

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Justice Schutz complains that business is alarmingly dull in his line.

Messrs. T. J. and S. B. Driver of Wauke, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. Divine, of the Grand Ronde Chronicle, paid this office a visit Wednesday.

Fifty head of stock cattle, from yearlings up, changed hands the other day, near this city, at $20 a head.

State lecturer William Holder organized a new range on Three Mile Creek last Saturday evening with twenty-six charter members.

Pendleton has abandoned the idea of holding a celebration on the Fourth on account of the presence of diphtheria in that city.

Senft Bros. made their first shipment of peaches to Portland Monday, consisting of ninety baskets of Alexandrias. They are first class.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Menefee took place from the residence at ten o'clock Wednesday. The services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Curtis.

The first peaches of the season appeared in market Monday; they are of the Alexander variety, also the first apples, Red Junes, were displayed in limited supply Tuesday.

Last year the cannery put up 31,775 cases of salmon, holding four dozen to the case, and this year a trifle less than 4000 cases. Practically, there are no salmon running. The cannery is working fifty-seven men.

The fire ladders are making extra exertions to make a fine display on the Fourth. It is believed that they have never before taken so deep an interest in any public demonstration, as they have in this one.

The boiler of the Regulator has arrived but as the incline near the boat landing is needed for transfer while the burned bridge is being repaired, the boiler cannot be placed on the boat till this is accomplished.

Mr. H. Arnold brought into this office Tuesday a sample of the Blue Stem variety of wheat, grown on Chenoweth creek, on summer fallowed land, sowed in the spring. It is fully four and one-half feet in height, and equals the best spring wheat we have seen this season.

The signal service reports for a number of points in California on last Monday indicated that the thermometer ranged from ninety to ninety-five degrees in the shade. The highest reports were: Red Bluff, 104; Fresno, 110; Yerma, 116; and Merced, 116.

James Underhill of Boyd gave the Caronville office a pleasant call Tuesday. Mr. Underhill lives on the divide between Fifteen-mile and the Deschutes and after a residence of thirteen years he says he never saw as fine a prospect for grain as there is this year on the high lands of this county.

Scarlet fever has broken out in the Ten Mile district and is very likely to spread over the greater part of the neighborhood.

Dr. Doane visited a patient Tuesday and pronounced it a well defined case of this disease. As the child is a pupil of the school nearly all the children have visited their sick school mate, and some of them are more than likely to contract the disease.

The first bridge below Rowena was burned Tuesday. The bridge is a very long one, and before the fire was subdued beams were burned in number variously reported from eight to eighteen. It is not supposed the damage can be repaired sooner than Thursday, and it may take two or three days. Meanwhile passengers and baggage will be transferred by boat to and from this city.

The Eight Mile Zoological gardens contain the following curiosities. A chicken with three legs and three wings, White rats, imported from Central Africa, a male and female coyote from Tygh Ridge, a pair of owls from Central America, a spotted crow from Australia and rare breeds of domestic fowl embracing full grown hens that weigh only a pound to roosters that tip the beam at 14.

We are informed that a man is traveling over the Hood River country offering to take subscriptions for The Dalles papers at fifty cents each, less than publishers rates. So far as the Chronicle is concerned the price of the weekly is $1.50 a year, and no one is authorized to solicit subscriptions at a lower rate. Mr. George T. Prather of Hood River is authorized to act as our agent in that valley and any subscriptions paid to him will be duly recognized at this office.

A census bulletin just issued from the department having to do with mines and mining, treats of sandstone. From this bulletin it is learned that the value of the output of Oregon's two sandstone quarries in 1890 was $9,424. The production was 50,000 cubic feet. Oregon had no place in the tenth census, but in the present one she occupies thirty-second place, New Hampshire, Tennessee, Idaho and five other states being behind her. Ohio leads the list.

A few days ago Joe Warner of Nansen took down to Portland two car loads of beef cattle and four coyotes. The cattle market was dull and Mr. Warner was obliged to sell them at a slight loss, but what he lost on the cattle he made up on the coyotes. It appears coyote scalps are worth $5 a head in Multnomah county; so Joe hired a man for $5 to kill the four coyotes and take the scalps to the courthouse where the man got $20 for them and Joe pocketed $15 clear profit. Of course the man was able to swear that the coyotes were killed in Multnomah county.

Conductor Seely met with an accident Monday night that will lay him up for several weeks. It was on the east bound night passenger between the passenger depot and the Umatilla house in this city. The baggage car, it appears, had been sent out without any steps on it, and Mr. Seely forgetting the fact stepped out to look forward when he missed his footing and fell to the ground. His left arm and shoulder were badly bruised, one tooth was knocked down his throat and his face cut and eye blackened. Drs. Logan and Doane were called in and the man made as easy as possible.

It took ten tons of strawberries to feed the 700 patients of the Oregon asylum this season. No one, it is hoped, grudges these poor people plenty of cream into the bargain.

"U. P. Sam" visited camp last night and entertained the band with a song, the refrain of which was, "There is no fire on the drum major."

Hon. A. R. Lyle of Crook county returned from Portland Monday night after having completed a sale of 500 head of beef cattle at an advance on last year's prices.

Frank Melone Esq., is baling his wool, and will ship, as prices in this market are quite unsatisfactory to him. We understand several other wool growers will do the same thing.

The Evangelical Lutheran services will be held next Sunday, 10:30 a. m., and 7 o'clock p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all. A. Hous, Pastor.

We understand that Mr. M. J. Anderson known in the literary world as "Keno" and in the legal world as the Jack-Knife Judicial District has located at Dufur.

Mr. John Caragher, a merchant at Caragher, Fulton Co., Ohio, says that St. Patrick's Pills are the best selling pills he handles. The reason is that they are a perfect cathartic effect and are certain and thorough in their action. Try them when you want a reliable cathartic. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

The Chronicle office would be pleased to have the farmers of this county send in statistics of the number of bushels per acre of grain and corn, and the amount per acre of roots, vegetables, etc. produced during the coming season. A simple way to make an estimate of grain where it cannot be otherwise obtained, is to take four strips of wood each three feet long and nail them together in the form of a square; then drop this square over a piece of average standing grain and cut and thresh it by itself. Gaining the productiveness of our soil, and if furnished to this office will be placed where they will do the most good.

Corporal Will Langille of Hood River turned the joke on his father, yesterday, in good style. It was Will's duty, for the first time, to superintend the cleanup of the camp, and he took particular pains to have his father, who is a high private in the same company, detailed as one of the men to do the work. Corporal Langille preface his orders to private Langille with the significant remark, "Daddy I have got you now, where I have wanted you for the last twenty years." And so he had, and the officers commended Corporal Langille for having the cleanest camp and parade ground they had since they came in the field. The corporal compelled his father to go down on his knees and pick up every scrap of paper and every stump of a cigarette on the ground and private Langille submitted with true soldierly meekness, but when the work was done, his great parental heart again asserted itself as he told his boy, "My son, when I get you home I'll take the lint off you."

Our Mandolin Club Heard From. We understand the passengers who were transferred to and from Hood River last evening on the steamer Baker were entertained by a party of Dalles boys who out for a good time with their guitars and mandolins. The entertainment was varied, instrumental and vocal music being rendered in such a manner that the trunks, boxes, casks, and such other furniture as the U. P. provides for its travelers, by the road-side under like circumstances free of charge, seemed a trifle softer and more comfortable after the arrival of the "concert" as someone styled the little troop of pleasure seekers. The boys serenaded the town of Hood River held high carnival under the spreading oaks—or porch roofs—and barring such trifling accidents as a false step through a trestle, which rendered it necessary for one of the party to resort to gargling oil to soothe his wounded feelings, the losing of a mandolin pick which had to be replaced by one hewn out of a railroad tie—and such paragraphs of conscience as come from a neglected stomach and which nearly drove the party to casting lots to determine which of the boys should be killed and eaten,—the promiscuous wandering through fields, dust, heat, etc., to find the way back to the boat, the boys returned somewhat sobered, it is said, but still in high spirits, declaring they had had a fine time.

Liberty Car. The children who are to ride in the liberty car on the fourth of July are expected to meet at the Sun office, on Court street, two doors from the Grand store, on that morning (Saturday) at 9 o'clock, where a committee of young ladies will be waiting, and see that they are properly arranged in the car.

In almost every neighborhood there is one or more persons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by its use. Such persons take special pleasure in recommending the remedy to others. The praise that it has won, the introduction and use makes it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

Eighty Years Old. Yesterday Mr. Peter Rath, father of Mrs. Stadelman on the Mission Farm celebrated the anniversary of his eightieth birthday. Mr. Rath is enjoying good health for one of such age, and his many friends wish that he may celebrate this festive day for many years to come.

For a troublesome cough there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It strengthens the pulmonary organs, allays any irritation and effectually cures the cough. It is especially valuable for the cough which so often follows an attack of the grip. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

MARRIED. By Justice Schutz in this city, on June 27th, Mr. Volney J. Houston to Miss Dora Butcher. June 28, by Rev. Father Brongest, Mr. Wm. Rogers to Miss Celia Mesplie.

day and Wednesday.

CAMP CHENOWETH, June 30, 1891. The first series of games in the Regimental baseball tournament will be played this afternoon at three p. m.

The first heats in the 100 yard dash for members under 35 years of age, and the first heats in the 440 yard race will also be run after dress parade, from 7:30 to 8:30, this evening.

By order of the committee. T. A. HOCROFT, Col. chairman. G. T. THOMPSON, Lt. Col. J. A. BOOTH, 1st Lt. and Sig. Officer. R. H. NORTON, 1st Lt. and Eng. Sec. Companies F of Baker City, H. of Condon, K of La Grande, D of Hood River, B of Weston, E of Fossil, and C of The Dalles, are entered for the challenge plate. The handsome captain of F Co. confidently expects to take it home with him, but there are six other captains equally confident that they will have it, and someone is going to be disappointed. The competition will take place towards the end of the week, and will be exciting and interesting.

There are 19 entries for the 100 yard dash, for those under 35 years of age; 4 for 100 yard dash over 35 years; eight for 100 yard dash for commissioned officers, 20 for 440 yard race and 20 for best individual soldier. Mrs. Houghton, wife of the popular colonel will deliver the prizes to the winners at dress parade Saturday evening.

Major Lucas had difficulty in getting a suitable mount, and the boys of H and E companies hearing of this, raised a purse and had the majors horse shipped to him by express from Arlington.

The Third will be the banner regiment of the O. N. G., in point of attendance, orderly bearing, and discipline. This is the opinion of an officer of high rank, who has already seen the battalion at drill.

The conduct of the boys in camp, has been most exemplary and there has been no use for the guard house. Although nearly 150 men were given passes last night, all were back before their time expired.

Lieut. Col. Thompson, Capt. Hollister, Surgeon, and Lieut. Norton, engineer, have formed a joint mess and entertained Adjutant General Schoefer at luncheon yesterday.

Three non-commissioned officers from Vancouver barracks arrived this morning, as drill instructors, Major Burke of the 14th Infantry is expected here tonight, having been detailed by the War department as official inspector.

Capt. Lewis and family, Mrs. Patterson, wife of the regimental quartermaster, Mrs. Houghton, and Miss Gillian are among the visitors yesterday.

Mr. Joseph Fitzgerald the ever popular, resumed his old position as drum major, this morning, and the band boys are accordingly happy.

H. Athelstan Morley of Portland, is the guest of Lieutenant Norton, for the week. Signal Sergeant Patterson has been appointed Orderly by the Colonel. The band will play during the exercises, between 7:00 and 8:00 o'clock this evening.

Of the 48 men composing company K from La Grand only eight reported for duty this morning. The rest were suffering from diarrhoea, superinduced, it is supposed, from the change of drinking the water.

The most interesting ceremonies during the day are, Guard-Mount, at 9 a. m.; Battalion Drill, at 1:30 p. m., and dress parade, at 7 p. m. The latter string hangs out, and officers and men will be pleased to have their friends, and the public visit them.

CAMP CHENOWETH, July 1, 1891. The members of the 3d regiment are hard at work learning the soldier's trade in camp and are making splendid progress. They are doing good solid work and will be better for the drill. All is passing pleasantly and so far no accidents or unpleasant features have presented themselves. Following are some of the events of yesterday:

THE GAMES. The first two games of the baseball tournament were decided. F company of Baker City and C company of The Dalles were the first team, but through some misunderstanding C company's team did not put in an appearance, and F company got the game by default.

E company of Fossil and K company of LaGrande then occupied the diamond for the rest of the afternoon, and at mess call, E company having the largest score were declared the winners.

Companies E and F will play the deciding game this afternoon.

The first four heats of the 100-yard dash for members under 35 were run off last evening. Signal Sergeant Patterson won the first heat, Private D. Band second heat, Private Bert Bryan third heat, and Private J. Pearl fourth heat.

The above four winners will run off the deciding heat for the prizes at 7:30 this evening.

Amongst the visitors to camp yesterday were Mrs. Thompson, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Thompson, Miss Wiley, the Misses Thompson, and several others. Father Brongest and H. Athelstan Morley were guests to dinner at headquarters yesterday and during the repast were serenaded by the regimental band.

LESSONS IN GUARD DUTY. Considerable consternation was created amongst the guards in the week's hours by a visit from the Grand Rounders. This is a camp of instruction, and without any previous warning about 2:00 Col. Houghton, Lieut. Col. Thompson and Lieut. Patterson turned out and challenged the sentries, who, being new to the business, surrendered their arms and completely demoralized stood upon their posts helplessly awaiting coming events. The officers above mentioned then gave the man a practical lesson in sentry duty. Lieut. Patterson acting as sentry and being tackled on both sides by the colonel and Lieutenant colonel. It can be said without fear of contradiction that any man will be a sharp one who gets a gun from any one of those sentries should they happen to be on guard again.

ARRIVAL OF MAJOR BURKE. Wednesday Col. Houghton, accompanied by Lieutenants Patterson and Norton arrived in town as an escort for Major Burke of the 14th U. S. Infantry, the mercury at 3 o'clock stood at 94°.

late rains and favorable weather have stimulated the farming communities and the general tone of business in all branches has had a buoyant tendency.

THE SALMON INDUSTRY. The salmon season has been a light one for packers and canneries, the low water in the rivers and other causes unknown have made the catch the lightest on record. The Rockfield canning company, which put up 31,173 cases containing each four dozen cans, for 1890, has only put up about 3,800 cases this season and the few fish caught, and which will be brought to the cannery from this time to the close of the season, will probably not swell their pack to more than 5000 cases. Presuming the catch to be correspondingly small on the lower Columbia, the year's work will not exceed one fourth of last season's put up on this coast. While the market seems inactive owing to the large export of canned salmon of 1890, there will be better prices in the future realized by our cannerymen than formerly.

THE WOOL SITUATION. The week's wool market shows nothing of interest. The receipts have fallen off considerably, as the bulk of the clip has been delivered at shipping points. The Dalles has had larger receipts this season than last, but the sales have been less than for the corresponding period. The buyers, who were here last week, have nearly all gone, as sellers' prices were above offerings, and nothing could be done but consider it a deadlock. Telegrams to-day advise buyers to pay no more than 16c for A 1, clean wool, as the eastern markets are declining.

THE WHEAT OUTLOOK. The United States agricultural bureau reports a wheat product of over 500,000,000, which is being harvested and is ripening, for 1891, and that the yield in the Northwest will be the largest ever known. The following from Europe will be of interest:

THE WORST ON RECORD. LONDON, June 29.—The Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent declares that the harvest in Russia this year is likely to be the worst on record. He draws a harrowing picture of the losses of the country's crops. Prices of cereals, he says, are rising hourly. Rye has never before been so dear. A famine is already visible in the faces of the peasantry of Kostroma. Disease has already broken out. The only food is oatmeal, mixed with tree bark or similar ingredients. In the Jewish colony, Rostov, and in many other parts of the country, hundreds have had to die together. The government is taking no steps to avert the disaster.

BERLIN, June 29.—The Berliner referring to harvest prospects in Prussia, says that the yield of winter rye will be 1 1/2 per cent. of average, and the yield of winter wheat 63 per cent. of average, while the potato crop is uncertain.

Dispatches from India of a recent date indicate a great amount of suffering from the effects of drouth and in some parts of Europe the distress for want of food is beginning to be felt, and the eve of bread riots, which would indicate a demand for all our surplus, is near at hand. In the eastern states the grain market is weak, but there is, nevertheless, a general belief that the United States will be called on to supply the great deficiency, as its graineries are the only resource for supply in the world for 1891. The next month will settle the question as to the world's breadstuffs, and then markets will begin to assume a reliable phase. The Orient is beginning to furnish us with a market for our flour. Arrangements have been made to export large quantities monthly which means opening up another channel for our grain, and a permanent market, as the Mongolians take to our bread with favor.

It is reported that parties are contracting in the Palouse and Walla Walla sections for the crop at 70 cents per bushel. Whether this is reliable and "straight goods" is questionable. The Dalles wheat market is steady at 80 cents per bushel.

The following statement from Mr. W. B. Denny, a well known dairyman of New Lexington, Ohio, will be of interest to persons troubled with Rheumatism. He says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for nearly two years, four bottles in all, and there is nothing I have ever used that gave me as much relief for rheumatism. We always keep a bottle of it in the house." For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

Major Burke has, it is said, expressed himself as surprised and pleased with the fine soldierly appearance of the boys of the third regiment, and says he has seen men after fourteen years' service who did not do better.

The Dalles Mercantile Co. are now prepared to furnish outfits to the tenant farmers and all others who need anything in general. They have a new, full
