LOUDLY GREETED BY DEMOCRATS.

Montgomery an Able Defender of the Work of the Committee...

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Tariff discussion in the house today was more than usually interesting, and there were several lively passages, which forcibly reminded one of the fierce political scenes of the past congress when this all-absorbing issue was at the front.

Oil On Troubled Waters.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Sherman expressed himself Saturday in a private conversation on the Behring sea controversy. As he is chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations his views may be taken as oil to soothe the troubled waters.

Circuit Judges to be Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—It is thought that Senator Hoar, chairman of the judiciary committee of the senate, will be well enough to attend a meeting of his committee today, at which time they are to take up the nomination of the circuit judges, made some time ago, and probably act one way or the other upon them.

Democratic Caucus Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—A democratic caucus will be held tomorrow evening for the purpose of electing a congressional campaign committee.
