THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

FRIDAY, - - - JANUARY 15, 1892.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Measles are still raging on the bluff. Messrs. Hosford & Jones of the Moro Observer were in the city Thursday.

Engene Gillman of Gilliam county was in the city. He went below Friday evening.

County Commissioners Frank Kincaid and Dr. H. A. Leavens are in attendance at the county court.

The many friends of Mrs. F. Dehm will regret to hear that she is seriously ill.

Seven persons were confirmed by Bishop Morris in the Episcopal church at this place Sunday.

Messrs. Orchard & Fisher have returned from below, where they went to purchase a stock of goods for their new store in the East End.

Mrs. Pressey, of Portland, and Mrs. Hall of the Cascade Locks came up on the Regulator Thursday and are visiting with Mrs. Andrews for a few days.

The city council of Portland has instructed the license committee not to grant any more licenses to saloons located within 400 feet of a school house.

Chairman Springer of the ways and means committee, has drafted a bill for the free admission of wool. It amends the tariff law of October 1, 1890, but has not yet been introduced in the house.

A. M. Kirchheimer, a former subject of the German Empire and Thomas Moran, a former subject of the Queen of Great Britain were admitted to full citizenship before the present county court.

An exchange says: In his endorsement of Hon. Joseph Simon for a federal judgeship Governor Penneyer has disclosed a kind of back door or Sunday entrance to the Democratic party.

An alarm of fire was sounded Thursday evening which called out the fire laddies only to find that there was no use for them. It was difficult to find just what or who caused the alarm but from the best information we could find it was caused by the appearance of a large volume of smoke issuing from or near the house of Mrs. Morgan on Third street.

Civil Engineer W. J. Roberts goes down on the Regulator Tuesday morning to Hood River to run a trial line for the Central Water Ditch company, lately organized to bring water from Hood river on the flat back of Hood River town. If the canal is constructed it is expected to water 7000 acres.

The CHRONICLE purposes giving a write up of the business houses of this city, furnishing two or three each week as it may be convenient. No partiality whatever will be shown to any and no house of business advertised in these columns will be knowingly omitted. Any such oversight will be promptly rectified if word is left at this office.

Grand masquerade Ball will be given by Jackson Engine Co., No. 1, Thursday, January 21, 1892, at the Umatilla House Reception committee: W. S. Graham, H. Clough and F. Lemke. Floor managers: Judd Fish, H. Bills, Geo. T. Thompson, J. Woods and John Hertz. Committee of arrangements: Frank Roach, Geo. Williams, Geo. Munger, John Blaser and Geo. A. Liebe. Tickets of admission, $1. No person of questionable character will be admitted.

Jacobsen & Co. have had manufactured for them a very handsome and convenient paper box that is at once a box and a drawer combined. The box they fill with forty-eight sheets of first quality of note paper and the drawer with forty-eight envelopes of the same quality of paper and sell the combination for the low price of 25 cents. The box-drawer itself is a thing of beauty and seems worth nearly all that is asked for the whole business.

The CHRONICLE acknowledges the pleasure of a call from Mr. E. Calkins of Hood River. Mr. Calkins has appeared before the county court with reference to damages for the loss he sustained some time ago when his horse and wagon backed over the bluff, at the head of the grade on the old Dalles and Sandy wagon road leading down to what is known as Haynes' Spur. When it is known that the road at this point is narrow and that the horse and wagon had a sheer fall of some seventy feet the wonder is that the horse escaped with his life. It was still more fortunate that Mr. Calkins, who lost a leg in the civil war, was able to get himself and wife free from the wagon before it went over the bluff. This reminds us to second the suggestion of the Glacier that the county court should certainly make some provision against the recurrence of such an accident at both this place and also at the eastern grade leading to the Hood River bridge. A little money spent on these grades would be wisely spent and might save a much larger sum paid as compensation for injury or loss of life. In connection with the accident that happened to Mr. Calkins we regret to learn that Mrs. Calkins still suffers seriously in her mental condition, from the effects of the shock, and Mr. Calkins fears that she will never be herself again.

B. F. Laughlin returned Saturday evening on the Regulator from a week's business trip to Portland.

The Democrat tells of a man in Baker City who has not got enough of brains to make a good headache.

A disastrous fire occurred at Grants on Saturday night in which the large store of Grant, Fraine & Grey was totally destroyed.

The county court having awarded the county printing to the CHRONICLE, this journal is now the official paper of the county. It was already the official paper of the city.

Grant Bolton of Lower Fifteen Mile is down with pneumonia. Dr. Logan, who visited him Sunday, hopes he will soon be all right.

The U. P. company has pulled down boiler and tin shop and intend, it is said, to remove the lumber to Albina and use it in making sheds to keep the workmen from being drowned in that wet climate.

G. W. Johnston and son have opened a carpenter's shop at 112 Main street where they will attend promptly to and give estimates on all kinds of carpenter work. The Messrs. Johnston need no recommendation from us. They are old settlers, thoroughly honest and reliable and no better workmen are to be found anywhere. We heartily wish them the success they deserve.

The thermometer touched 21 degrees above zero Monday, the lowest point it has reached at this place this winter. Six inches of snow fell at Pendleton Saturday night. Here there were only a few scattering flakes, and the lower lands are all bare. On the Tygh Ridge the ground is covered with about six inches of snow. There has been good sleighing there for the last week or more. About two inches of snow is reported on the higher lands in the Baker-Oven neighborhood.

A private letter from Wamic has the following: Gordon & Stogsdale have dissolved partnership. Gordon remains in the business and will move his goods to Tygh Valley. That means no store at Wamic for the present. Mrs. Mollie Brattain is very sick with rheumatism. Fears are entertained that Tom Driver's daughter Edna, who has been sick for some time, is paralyzed on one side. Ike Drivers, Dan Palmateer and Sam Douglass' children are down with measles, and a few cases of la grippe are reported but none are very serious.

Recorder's Report.

To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council of Dalles City: In pursuance of your request I here submit statement of the condition of the financial affairs of Dalles City, which I have prepared from the best possible sources of information, and which I think is in the main correct.

I have carefully inspected the stubs of the warrant books and I find thereon uncancelled stubs up to July 7, 1891, the time I took charge of the office, to the amount of $25,532.85.

Uncanceled warrant stubs since July 7, 1891, $25,532.85 Since July 7, 1891, warrants have been issued to the amount of 10,654 70 $35,587 55 Making a total of warrants 10,654 70 $35,587 55 Since July 7th warrants have been redeemed, not counting interest on same, 4,932 45 And there is cash on hand applicable to redeeming warrants, amounting to 6,449 45 $11,403 10

Leaving the indebtedness of city, according to the above, actually $24,184 45

The comparative standing at the present time (Jan. 1, 1892) with the standing July 7, 1891, will be seen by the following statement in which we will place on the debit side:

Cash on hand applicable to redemption of warrants, July 7, 1891, per treasurer's report $ 3,868 12 Warrants issued since said time 10,654 70 $14,522 82

CREDIT. Warrants redeemed besides interest $ 4,932 45 Cash on hand Jan. 1, 1892 6,449 45 $11,403 10

Which will show expenditures since July 7, 1891, in excess of receipts, to be $2,519 72 Of the warrants issued during said time I estimate that at least there were issued directly for expenses incurred on account of the fire of September 2d $ 3,138 26

And had the fire not occurred the gain made in the reduction of indebtedness besides paying interest on redeemed warrants, would amount to $ 618 54 The above does not in reality include all the expenses incurred on account of the late fire, as many other expenses were increased on account of, and I think it safe to say that by figuring closely, at least $500 more would be chargeable to the fire, but I have only estimated such expenses as were directly traceable to it. The above statement does not include $2000 insurance on the engine house, on hand, which I have considered as balanced by the loss of the same.

Respectfully submitted, FRANK MENEVEE, Recorder of Dalles City.

Recorder's Court. George Ernest was fined $5 and costs for begging.

Andy Broger was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and begging.

Chas. Frank was fined $5 and costs for sleeping out.

R. F. Casey was indicted under the double charge of being out late and carrying concealed weapons. He was fined $5 and costs.

Public Installation.

Last evening Dr. O. D. Doane, of this city, went down to Hood River for the purpose of publicly installing the officers of Idlewild Lodge No. 107, I. O. O. F. The list of officers for the ensuing term are as follows:

M. P. Watson, N. G.; A. B. Jones, V. G.; J. W. Morton, Rec. Sec.; L. E. Morris, Per. Sec.; J. E. Hanna, Treas.; J. E. Tate, R. S. N. G.; W. H. Allen, L. S. N. G.; W. B. Perry, Waaden; Geo. A. Herbert, Cond.; L. Neff, R. S. S.; Wm. Ellison, L. S. S.; H. L. Cunan, R. S. V. G.; R. F. Hardwick, L. S. V. G.; A. L. Maguire, I. G.; L. E. Udell, O. G.; H. Hibbard, P. G.

The members of the lodge had opened their doors to a large concourse of invited guests, and after the ceremonies of installation were concluded a very entertaining programme was presented, consisting of brief addresses, from several speakers, singing songs by the glee club, and last but by no means the least enjoyable part of the entertainment, an elegant repast was furnished and a general good time was had by those present.

Idlewild Lodge is one of the newer institutions of the village of Hood River, having been instituted but a few months but has grown and flourished, and is composed of good material, and is destined to accomplish good work for the Odd Fellowship at Hood River.

Arrest of a Fugitive.

Saturday morning last Sheriff Cates received a telegram from constable H. Vanatta of Vancouver, Wash., ordering the arrest of Frank Stice a quarter breed, who had left that day for up the river on the Dalles boat, and who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and intent to kill. Stice came up on the Regulator and the sheriff had no trouble in finding him and putting him in the county jail. He is a young fellow aged about 18 years, but no means vicious looking. He tells a confused story about being at a dance at his aunt's farm, where in fact he lived. A man named Weaver lost a whiskey bottle and accused young Stice of stealing it. Hot words followed during which blows were struck on both sides. Stice was chased to the woodshed when he picked up an ax to defend himself. Weaver picked up a gun, but bystanders interfered and separated them. Stice claims he only struck Weaver with his fists and did not touch the ax till he was pursued by Weaver and never even attempted to strike Weaver with it. He says he ran away because Weaver gave him an hour to leave, else he would take his life. The story does not hang well together. The two things certain about it are that there was a row and a whiskey bottle.

DIED.

January 7th inst., at 7:40 p. m., at the residence of her daughter Mrs. George Ruch of this city, Mrs. Ursula Michell, widow of the late William Michell, aged 80 years, ten months and two days. Mrs. Michell was born in the parish of Helston, County of Cornwall, England. She came with her husband to Wisconsin in 1847. Her husband crossed the plains and came out to California in 1851. On his way back to his family in 1853, he died at Panama and was buried there. Mrs. Michell came out to this coast in the month of January, 1865 and has resided in this city ever since. The excitement of the great fire, in which Mrs. Michell lost her residence, undoubtedly told upon a constitution enfeebled by age and her health has been gradually breaking down ever since, till last Wednesday, when it became evident to her physicians and friends that the end was approaching. Mrs. Michell was an earnest and devoted Christian woman. Left nearly forty years ago with a family of five children who all survive her, her life was given up, as few others has been, to their welfare. Of these, William, Phillip, John and Mrs. Ruch reside in this city, while Henry lives in Goldendale.

DIED.

In this city (Sunday) afternoon of paralysis of the brain, after an illness of about one week, Mary Elizabeth, wife of F. Dehm. Mrs. Dehm was born near Jefferson, Missouri, 58 years ago. She crossed the plains in 1853 and with her husband came to reside in The Dalles in 1863, where they have remained ever since. She leaves a husband, one son and one daughter. Mrs. Dehm was a thoroughly good, hard working and industrious woman and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She was a devoted wife and mother and a kind and sympathetic neighbor, one, withal, who met in the pathway of life more than her usual share of trouble and sorrow, but who bore up under it as a brave and true woman only can. Peace to her ashes.

The Governor Signed It.

When Dr. W. E. Rinehart heard of the circular issued by the board of trade of this city urging our representatives in congress to do all in their power towards obtaining at this session an appropriation for a portage railroad at the dalles he obtained one of them and sent it, accompanied by a friendly letter, to Governor Penneyer. This morning the doctor called at the CHRONICLE office and showed us this same circular, bearing on it in the well-known chirography of his excellency the still better known name "Sylvester Penneyer."

The Doctor got one Himself.

Last Thursday after the CHRONICLE man had read an item in the Sun which made the assertion that no circular had been issued by The Dalles board of trade urging the representatives of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to use their best efforts towards procuring an appropriation for the dalles portage, he stepped into the county court room and while passing the complements of the season with County Commissioner Leavens, the author of the Sun item entered the court room and approached to within convenient distance of the two conversationalists. At this moment Dr. Leavens, who was unacquainted with the Sun man, picked up from his desk a copy of that journal and made as though he intended to pass some criticism on its contents. The CHRONICLE man tried to nudge the doctor to defer the criticism but their elbows were too far apart. Then the CHRONICLE man tried to wink at the doctor but that gentleman was bound to find the item he was looking for and never lifted his head. At last having found the item that contained the denial that the circulars had been sent out, the doctor pointed to it with his finger and addressing the CHRONICLE representative said: "Look here Gourlay, this fellow says these circulars have not been sent out; by gee-whittaker sir, I got one myself." Tableau.

Two Dalles Boys in Washington D. C. From a private letter just received from Washington, D. C., we extract the following: On the 5th instant Mr. Fred W. Wilson, now student at the John Hopkins university at Baltimore, in company with Mr. Ed Mays, of the University of California, were visitors at the national capitol. Both young gentlemen were in excellent health and great good spirits. Senators Dolph and Mitchell and Representative Herrmann showed them every possible attention. Their stay in Washington was brief, but nevertheless they saw many of the attractions of the city and departed full of admiration for the seat of government.

Sherman and Wasco.

Wasco and Sherman counties business council met at Center Ridge schoolhouse on the 15th of December, 1891, and held an interesting and harmonious session. The following resolutions were considered of enough importance to the public to demand publication: Whereas, the convict labor of the state of Oregon is now contracted to a corporation at a very small compensation, yielding but little revenue to the state, leaving the greater part of expense of keeping and guarding the convicts a burden on the taxpayers of the state; and

Whereas, the labor, as at present employed, is in competition with free or honest labor; and Whereas, we believe that the labor of the convicts ought to be employed in such a way as to be, in a measure, self-sustaining and a benefit to the state, and at some work in which all, or nearly all, may be employed; and Whereas, the present contract of the convict labor is about to expire; and Whereas, the jute plant in San Quentin prison, Cal., has proved a self-sustaining institution; and the state of Washington is now putting in a jute plant in the penitentiary; therefore be it

Resolved: That we demand of the incoming legislature, to provide by sufficient appropriations to put in a jute mill at the penitentiary of Oregon, to be managed and run under state authority, and the manufactured grain bags to be sold to farmers and consumers direct at cost.

Another resolution provides for having this resolution printed and sent to all farmers' organizations, with an invitation to join us in pushing this great move to success. P. P. UNDERWOOD, Secretary.

He Dismissed the Court.

The Spokane Review says: "It was an Oregon justice of the peace who sentenced a man to the penitentiary; another who got into a row with a neighbor while killing hogs and fined him for contempt of court, and an Oregon judge who, upon appointment as consul to the Sandwich islands, mounted his old horse and started out for his post of duty, having learned that Honolulu was just beyond California. And it was an Oregon sheriff who allowed his prisoner, convicted of murder and sentenced to death to go home and put in his crops, trusting to his honor to show up on the day of execution. And the man was hanged too."

The Review is severe. What if we should say that it was a Washington citizen who found his self elected justice of the peace and the only law book he had was a copy of Cushing's Manual? The first case before him was that of a cowboy for stealing a steer. When the case was called the leading lawyer of the town was there to defend the prisoner. "As there is no counsel for the other side," he said, "I make a motion that the case be dismissed." The justice looked over his manual. "A motion has to be seconded," he said, "I second the motion," promptly responded the prisoner. "The motion has been seconded that the case be dismissed said the court; "all in favor will please say 'aye.'" The prisoner and his attorney voted "aye." "All opposed will say 'no.'" Nobody voted. "The motion is carried and the case is dismissed!" repeated the court. "A motion to adjourn is now in order." The prisoner made the motion, and the court adjourned to a saloon in the vicinity.

The Adulteration of Grain.

St. PETERSBURG, Jan. 7.—The czar displayed extreme anger upon learning of the adulteration of food intended for the starving peasants. It is reported the principal authorities will be dismissed in consequence of these disclosures. Three agents at Odessa were arrested for having sold adulterated grain.

A Preventive for Croup.

We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. - daw

Unnecessary Sufferings.

There is little doubt but that many persons suffer for years with ailments that could easily be cured by the use of some simple remedy. The following incident is an illustration of this fact: My wife was troubled with a pain in her side the greater part of the time for three years, until cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has, I think, permanently cured her. We also have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy whenever needed and believe it to be the best in the world. P. M. Boston, Pennville, Sullivan Co., Missouri. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly Druggists.

For the Children.

Saved from Death by Onions.

There has no doubt been more lives of children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy, our mothers used to make poultices of them, or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. 50c. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.
