A REVIEW OF PENNOYER.

The New York Evening Post, a paper of strong democratic leanings, that supported Cleveland for the presidency in 1884 and again in 1888 hasn't a high opinion of Governor Pennoyer's article in the North American Review.

PLENTY OF ROOM FOR A STANDARD TRACK.

A walk from one end of the Cascades portage track to the other failed to find any place where a standard gauge road could not have been laid and operated without hindrance to anybody or anything.

POLITICAL EDUCATION.

An exchange says: "The farmers' movement is an attempt to secure the profits afforded by farming. It is a natural agitation of questions concerning the welfare of the people upon whom all other classes depend for their bread and butter, and the main question is this: 'Shall the farmer or the speculator get most of the profits of farm labor?'"

AN ENCOURAGING DEPARTURE.

Mrs. Leese, who claims to have been the cause of Mr. Ingalls' political death seems to have got to the end of her rope. She has been stamping the state of Kansas bent on the foolish mission of inciting the farmers to resist the foreclosure of mortgages; but her efforts, thanks to the good sense of the farmers themselves, have signally failed.

ALLIANCE LEADERS ALLEGED THAT THEY HAD PERFECTED PLANS TO REACH ALL.

Particulars of the great orator in wheat projected by the farmers' alliance are given in a St. Paul special to the New York Herald.

THE PORTAGE ROAD.

The entire track of the portage road is laid from end to end, except the trestle work at the western incline which is being pushed rapidly forward by the bridge building crew.

POINTS OF THE CIRCULAR.

The silent points of the circular of Editor Muller are: The farmers' alliance demand, unanimously, that the speculation for future deliveries of cereals shall be prohibited.

LEGISLATURE TOO SLOW.

The way of legislation is too slow to save this crop from being wasted at ridiculously low prices, and it is not likely that another such chance for the farmer will present itself again in a lifetime.

LEGISLATURE TOO SLOW.

To all farmers our advice is sell sparingly and you will see a steady advance to the end of the crop year.

CONFESSED HIS CRIME.

A California Mystery Cleared up—Released for Want of Evidence.

ANOTHER REMEDY FOR TUBERCULOSIS.

Professor Dr. Max Schuler, of the Berlin university, has a new cure for tuberculosis. He says he has experimented with it for the last twelve years, and is perfectly sure of its results.

THE DALLES AS A FRUIT COUNTRY.

If any one has a doubt as to the adaptability of our soil and climate for fruit raising let him take a drive up Mill creek any of these fine days and view an apple orchard set out a few years ago.
