VOL. 1.

THE DALLES, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1891.

NUMBER 16.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Territorial Justice to a Family of Farmers on the Upper Deck of a Barge Going Down the Willamette River.

CRISPY PALS.

The result of being a little too big for a cart is evident in the form of a large crowd of sheep that were recently rescued from a burning house in the town.

BIG PRICES FOR WHEAT.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.

Tribute to Lowell's Memory.

The late President of the United States, Franklin Pierce, was engaged in buying wheat in San Francisco on April 10th, when he was suddenly struck down by a stroke of apoplexy and died. The wheat he bought was due for delivery on the same day.

The artist and the photographer.

The only way to make a success of a photography business is to get the right equipment and then to work hard at it. The artist should be equally skilled in both.
