest terms of his brother commissioners. Every-thing between them was harmonious and pleasant. A treaty was made with the Indians of the Colville reservation for the surrender of the mill and a large acreage of their lands. Mr. Dufur describes these lands as the finest he ever saw for all purposes. The selection meets the highest approval of the people of Washington and Mr. Dufur will endeavor to have the Oregon delegation support that of Washington in its effort to have the selection and sale confirmed. Mr. Payne a member of the commission from North Carolina promises to secure the same support on behalf of the delegation from his state. Mr. Dufur speaks in the highest terms of the people of Washington for their hospitality and enterprise. The work of the commission will end on the 13th inst., when Mr. Dufur and his fellow commissioners will again return to private life. We can only say that if the work of the commission in Washington has been done as conscientiously and fairly and with as much painstaking to do what is strictly right and honorable as it was done here and we have no doubt that, the cordial thanks of the communities more immediately concerned are due to the commission. From our own personal knowledge we know that the decision of the commission on the north boundary line of the Warm Spring reservation will meet with the cordial approval of the people of the Wapinitia neighborhood, while we believe it to be strictly fair and just to the Indians as well.

Important Coal Discoveries. A discovery was made a short time ago by Mr. Alex Kelsay of Antelope that may prove to be of more importance to the people of The Dalles than the Fossil coal fields. It is that of two veins of coal which is believed to be a first quality of coal which have been traced for nearly four miles on the east bank of the Dischutes river, nearly opposite the Mitton mountains in this county. Five claims have been located already and two week's work done to develop the veins. Samples of the coal are now on their way to Portland to be tested. The locators besides the discoverer are M. J. Anderson, J. C. Kelsay, W. F. Kelsay and H. B. Hendricks. The latter is a brother of the editors of the Fossil Journal, the Salem Statesman and the Weston Leader.

The veins are about 12x30 feet and there is said to be twice the quantity of coal in sight that is at Fossil. The new Norton survey touches a point only a few miles north of the discovery. The writer saw a sample of the coal today and the fondly hopes it may prove equal to the expectations of the locators.

Mr. Chittenden's Resignation. Deputy Postmaster W. L. Chittenden, of this city, has tendered his resignation and will shortly remove to Ocoosa, in Washington. Mr. Chittenden is one of the most amply qualified men in the post-office service of this coast. For seventeen years he was the assistant postmaster of Portland and it was the earnest desire of more than three-fourths of the people of that city that Mr. Chittenden be made postmaster in full, but while he was attending to his duties in giving that city the best postal service it has ever had, a wily politician, who had a pull, obtained the honors that Mr. Chittenden so richly deserved, and The Dalles has been the gainer in having been so fortunate as to have secured Mr. Chittenden's services. Always courteous and obliging, he is honored and respected by all who know him. We congratulate the people of Ocoosa in having won so good a citizen as Mr. Chittenden and desire to express our regrets that he is to leave The Dalles office.

Authority to Build a Portage Road at Cello. EDITOR CHRONICLE: Permit me, through the columns of your paper, to call attention to sub-division 1 of sec. 1 of the Portage Railway act, which reads as follows, to wit: 1. To build, construct, run, equip, operate and maintain a portage railway between the highest and lowest points of the navigable waters of the Columbia river at the Cascades, in Oregon, and also between the highest and lowest points of the navigable waters of said river between The Dalles and Cello, in Oregon, as in their judgment shall be sufficient to meet the demands of transportation at those points; provided, that said board shall have the right to determine which railway shall be first built. Section 8 of said act provides for the appropriation of $80,000 for the uses and purposes aforesaid. It will be seen from the foregoing that there was no necessity for the Railway bill, and it only remains for future legislation, upon recommendation of the Board of Portage Commissioners, or otherwise, to make appropriations for the completion of both roads.

Card of Thanks. The family of the late Judge Bird desire the CHRONICLE to return thanks through its columns for the kindness received at the hands of the good people of The Dalles in connection with the funeral of the deceased. The many kindnesses shown were highly appreciated and will be long remembered by the surviving relatives of Judge Bird.

L. L. Hawkins of the Ainsworth National Bank of Portland, paid The Dalles a visit to-day.

The damp, cool weather of the past week has had a stimulating effect on all branches of business and our merchants feel quite satisfied over their footing. The stocks of merchandise on hand are complete in everything. In the dry goods line there is no change in prices and but few in styles. In the grocery and hardware trades there is no material change in prices to report. Sugars are still held firm although a decline is talked of which has no foundation for an immediate change. Coffee remains firm and will continue so for the season. In the produce market there is an abundance of strawberries, cherries, gooseberries, and currants. New potatoes are coming in freely and are taking the place of old, and selling at from three to four cents per pound. All other kinds of garden vegetables are plentiful at low rates.

THE SALMON CATCH. The salmon catch is too limited a character to report our dealers as being perfectly satisfied with the receipts. What are caught are of a larger size than usual; prices remain unchanged.

WOOL SITUATION. The wool dead lock which has prevailed between the sellers and buyers has not materially changed since the report of a week ago. The holders seem immovable in their ideas and the buyers are equally as steadfast in their opinions. A gentleman well versed in wool, the situation is of the opinion that the lock-hold will be broken in a few days as there are several new buyers in the field who are not influenced by a few inside sharpers who are endeavoring to control the market. Unless there is a yielding on the part of each, a determination is manifest to ship to other markets. Already the Wasco warehouse shipped during the past week 1000 bales and are expecting orders for other shipments. There has been a few sales made by some sellers on account of obligations, at prices ranging from 13 to 17 1/2 cents. The unsatisfactory condition of the wool market, brought about by the general disposition of wool growers throughout the wool districts, to hold for better prices has had a demoralizing effect on the wool market, and concessions will be made by those who have made advances. As the outlook for a realization of expectations is not warrantable as the reports from abroad and the eastern markets indicate a decline of 5 to 7 1/2 per cent. on the better grades, and a heavier decline on unwashed and heavy wools. Prices are not notably lower, but manufacturers claim that their wants are measurably supplied. The receipts in this city have been as large for the week past as formerly, and as great as for the same period last year.

STABLE GROCERIES. COFFEE—Ricoa is quoted at 24 cents for sack; Rio, 24 1/2; Java, 32 1/2. SUGARS—Calden C in half bins, 5 1/2 cents. Golden C in 100 lb sacks, 5 1/2 cents. Extra C in half bins, 5 1/2 cents. Dry granulated in half bins, 6 1/2 cents. Dry granulated in 100 lb sacks, 6 1/2 cents.

SCOURGE OF THE FARMER. Grasshoppers Traveling North From Milton, California.

Grasshoppers are in the section for over eight miles north and south. So far they have done no damage to the wheat and barley crops, but have destroyed fruit and vegetables wherever they have been seen. At North Hill vineyard they have destroyed one-third of the vines, also the olive and fruit trees. Saturday they reached Milton, and there is not a bush or flower left in the country. They are traveling northwest through the town, sweeping every green thing before them as they go.

CONCERNING LABORERS. A Serious Strike Averted in Chicago Yesterday. CHICAGO, June 7.—A serious strike was averted today by a prompt concession on the part of the employers. Last night the journey bakers council decided to order all the union laborers in the city out on strike this afternoon if a request of last year's scale of wages was refused. This afternoon over two-thirds of the master bakers had not only conceded the scale, but further agreed to advance 1 1/2 per week to all the bench hands during the summer months. Nearly 4000 men would have been affected by a general strike had the strike taken place.

Two Brothers Dead and Another Dying from Hydrophobia. KANSAS CITY, June 6.—Two weeks ago a mad dog bit a steer of a herd of cattle belonging to Vandenberg brothers, living on the western prairie in Lawrence county, Kansas. The steer was soon after affected with hydrophobia, which spread to other animals in the herd. The Vandenberg brothers, and each of them were bitten by one or the other of the affected animals. Friday one of the brothers became suddenly affected with hydrophobia, and died last night in excruciating agony. Today another brother died, and the third was brought to this city and placed in the hospital. Physicians believe he can only survive a day or two at the furthest.
