Peasants Driven Desperate. ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 27.—Matters in the famine-stricken districts are getting worse. In many instances the ignorant peasantry, exasperated by hunger and sickness, have turned against the doctors on account of the latter's failure to effect cures, and physicians are fleeing in terror.

Little Prospect of an Early Fight. SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 27.—There is little prospect of an early fight between the troops and Garza's men. It is stated upon reliable authority that Garza has only two men with him—his brother and an experienced scout; that they hide in the brush during the day, and venture out only at night to obtain supplies from friendly ranchmen.

Mexico Takes a Hand. CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 27.—El Tiempo, the organ of the church party, commenting on the Chilean news in tomorrow's issue, attacks the people of the United States, calling them an execrable race of cowards, who, because they are powerful, would attack a small nation.

Died of Yellow Fever. NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The captain, chief officer, third engineer and fireman of the steamer Marcia, from Brazilian port, which arrived yesterday, are reported to have died of yellow fever there.

SICK Head-Aches. An illustration of a person's head with a red cross on the forehead, indicating pain.

Sick headaches are the outward indications of derangements of the stomach and bowels. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick-headaches.

Jno. M. Cox, of 735 Turk Street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been troubled with attacks of sick-headache for the last three years from one to three times a week. Some time ago I bought two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and have only had one attack since and that was on the second day after I began using it."
