

The Weekly Chronicle.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF WASCO COUNTY.

Entered at the Postoffice at The Dalles, Oregon, as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

BY MAIL (POSTAGE PREPAID) IN ADVANCE. Weekly, 1 year, $1.50; 6 months, $0.75; 3 months, $0.50; Daily, 1 year, $6.00; 6 months, $3.00; 3 months, $1.50.

The republican convention of Wasco county has met and done its work and adjourned and the result, so far as the state delegation is concerned, comes too dangerously near being a menace to the best interests of Wasco county and of the Inland Empire to be a matter for congratulation.

When the binding twine used in this country was manufactured abroad it cost our farmers seventeen cents a pound. Now that it is made at home, under the protection afforded by the McKinley law, the price has been reduced to seven and a half cents and thousands of American artisans are given employment in its manufacture.

A smoker in the harbor of Barcelona threw a match down, after lighting his pipe, and it set fire to a petroleum cargo on a barge, which blazed furiously and drifting in the harbor played sad havoc.

Goldendale has a ghost that periodically visits the pale glimpses of the moon and horribly shakes the disposition of the citizens with thoughts beyond the reaches of their soles.

The Arlington board of trade has secured the promise of steamboat traffic between Arlington and Pasco, as soon as a boat can be obtained for the purpose.

The democratic delegates to the Minnesota state convention, are instructed for Cleveland. The vote is 445 to 4 so far in seventy-five counties.

We have no comment to make at present on the statement of county clerk Crossen, published elsewhere in this issue, further than this, that we deny, emphatically that we have been publishing statements concerning the emoluments of the clerk's office for political effect.

Republicans of The Dalles and Wasco county should learn wisdom from the past. Two years ago, next January, we had four men to represent us at Salem. One only, Senator Watkins, represented his whole constituency.

The republican convention that meets in this city tomorrow has 76 delegates. At a rough guess fifty of these represent the country and the agricultural classes.

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. A powerful corporation with strong local allies will do everything in their power to name the state delegates, and the next Wasco and Sherman county representatives.

The most powerful argument we have yet heard for closing the worlds fair on Sundays, was presented last Tuesday to the senate committee on quadro-centennial, when a representative of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, a society numbering 23,000 persons, mostly brakemen, pleaded for the observance of Sunday in order that railway employees might have an opportunity for rest.

Three things will come before the next legislature that will demand men of brains, intelligence, backbone and honesty. One is a new assessment law, another a reduction in the fees of clerk and sheriff of this county, and the third the dalles portage railway bill.

At the Clackamas county republican convention, held on the 23rd inst., resolutions were adopted condemning the mortgage tax law and favoring a deduction for indebtedness, and no taxing of credits.

London seems to be quite solicitous concerning the fate of Americans, in the event the silver bill fails.

An experimenting physician has discovered that hypodermic injections of the brains of a sheep will bring renewed vigor and intellectual energy into human heads fagged out by overwork or originally lacking in the quality or quantity of grey matter.

Yamhill County Ledger: How can we wonder at the young men and boys indulging in the brutal amusement (if it can be so called) of prizefighting. Every paper almost contains some account of a prizefight in some part of the United States.

Newburg Graphic. A Portland ordinance provides that no saloon shall be within 400 feet of a public school building. Last week Councilmen Merrick offered an amendment, placing the intervening distance at 300 feet.

F. W. L. Skibbe, proprietor of the Skibbe brick hotel, has just had a fine cut made of the building which he intends to use in decorating his business cards, hotel stationery, etc.

There is a chance for some young man in Wasco county, to go to the Corvallis college, by appointment from the senator of this joint senatorial district.
