THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

FRIDAY, - - - FEBRUARY 19, 1892.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday. It is currently reported on the streets of this city that Senator Hilton is a candidate for congress.

The farmers are as busy as can be plowing up new ground and putting old in condition for sowing.

The police judge reports everything quiet in his department, which the tax payers will be rejoiced to learn.

J. W. Messenger, a well known farmer of Sherman county, and prominent leader in the Grange, and Alliance, and in every movement intended to benefit the producing class, paid the city a visit Friday.

We have had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. James S. Brown who together with Mr. Albert Weaver has lately arrived from Georgia and taken up land on the Wapinitia Flat.

Representative Wilson of Washington wants a new state carved out of the Northwest. His idea is to create a state out of the eastern half of Washington and the northern half of Idaho with Spokane as the capital.

Keely and Dubois of Dry Hollow offer for sale about 35 head of good grade roan Durham cattle. The cattle are all gentle and about a dozen cows have been broken to milk.

The weather is perfectly delightful and the mercury is reveling in the sixties. Several of our lady friends were out on a walk in the suburbs of the city Wednesday and surprised themselves by finding three varieties of wild flowers, the Golden Star, Sisyrinchium and Eriogonum in full bloom.

The great Adelaide Patti concert takes place in Portland on Friday the 26th, and the price of a seat at the entertainment is fixed at $10.00 each.

From the Daily Chronicle, Saturday. Frost is about all out of the ground, and farmers are plowing about Dufur.

Dr. J. A. Gusendorf, of Arlington, is registered at the Umatilla house today. The Slickstone and Dry Hollow companies have inaugurated a freight war.

Miss Laura B. Johnston and Mr. Louis S. Fritz were married in Salem on Thursday. Twelve carloads of beef cattle were fed at the stock yards this morning and shipped to Portland.

Mr. H. Glenn has purchased the old Columbia Hotel lot on Main or Railroad street and will build a large warehouse on it at an early day.

The Stone fish scow recently built on the beach in front of the city is in readiness for the wheel which is being put together so as to receive the wire netting.

The change of place for the road meeting from Tygh to Wamic, today, was because no place for the meeting to be held could be found at Tygh, says the Dispatch.

Reports from the stock ranges are very satisfactory as there has been no loss and stock has come through in fine condition. The wool clip is expected to be very large and of fine staple.

as at all "purely accidental," when it comes to an investigation. The Astorian may not be so easily got rid of as was her predecessor, the Clara Parker.

The steamer Regulator moved the Rockland wharf boat to its mooring today. On Monday the steamer begins triweekly trips to the Cascade Locks, connecting with the steamer Dalles City which will arrive in Portland about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Col. Jas. K. Kelley, long and favorably known as a resident of The Dalles, later United States senator from Oregon, and one of the leading attorneys of the nation, is reported as falling in health rapidly.

That was a somewhat peculiar and funny circumstance which happened yesterday when ex-Editor Middleton sued the Sun Publishing Co., for wages. The papers were served by the Sun Publishing Co.'s Secretary Sheriff Cates, upon the Sun Publishing Co.'s President Judge Bradshaw, who ruled against the demurrer.

Hon. A. J. Dufur made the CHRONICLE office a pleasant visit this morning, during which the topic of conversation turned upon the effort, or rather the lack of effort, as it is confined to but a few persons, to secure funds for a decent representation at the Chicago World's Fair.

Mr. Smith French has just returned from a short trip into Sherman county. From him we learn that the soil is in fine condition for the plow and that there is great activity among the farmers.

The M. E. Church edifice is rapidly nearing completion, the windows have been placed in the basement, and in another week those in the auditorium and lecture room will be placed in their frames.

The eccentricities of Vic. Trivett may never die out. Every "once in a while" something springs up to remind us of him and them. The latest is the Chinaman's dream. Vic, in his day, held that story as a club over the head of many an anti-Chinese.

From the Daily Chronicle, Monday. Uncle Billy Kelsay, a prominent sheep owner from Antelope county, was in the city today.

J. F. Thompson formerly of Five Mile, now of Sprague, Washington, is on a short business trip to the city. A. McDonald of Monkland, J. M. Roth of Kingsley, and H. C. Rooper of Bake Oven, are at the Umatilla House.

Thirty-three years ago yesterday Oregon was admitted as a state of the American union. The anniversary was celebrated at The Dalles by genial weather and happy smiles upon the countenances of the people.

A protracted meeting under the charge of Rev. E. Baker, of Dufur, has been in progress for the past two weeks at Fairfield. Rev. A. G. Spencer preached there last evening and expects to assist during part of the present week.

The band boys desire through the CHRONICLE to sincerely thank Mr. John Booth for his service as door keeper, Masters Vic. Marden and Winn Curtis for their services as ushers and Mrs. Lochhead for the use of the stage during the entertainment of last Saturday evening.

J. D. Wilcox of Kent, is in the city. Mr. Wilcox is prominently mentioned by the residents of the southern portion of Sherman county for the office of county commissioner. It is a case of the office seeking the man and Sherman county can hardly make a better selection.

We regret to learn of the loss by fire, last Friday evening, of the dwelling of J. R. Woodcock of Wamic, and nearly all its contents. The building was insured in the State Insurance Company of Salem for $600; but this amount will not nearly cover the loss.

An attempt was made last night in the east end to hold up Billy Larsen while that gentleman was on the public street near The Dalles Mercantile company's store. Billy resisted the attempt, when his assailant drew a knife and succeeded in cutting Billy's clothes and one of his hands which was thrown up in defense. The assailant was finally driven off without attaining his object.

A land slide on the U. P. R. R., just above the first tunnel below The Dalles, caused a delay of the down 4 a. m., train until 11 o'clock yesterday. The up train, due here at midnight, did not get in until noon yesterday, after which she carried a flag and proceeded as first section of No. 8.

The Regulator will make a special trip to the Cascades tomorrow, returning to The Dalles tomorrow night to be ready for her regular trip Wednesday morning. No through passengers will be taken, as the Regulator makes connection with the Dalles City only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The chill which spread over the city early this morning was caused by the arrival of about one hundred tons of ice from North Powder. As Col. Sinsott received considerably more than half of the consignment, he was "approached" about it by a chattering guest, trembling with the chill.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles un-called for Friday, February 12, 1892. Persons calling for same will give date on which they were advertised:

- Beyer, E F M Lind, Mrs Millie Mendenthal, E J Canuth, Walter W 2 Meny, Robert Clow, Harry H Nelson, Chas G Davis, Frank Sanford, J E Danolds, Will Smith, Henry H French, Thos E Taylor, C W Graham, Butch George, Wardner Humiston, F Weekman, Wm M T. NOLAN, P. M.

Wednesday night last the steamer R. R. Thompson, in attempting to cross the bow of the steamer Astorian, at a place on the Columbia known as Coffin's point, ran into the Astorian, tearing out the port deck and knocking in the guard.

The chairman then appointed C. L. Phillips, M. T. Nolan and G. J. Farley as the executive committee and L. E. Crowe, T. E. Bronson and J. E. Barnett committee on membership.

On motion the recommendations of the State central committee were adopted as to date of holding primary elections and county convention, namely primary elections March 26, 1892.

A recess was then taken till half past one o'clock p. m. The hour of adjournment having arrived the meeting was called to order and the report of committee was read and adopted as follows:

Mr. Chairman: Your committee to whom was referred the matter of apportioning the delegates in the next republican county convention having had the same, under consideration beg leave to submit the following report:

We recommend that one delegate be allowed for each twenty votes cast for Binger Hermann in 1890 and one for each fraction of ten votes or over and one from each precinct at large.

Table with 2 columns: Precincts, No. Delegates. Lists precincts like Falls, Hood River, Baldwin, Mosier, West Dalles, Biglow, Trivett, East Dalles, Eight Mile, Columbia, DesChutes, Nansene, Dufur, Kingsley, Tygh Valley, Wamac, Oak Grove, Bake Oven, Antelope.

On motion a committee consisting of M. T. Nolan, Robert Mays and J. O. Mack was appointed to name judges of primary elections to be held in Dalles City under the primary election law with leave to report at any time.

After due consideration the following named electors were recommended as suitable persons to act as said judges and were duly ratified by the central committee.

East Dalles—Wm. Tackman, H. W. Steel, B. F. Laughlin. Biglow—C. J. Grandall, Wm. Sylvester, J. M. Huntington. Trivett—E. L. Schmidt, W. J. Jeffrey, C. L. Phillips.

Special meetings may be called by the president and secretary or on the request of five members in good standing, notice of which shall be given by the secretary or in one or more of the daily papers.

The dues shall be fifty cents per month and such other dues or assessments as the club shall deem necessary.

Seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of ordinary business, but the levying of an assessment shall require a majority of members in good standing whose dues are paid up.

Any alteration or additions in these by-laws may be made by a majority of those present by giving notice in writing at a previous meeting.

After a recess, during which forty one persons signed the roster the following gentlemen were unanimously elected permanent officers: B. S. Huntington, president; M. A. Moody, vice president; Thomas A. Hudson, secretary; G. V. Bolton, treasurer, and Thomas Joles sergeant at arms.

The club was then addressed by Mr. W. McCamont a young lawyer from Portland who is here attending circuit court. Those who missed Mr. McCamont's speech missed one of the ablest efforts in the line of political oratory The Dalles people have been treated to for many a day.

The republican county central committee met at the county court room at 10 o'clock a. m. and was called to order by M. T. Nolan, chairman.

On motion the recommendations of the State central committee were adopted as to date of holding primary elections and county convention, namely primary elections March 26, 1892.
