THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

FRIDAY - - - APRIL 22, 1892.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Tuesday.

W. H. Heale, United States bank examiner is in the city.

Hon. W. Lair Hill arrived in the city on the noon passenger today.

Ike Driver and Henry Patison of Wamic, were in town last night.

D. W. Rayburn and H. T. Corwin are registered at the Enropean house.

W. K., and George MacLeod two of Kingsley's solid men, were in town last night.

C. Wells Whitcomb, M. D., of Dufur arrived in town last night from a trip to Portland.

Bishop Morris is expected in The Dalles on Sunday next, on his annual visitation.

THE CHRONICLE acknowledges the receipt of valuable documents from Hon. Binger Hermann.

J. M. Huntington has been appointed agent and solicitor for the National Life Insurance company.

Mrs. George Small, wife of the editor of the Baker City Democrat is visiting Mrs. Geo. W. Rowland in this city.

Misses Mary Cox and Ollie Amen, two of Kingsley's most charming young ladies are registered at the Umatilla house.

W. J. Roberts C. E., has accepted a position as city engineer at Colfax, Wash., and removed to that place last evening.

Solomon Houser of Tygh, and Mrs. Susana Herlacher of Switzerland were united in matrimony yesterday afternoon by Justice Schutz.

G. W. McCoy, the real estate man of Portland, is in the city, casting his argus eye wistfully over The Dalles as a promising point for investments.

Snipes & Kinersly have a fine collection of souvenir photographs of beautiful scenes about The Dalles which meet with good favor among visitors.

H. Turner of Prineville and Miss Emily Moss of Mendota, Ill., were married yesterday evening at the Umatilla house by Rev. Mr. Sutcliffe.

The fine stallion, belonging to Andy Lytle of Prineville, which lay sick for nearly a week opposite the M. E. church, died last night at Hood's stable.

Dr. John A. Giesendorfer, of Arlington, who was a pupil of the editor of this journal about seventeen years ago, is registered at the Umatilla house.

Assessor Barnett has been interviewing the taxpayers of Tygh Valley, Wamic and Wapinitia and leaves this afternoon for the Antelope and Bake Oven country.

The directors of the Single Track railway construction company have called a meeting at Portland, to consider the advisability of increasing the capital stock.

From the Fossil Journal we learn that Henry Steers and family left Fossil last week for their Antelope ranch, where they will remain during the summer months.

The Calla lilies presented to the Congregational church, mention of which was made yesterday, were from the chancel committee of St. Paul's (Episcopal) church.

At last a fair agreement has been reached between the United States and England, in relation to the protection of seals. Meantime, poachers continue their work.

Eggs and chickens for Easter were scarce in The Dalles' markets Saturday, which leads to the suggestion that this is a good point for some enterprising man to establish a hennery.

Thomas Brogan, brother of Phil Brogan, Sen., of Antelope arrived a few days ago with his wife and six children, from New Zealand. They will probably make their future home in this county.

Water deeply impregnated with salt has been struck near Union at a depth of ninety-three feet. The water rises almost to the surface and if an artesian flow can be obtained it may lead to the establishment of a salt manufactory there.

We learn, says the Prineville News, through a private letter from Burns that the Harney valley mines are rich beyond a doubt. The gold is nearly all Shippers of stock should remember that a very considerable can be saved by shipping by the Regulator. This boat has a capacity for about 130 head, or more than 6 car loads of cattle and the rates are more than 50 per cent. lower than by rail.

Mr. Kennedy succeeded in moving his new boat down to the river front at the foot of Union street yesterday, where she will be furnished with a boiler and engine and otherwise fitted for general traffic on the middle river. The boat is 50 feet in length, 10 feet beam with 6 feet hold. She has a carrying capacity of ten tons.

We are pleased to learn from Dr. Sutherland that Miss Lily Richards and Master Omer Spencer, son of Rev. A. C. Spencer, who have been suffering from diphtheria are improving. The doctor gave them permission to sit up this afternoon. Miss Nora Spencer, in whom the symptoms have been more characteristic remains about the same, although the membrane appears to have ceased spreading in the throat. The doctor says there can be no doubt the disease is diphtheria as in Miss Spencer's case it is very characteristic.

Superintendent Shelly's annual report places the number of persons in this county, between the ages of four and twenty, at 2,876. Of these the males exceed the females by 28. The number of pupils enrolled in the common schools during the year is 1,347. Although seven school districts were cut off in the strip recently attached to Sherman county, there are only 36 persons less this year than last who draw school money.

There are 56 school buildings in the county: 51 frame, 3 brick, and 2 log. The total value of school property, including buildings, school furniture, apparatus, etc., is estimated at $53,925 19. The average salary paid to male teachers is $52 75 per month, and that of female teachers $42 60. There are 55 school districts in the county, which employed a staff of 62 teachers. The superintendent is now busy making out the county apportionment, which he supposes will be about the same as last year.

From the Daily Chronicle, Wednesday.

J. R. Ranken of Hood River is in town.

B. Kelsay of Fossil is at the Umatilla house.

William Ashby of Antelope was at the Umatilla house last night.

Tender roses that have been out all winter may now be seen in bloom in some of our city gardens.

Andy Lytle of Prineville, came up from Portland last night and left this afternoon for Crook county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pease, California pioneers of '49, are visiting their son Mr. E. C. Pease, in this city.

Isaac Joles, Charles Dubois, William Young and W. H. Steel left yesterday morning on a prospecting tour to southeastern Oregon.

There are but a few days left to purchasers in which to avail themselves of the unprecedented bargains at Pease & Mays'. See advertisement on first page.

While other places at no great distance are covered with snow and ice, at The Dalles, spring, like an independent maiden, has jumped from the lap of winter, determined to conduct business on her own account.

J. K. Page had a letter yesterday from Charley Bascom. He reports having arrived at his new home in Onida, Madison county, N. Y., after a short and pleasant trip. His letter is full of hope and good cheer and contains kindly remembrances to old friends in The Dalles.

Con Howe gathered in two young gentlemen last night who gave their names as R. F. Cunningham aged 22, and J. A. Read aged 25, and their profession detectives, in proof of which claim one of them exhibited a detective's badge, which Con suspected him of having stolen. They were suspended from detective work for the night by being locked in the calaboose and this morning, with faces turned toward the land of the setting sun, were ordered to "git."

Allen Grant left his place near Antelope a couple of mornings ago, at 6:30 o'clock and made the distance to The Dalles, about 72 mile with the same team, against 6:30 p. m. This is more than seven miles an hour, without counting the time spent for dinner, or the time lost in righting the vehicle, after it had been capsized on Sherar's hill, through the horses having become frightened at the flapping of the canvass a passing prairie schooner. Allen solemnly vows that the team kept strictly sober during the whole trip.

At two o'clock this afternoon a phenomenon, somewhat strange and singular for this latitude and this time of year, appeared in the sky in the form of a corona, with rainbow hues, surrounding the sun. Coronae are hardly ever seen here, we believe, except in the fall and are then taken to indicate frost in the upper air.

L. Hoering of this city left at THE CHRONICLE office this morning, where it may now be seen, a seedling cherry tree this year's growth, the seed having been planted during the past winter.

The singular thing about this particular cherry tree is its precocity. It is in bloom, with one well developed, full blown blossom which bids fair to evolve itself into a cherry.

The Colonel, grasping the situation and looking at the thermometer, "but you must remember one thing; the moment the furnace stops eating up wood, the refrigerator will begin eating up ice."

Married this morning at 4:15 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Sutcliffe, W. S. Cram to Miss Katie Bulger. The happy couple left on the morning passenger for a three week's trip to California.

On the afternoon of the 18th inst., Joles Bros. telegraphed to Schuyler, Neb., for a load of corn. The corn arrived at The Dalles at 9:40 o'clock last night having been about six days on the road. This is five days shorter time than Joles Brothers have ever received similar freight over the same route. The charges were $148 and possibly Jay Gould wanted to get the money before the road would be turned over to the Vanderbilts tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Gillette, Mrs. B. H. Levy and Miss Lillie Ireland, of Portland, accompanied by D. C. Ireland of THE CHRONICLE, paid a visit to the dalles of the Columbia, the fruit-farms of Messrs. Seufert Bros., the cannery fish wheels, etc., etc., about all of which they returned elated; having been edified by the many lovely scenes, which include the finest view of Mount Hood and the surrounding country, in Oregon, as well as by the wonderful developments made by Messrs. Seufert Bros. This is one of the finest drives in Oregon.

The Columbia whist club held one of their enjoyable meetings last night at the residence of Messrs Hostetler and Ainsworth. The following members of the club were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Blakeley, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stephens, Mrs. Sampson, Mr. C. J. Crandall, Dr. Logan and L. D. Ainsworth, (known as "Miss" Ainsworth during the evening). The first prize, a plaque in water colors, was won by Mrs. H. S. Wilson, and the booby, a rattle, was awarded to Mrs. W. H. Wilson.

Miss Maie Atwater leaves Friday to attend the business college in Portland, and last night about fifty of her friends met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Story for a farewell party. A very enjoyable evening was spent with games. There was a drawing match at which prizes were given for the most original sketches. The first and second prizes were given to Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Lytle. Refreshments of ice-cream and cake were served. A number of Miss Atwater's friends presented her with a diamond ring. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Story, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, Mesdames Barrett, Morgan, Brooks, Small, Eddon; Misses Atwater, Michell, Enright, Cooper, Schmidt, Dow, Hinton, Patterson, Crandall, Rowland, Roberts, Story, Rose Michell, Ruth Cooper, Etta Story, Grace Michell, Bessie Cram, Alice Roberts, Elinor Story, Grace Marden, Emma Roberts; Messrs. Curtis, Mason, Max Vogt, Fred Clark, Groat, Martin Donnell, Charlie Clark and many others.

From the Daily Chronicle, Thursday.

E. T. Hinman gave the CHRONICLE a pleasant call today.

"Brush off the dust," with one of A. M. Williams & Co.'s fine brushes, or whisk brooms.

E. Jacobsen & Co., are fitting their store with a fine stock. Call and inspect these goods.

F. M. Salyer, C. E., has returned to The Dalles, and is thinking of opening an office here.

N. Harris is still unloading at sacrifice rates. See his advertisement, and call. It means business.

You must come early to Pease & Mays if you want those bargains. See advertisement on first page.

Mrs. Eli Hinman of Dufur passed through the city today on a visit to her parents at Oksdale, Wash.

The Dalles' stores are now actively engaged in all lines of trade, and the new stocks command admiration.

Mr. Chas. L. Schmidt is in the metropolis on business for a few days, but expects to return to The Dalles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Crossman, of La Crosse, Wisconsin, are visiting the family of Mr. Adolph Ulrich, of this city.

But one fish wheel is so far turning its annual grind at Seufert Bros. fishery, and it is meeting with indifferent success.

Luther E. Crowe, junior member of the firm of Mays & Crowe, returned today from a business trip to the consolidated city.

Mr. Stump, of White Salmon, with his eleven hundred dollar dogs, started for Vancouver, B. C., yesterday by steamer Regulator, for an extended bear hunt in the wilds of British Columbia.

A private letter from Grant county and indeed reports from all parts of Eastern Oregon indicate a most successful lambing season for sheep men. Numbers of flockmasters will make 100 per cent increase and some even more.

The Irish World of March 26th, contains notice of the death of Michael Donnelly, in Wexford, Ireland, at the age of 106 years. He was a teacher of four generations, and Col. Sinnott, of this city, was once a pupil in his school. Amongst his pupils were Thomas Darcy McGee, Bishop Rickards of South Africa, and many other distinguished men of the present day.

Miss Alice Hamill who is billed for the entertainment to be given under the auspices of the ladies of the Good Intent society tomorrow night, among other interesting features will present the "Sleepwalking scene from Mac-Beath," a "Naughty Little Girl," the "Bobolink," with bird notes, the "Bald-headed man," etc.

Miss Hubbard, Miss Burnside and Mr. Linus Hubbard, were passengers this morning on the steamer Regulator, for a trip down the lordly and majestic Columbia, to Astoria. They have the promise of most delightful weather for the trip. The trip of Uncle Linus is supposed to have some connection with ulterior measures on his part for opening the river to those modern revolutionizers of ocean and river traffic, the whalebacks.

Mr. Wm. J. Roberts, who left this city this week to accept the position of civil engineer of the city of Colfax, recently completed the survey of an irrigating ditch at Hood River, which is eleven miles in length, and converts 2,000 miners inches of water over a tract of 6,000 acres, which will all be under cultivation in a short time, to add to the renown of that locality, now famous for the production of almost anything that can be cultivated in the soil, or raised upon trees.

From George Phelps, who came up from the Wind Mountain Springs a couple of days ago we learn that it is intended to have the new hotel now in course of construction ready for occupancy by the first of May. A bathhouse with three tubs has been erected over the spring and the spring itself protected from high water by a concrete wall. It is quite expected that the Wind Mountain Springs will be a favorite resort during the coming summer as the medicinal virtues of the water are known to be highly beneficial to numerous classes of invalids.

I. J. Buttler of Kingsley came into town yesterday afternoon. He reports crops looking fine. The cut worm, that usually does considerable mischief at this time of year, has only appeared in a few places and a short period of warm weather will place the crops beyond the ravages of this pest. Mr. Buttler reports a singularly fatal disease that has attacked his young pigs causing the death of eight head. The animals swell at the knee and ankle joints and these when opened after death exude a large quantity of yellow matter. No one around Kingsley is able to account for the disease or prescribe a cure.
