THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

FRIDAY - - - APRIL 22, 1892.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From the Daily Chronicle, Friday. Mr. H. J. Corbett returned to The Dalles today.

Sheriff Samson, of Oregon City, was in the city yesterday.

John Donahue, the future justice of the peace of Kent precinct, in Sherman county, gave THE CHRONICLE a pleasant call today.

A delegation of about a dozen Odd Fellows of this city left today for Moro to institute a new lodge of the order at that place tonight.

If the children of Rev. A. C. Spencer have diphtheria, as it is said, it is hoped it is in a mild form as they are reported better today.

C. P. Balch, republican candidate for sheriff of this county, and Mrs. Balch, who have been visiting friends here for the past few days, left for home this afternoon.

James Brown of Mosier has recently been working on an old mining claim, which he took up two years ago, near Mosier creek, and about four miles from Mosier station, and has struck rock the character of which, he thinks, is a sure indication of silver lower down.

While the ballots for coroner were being counted yesterday at the democratic county convention the name of "Farley" was called out. Of course it set the house in a roar of laughter, which had not quite subsided when the teller opened another ballot and called out "Moody." The joke was neatly executed and thoroughly appreciated.

The storm which passed over The Dalles yesterday afternoon, tore things loose when it reached Umatilla, going at the rate of sixty miles per hour. At Umatilla a car containing three coal-burners was blown out of the coal-burners down an incline 100 feet. The men jumped and were uninjured. At Echo, several houses were unroofed and the railroad water-tank blown down. No fatalities are reported. The surrounding country has not been heard from yet.

Why do not the people who have so much sympathy raise a subscription of $110 for the poor widow, in Astoria, who is not permitted to put up a government light on private property, the owners of which have a nightwatchman who is responsible to them in case of fire? It is about that period, in the lives of some Astorians, when they should relegate personal hatreds for public good.

Cap. Engersby informed a CHRONICLE representative today that he made a careful examination yesterday of his peach, pear and plum trees and found the young fruit practically unaffected by the late frosts. He says the blossoms are so thick on the trees that they could stand considerable thinning out and yet leave as much fruit as the trees ought to be allowed to bear.

One our handsomest and most popular young society men met with a singular surprise yesterday morning. Night before he returned from a whist party a couple of hours after midnight and with a little delay as possible went to bed leaving one of his bedroom windows open. As he opened his eyes in the morning and looked towards the foot of the bed, they fell on a matron of the feline race which, during the preceding night, had been taken with the troubles incident to the propagation of her species, and, seeing an open window and a comfortable bed had sought its kindly softness for bringing her five little sightless children into the world.

THE CHRONICLE erred yesterday when it said that it was the children of Rev. A. C. Spencer who arrived here last Sunday morning from the east, who are down with the diphtheria. The fact is, the two who are ill, one a girl of fifteen and the other a boy of thirteen, lived here all winter, and Lily Richards has been living with them for about six weeks. None of the children who arrived Sunday morning have as yet shown any symptoms of the disease. THE CHRONICLE makes this explanation in justice to Mr. Spencer, who very naturally would not like to have it supposed that his children brought the disease here.

Julius Wiley, steward of the Regulator, has spent most of his spare time since last Sunday studying the church calendar in order to find the orthodox day on which Easter falls this year. Last Sunday morning he was approached, before breakfast, by the four deck hands who asked, "Aint you going to set the eggs up for breakfast this morning, Julius?" "Why?" asked the steward. "Why? why it's Easter Sunday, don't you know?" "No, I didn't know it was Easter Sunday," was the response. "You bet it is," chorused the deck hands and Julius responded by ordering the cook to give the boys all the eggs they wanted to eat. After they had loaded themselves down to the gunwale, Julius began to suspect that he had been made the victim of misplaced confidence, but the boys assured him that, as this is leap year, there are two Easters in it. So Julius is now studying the calendar to find out if the boys have lied to him, and at last accounts, he gravely suspects they have.

James Macken of Macken Flat, Sherman county, is at the Umatilla house. J. D. Wilcox, republican candidate for county commissioner of Sherman county, was in town today.

From the Daily Chronicle, Saturday. The editor-in-chief is rustivating in the country today.

Mr. Horace Rice, of Fifteen Mile, is in the city on business.

Herman Ernst has arrived safely at his old home, in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mr. Frank Sampson, of Warm Springs Indian Agency came into the city today. The sick in the family of Rev. A. C. Spencer, are somewhat improved today.

Mr. P. W. Severson, of Mount Tabor, an uncle of Mrs. Glenn, of this city, is enjoying a visit in The Dalles.

Max Blank has two patent machines working at his brick yard, and will next month burn a kiln of 100,000 brick of extra fine quality.

Wm. Bolton & Co., of Antelope, have purchased a large stock of merchandise for their spring trade, which is being freighted, this week and next.

Friends of Mr. E. P. Roberts, who has been dangerously ill for some time past, will be pleased to learn that he is now steadily recovering.

Mr. L. Rordan, who is opening a fine stock of glassware, etc., in the new store room of French & Co., will be ready for business next week.

An Eastern Oregon girl has married Henry Hug. She will probably call him to dinner by his full name, but be careful where she places her accent.

Wm. Stewart & Bro., residing on John Day near Canyon City, were in The Dalles today with a select herd of thoroughbred Durhams, from choice stock of the Willamette valley.

P. W. Gillette, the leading bona fide real estate merchant of Portland, is in the city. He will arrange affairs so as to have Mrs. Gillette remain here some time, for the benefit of her health.

Now that all the candidates have been named the weather is fine, and no more frost may be expected until June, when two thirds of three tickets will be snowed out of sight. This is Joggles' weather prediction.

Mr. M. Waterman, of lower Eight Mile, is in the city today. He says the fruit in his neighborhood is all right, and as to wheat, etc., it is the first season that rain has been in full supply during his residence in that part of the county.

Reports of fisheries all along the river say salmon are scarce. About The Dalles there are none for either traps or wheels. At Oregon City and on the Clackamas the catch is much smaller than there was good reason to hope, and the lower Columbia canneries' complaint is more than unusually loud.

Miss Julia Hubbard, sister of Mr. Linus Hubbard of this city, who has been on a visit to her brother from Buffalo, New York, for some time past, is preparing to return soon to her eastern home. Before going however, a trip to the mouth of the Columbia, taking in Astoria, Fort Stevens and Canby, the jetty, lights, Ilwaco, Seaside, Etc., is in contemplation.

The shadow social given in the neat and newly refitted hall in THE CHRONICLE building last night, was a success. Attendance and ice cream were both good. The shadow auction sales were amusing and profitable. Harmon Lodge, I. O. G. T., netted about $20 for their regalia fund, and passed a vote of thanks to Mr. J. B. Crossen, for his kindness in officiating as chief auctioneer of the evening.

Hon. O. N. Denny, who left for Portland last evening, enjoyed his visit amongst his old-time friends in The Dalles very much indeed. While abroad, as advisor to His Majesty the King of Corea, and director of foreign affairs, in addition to being vice-president of His Majesty's privy council, affairs shaped a course for the great benefit of those people, but, Judge Denny says he often felt as if his official head would be taken by the designing and mercenary gang by which he was surrounded, and is glad to get back to Oregon again, even at the sacrifice of being called upon to represent Multnomah in the next state senate, to which position his many friends have placed him in nomination.

From the Daily Chronicle, Monday. David Crabtree of Tygh was in the city today.

C. P. Balch, republican candidate for sheriff, is in the city.

Dr. Siddall left last night for Portland to be absent till Wednesday.

A. W. Branner, the popular stage man, was in the city yesterday.

Robert Rand, of Hood River, came up on the noon passenger today.

The King's Daughters meet at Mrs. Randalls' tomorrow at 2 p. m.

The calaboose had one hobo last night who was fined $5 and costs this morning.

Ex-Senator Slater, of Pendleton, passed through The Dalles for Portland, last evening.

Mr. Joseph T. Hayne, of Baltes & Co., leading job printers of Portland, was in The Dalles yesterday.

Mr. P. P. Gates, of Lafayette, grand master of the Odd Fellows, is in the city on an official visit to the fraternity.

S. E. Farris started the street sprinkler this morning, but finding the barrel leak somewhat he stopped till the afternoon for repairs.

The river was dotted with fleet sailing craft yesterday, freighted with people who are fond of a yacht ride in a leading breeze. The Dalles has numerous fine sailing boats, and the number is increasing.

In view of the fact that Hon. James Raley declines the democratic nomination for congress the Baker City Democrat sees a strong man for the place in the person of Judge A. S. Bennett, of Wasco county.

The horse belonging to Andy Lytle of Prineville, that has been lying paralyzed for nearly a week in front of the M. E. church, is so far recovered that he was able to walk to Hood's stable where he continues to improve.

Mrs. Capt. Lanfair, of Astoria, mother of Mrs. Julius Wiley, came up on the Regulator Saturday evening. After remaining over Sunday with Mrs. Wiley she left on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Kooper, of Bake Oven.

Among the beautiful decorations of the court house at the Easter service were a dozen Calla lillies, the gift of Rev. F. Sutcliff, Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, to his friend W. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church.

The following delegates to the democratic state convention were passengers on the Regulator this morning: H. E. Moore, of Nansene; B. C. McAtee, of Tygh; John R. Doyle, of Eight Mile; and H. M. Beall, R. R. Hinton, Hon. A. S. Bennett, J. L. Story and Dr. W. E. Rhinehart, of this city.

D. B. Kelly arrived in town yesterday evening from his stock ranch at Summit Prairie, Crook county. Mr. Kelly has 80 head of fine, stall-fed beeves on their way to The Dalles where he expects them to arrive about the 26 instant, from whence, if they are not sold meanwhile, they will be taken to the Portland market.

It is now settled that the eastern delegates to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States, to meet in Portland May 19th, coming via the Union Pacific railway, will stop over Sunday in Salt Lake City. When they reach The Dalles, the following Wednesday, they will take the steamer for Portland. Those coming over the Northern Pacific will arrive in the evening of Wednesday May 18th.

Council Proceedings.

An adjourned meeting of the common council was held Saturday evening at which there was a full attendance.

In the matter of the assessment of Mrs. Mary E. Walker, the judiciary committee reported that they had not yet been able to obtain sufficient information to enable them to make an intelligent decision.

In the matter of the alleged water right of the Flynn family, the city attorney verbally reported that the Flynn family had no rights in the matter in question and recommended that a committee be appointed to try an arrange an amicable settlement. The matter was, therefore, referred to the committee on streets and public property.

In the matter of removing obstruction from what is known as Fritz's alley, the city attorney reported that there was no alley on record.

The committee on streets and public property reported as follows: "Your committee, to whom was referred the matter of the sale of certain lots belonging to Dalles City, beg respectfully to report: That we recommend that 70 feet of the south parts of lots 1 and 2 in block 18 be sold at public auction to the highest and best bidder, for not less than $125 each; that the south half of lots 3, 4, 5 and 6 in said block 18, lots 2 to 10 inclusive in block 19 and lots 7, 8, 11 and 12 in block 14 be sold in a similar manner at not less than $100 each; that the said lots shall be offered at public sale after having been advertised thirty days; that no person shall be allowed to buy more than one lot 50x100 feet or two lots 50x50 feet and that purchasers shall bind themselves to build on their lots within four months after date of sale, provided that the present occupant of any lot who shall purchase the same shall have preference. It is recommended that the water commissioners give such time as they may deem prudent for payment of purchase money, interest being charged on deferred payments. Respectfully submitted, C. N. THORNBURY, PAUL KREFF, HANS HANSEN.

The report elicited considerable discussion and was finally laid over until next meeting with instructions to the city attorney to advise as to the best mode of proceeding in the premises.

An ordinance entitled an ordinance regulating water closets and privies passed by a unanimous vote. The ordinance is intended to compel parties who have closets within 300 feet of a public sewer to make connection therewith in all cases where the public sewer is a sufficient distance below the closet to insure sufficient drainage.

The petition of the Epworth League to have permission to erect a number of public fountains and watering places near the sidewalks of the city and so constructed as to afford drinking water for man and beast, was granted unanimously.

On motion the council adjourned to the next regular meeting.

New Lodge of the I. O. O. F.

For several weeks past a number of Odd Fellows of Sherman county have been quietly making arrangements for a new lodge of the order at Moro, and on the afternoon of Friday the 15th inst., Dr. O. D. Doane, Past Grand Master, assisted by a numerous delegation of the members of Columbia lodge No. 5 of this city, and Ridgeley Lodge No. 71 of Dufur, duly instituted Moro Lodge No. 113, I. O. O. F., with five charter and eight additional members, so that the new lodge begins its existence with a total membership of thirteen.

Moro lodge is very favorably located in a prosperous and enterprising community, in the heart of one of the best agricultural regions of Eastern Oregon. Its membership is drawn from among the most prominent residents of the county, and from the favorable impressions already made, as well as the earnest and active character of its originators and supporters, has every prospect of rapidly increasing its numbers, and speedily becoming an efficient and prosperous organization. The lodge has a very neat and commodious hall, and is fully equipped with all the paraphernalia to the work of the order.

In the evening a large concourse of the ladies and gentlemen of Moro and vicinity assembled in the hall of the lodge to witness a public installation of its first officers, viz: Chas. E. Jones, N. G., E. Peoples, V. G., O. E. Leet, Secretary and T. J. Fana, Treasurer.

After the installation brief and stirring addresses were made by several speakers present and then the lodge dismissed its guests and resumed the labor of initiating candidates and conferring degrees. At a later hour those present to the number of nearly fifty were invited to the residence of Mr. W. A. Moore, where they were sumptuously entertained at a generous banquet prepared by the good ladies of Moro. This event was entirely a surprise to the visiting brothers, and will long be remembered by all not only for the elegance of the repast, but for the genial welcome given them by their fair entertainers.

Saturday morning at an early hour, the visitors returned home, bringing with them the most pleasant recollections of their visit and feeling under many obligations for their cordial reception and generous treatment by their brothers and the citizens of Moro.

Long live and flourish Moro Lodge No. 113 I. O. O. F.

ONE OF THE VISITORS.

Enlistments Still Coming

The recruiting office opened in this city by Commodore Linus Hubbard, for the enlistment of influential people in the service for "An Open River," still brings its good results. The following letter from Rep. John L. Wilson, is an assurance of his willingness to step to the front, and keep up with the procession. Writing to Mr. Hubbard, from the house of representatives, under date of April 11th, Mr. Wilson says: "I am in receipt of yours enclosing photograph of whaleback steamer C. W. Wetmore and Colgate Hoyt passing Sault Ste Marie locks and in reply I have to advise you that at all times I shall take pleasure in contributing in every way within my power for an early completion of the Cascade Locks and an open river to the sea. I have in the past, I am now, and I shall continue in the future to be, a warm advocate of cheap transportation for the farm products of the interior to the markets of the world."

The treasury department at Washington has issued a statement showing the total amount of money of all kinds of circulation on the first day of the present month to have been $1,608,641,530, an increase of $78,561,056 over the amount in circulation on the first in April a year ago. Reckoning the population of the United States at sixty-five millions, this gives a per capita circulation of $24.74, a higher per capita than existed at any time during the war when it was necessary to issue millions of paper money to preserve the nation's life. The increase in circulation is larger than the increase in population, the silver bill of 1890, alone, adding fifty-four millions annually. With these facts before us it is impossible to find any reasonable justification for an inflation that involves the right of every man who is possessed of 68 cents worth of silver bullion to have a United States mint stamp placed on it, falsely certifying it to be a hundred cent dollar.

There is a cheering evidence that our evening contemporary has been taking lessons on manners lately. Last night it devoted more than a column to this journal and its editor never used the term "fellow" but once, on the other hand, "mistered" us twice. Good! we now believe, more than ever, "that while the lamp holds on to burn the greatest sinner may return."

At the late democratic county convention of Marion county, a delegate was seen wearing a tuft of wool, labeled "free." The convention appropriately nominated him for coroner.

Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which, make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. 50c. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.
